THE GOOD WORD from the Bible

The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

Isaiah 40: 3-5

Fayetteville's Recent Happenings

By Mrs. T. H. Kinney

Thousands enjoyed the Easter Break in many forms and fashions. I am sure you had a grandcelebration, you deserved it.

Think! We will celebrate Easter on March 28th in 1978 and then we will not celebrate it again until the year 2000.

Henrietta Peters, a native of Fayetteville, has been promoted to operations supervisor in the Martinsville, Va., social security office. Henrietta is a 1969 graduate of Fayetteville State University with a degree in business administration. We congratulate her.

Happy Birthday wishes go out to those of you who had a birthday this week. I am sure you received many things "great and small."

A one day seminar on "The Making of a Criminal Justice Professional" was held at F. S. U. on Thursday.

Several outstanding officials attended. They heard Lew Taylor, special assistant to the administrator, Law Enforcement Assistance Act, Washington at a luncheon banquet.

Congratulations - Pianist Michael Caldwell, a native of Fayetteville recently won national acclaim when he was announced the grand prize winner at the 45th annual Dealey Competition which was held in March, in Dallas, Texas. An eight member jury selected Michael from among the 49 contestants. He is currently assistant professor of Music at Hollins College, Va.

Congratulations are also in style for 7 high school students who will attend a summer program at the Governor's School of North Carolina. Chosen to study the particular academic or artistic fields include: Valeria Ann Bell, Donald B. Edwards, Valdor O'Ray Gibson and Delcena Lynn Thompson; E. E. Smith High, Teresa DeShields and Benetta D. Walker from Terry Sanford; Mark McNeill, Reid Ross.

Hundreds heard Rep. Walter Fauntroy delegate to Congress from the District of Columbia Thursday 8 p.m. Seabrook Auditorium, F. S. U. The F. S. U. Men's Assembly deserves the credit. Jesse Dickens presided, his plea was "God Give Us, Men". Rep. Fauntroy was introduced by Anthony S. Pickett. Rep. Fauntroy is concerned about the black youth of America. He stated they will have difficulties in finding jobs. He is asking "let's have jobs so as to wipe out crime and drugs."

The following persons were recognized Mrs. Ruby Murchison-the national teacher of the year and John T. Gibson, Fayetteville City teacher of the year. Awards were presented to Mrs. Rosa Terrey, Dr. Claude Stephens, Jr., and John Griffin.

I recommend that we read Lillian Smith's KILLERS OF THE DREAM. Then read, WE NEED TO CHALLENGE OUR YOUTH by Rev. Jesse Jackson - Charlotte Observer, Sun, April 18. He pleads to the black disc jockeys to try and reach the youth, inform and inspire them - He suggests further the black church. Read it, it's good therapy for us all.

To the sick and shut-in: In the place where you are, I sincerely hope you will feel better right away.

LOVE - share it with everyone you meet.

FAYETTEVILLE'S RECENT HAPPENINGS

Sympathy goes out to Miss Lisa Atkins and family. Miss Atkins lost her father. Sincere sympathy also goes out to the family of Miss Wanda Brown who lost her father.

It was wonderful to meet, greet and welcome, Mrs. Annie Dingle and her family during the weekend.
