CHUCKLE COLUMN

Good Behavior The young cowboy was sent to prison for twenty years, charged with bank robbery. Naturally, the parents of the lad were distraught. The neighbors kept consoling mom and dad. Ten years later, the western robber was released from prison. The happy mother shouted, "They just let my boy out of prison for good behavior." "Didn't I always tell you he was really a good boy,' replied the neighbor.

There's a difference between capital and labor. If you lend money, that's capital. When you try to get it back, that's capital.

Good Movie An elderly gentleman went to the movies only to surprisingly find himself seated behind a man and his dog. The dog grumbled and barked throughout the film. Finally, our unsuspecting moviegoer leaned forward, tapped the man with the dog on the shoulder, and said: "Pardon me. I can't understand your dog's behavior." "It is rather amazing," was part of the reply, "he didn't like the book at all.
