

I LOOKED AND I SAW

By Rev. C. R. Stone

"ALL MEN CAN KNOW"

How can the children of men know that they possess treasures with the Father? All men can erase the slightest degree of doubt by fellowshipping with the brethren with whom they meet on a daily basis. The fellowship of which I speak limits the evil spirit which so often prevails. The primary factor which limits the evil spirit is the element of true love which must be demonstrated by the brethren. For example, Jesus said, "all men can know that ye are my disciples if ye have love for one another." Of course, the Master Teacher was placing direct emphasis on our being doers of the word and constraining ourselves from using a multitude of words from our lips.

The true love which can only come forth through the divine channel of God worketh no evil on the part of Christians toward one another. The idea as expressed here does not mean that Christians will be in complete harmony under all circumstances. However, it does mean that in spite of varying views, we will retain the Christian-like cool in heads and hearts.

Further, it means that if we are Christians in love, we look beyond the idea of man being the center of our faithful doings thus, allowing Christ to be the nucleus of our faith. The nucleus of any living thing or person represents the place where a whole lot of action goes on continuously. Because the true works of Christ do not cease going on within us, all mean men can know that we are His disciples.

He who hath ears to hear—let him hear.

Evang. Howell Highlights Mt. Olive Passion Week

During the week of April 10 through April 16, Mount Olive United Holy Church at 808 Lee Street, Durham held a thought provoking and unique Passion Week Service. Instead of the traditional and final Lenten season worship, Mount Olive's Evangelistic Department, under the directorship of Miss Priscilla Jones, sponsored a revival for four nights. Featured at the revival was Rev. Mrs. Beatrice Howell, a resident of Durham and member of Mount Olive.

Evangelist Howell provided the church with meaningful messages for the week. The theme throughout the week was "God's Concern For A Lost World." From Monday through Thursday nights, subjects or topics included "Lost," "Why?" "What... Are You Going To Do About It?" and "When", respectively. Supporting scriptures were taken from Matthew 21:23, 24:1-15, 26:17-19, and Luke 22.

Climaxing the week's services was a presentation of the Seven Last Words, a tradition leading up to Easter Sunday. Instead of one however, there were individual speakers for the various last words, or phrases, as were spoken by Christ before his death. Participants in this portion of the weekly presentation were Earl Anthony, Mrs. Mary Eubanks, Evangelist Howell, Mrs. Audrey Dawson, Evangelist Gladys Surles, and Mrs. Rose Howell. Also enhancing the program were solos from Mrs. Louise Manuel and Miss Emma Manuel.

Baha'is To Observe 133rd Anniversary Of Bab

On May 23, the Baha'is of Durham will join Baha'is in more than 300 countries and territories around the world in observing the 133rd Anniversary of the Declaration of the Bab.

The program will recall how on May 23, 1844 in Shiraz, Iran (then Persia) a young man named Mirza Ali Muhammad declared that he was a Prophet of God and took the title Bab or "Gate of God." He also said he was the Herald of a new cycle in human history and that another and greater Prophet would soon appear to fulfill the prophecies of all the great religions and usher in an age of world unity. Because of these claims, the Bab and His followers were persecuted by the Muslim clergy. He was imprisoned, banished, and at last publicly martyred in 1859 in Tabriz, Iran. More than 30,000 of His followers were also martyred during this period. One of His disciples, who shared in the suffering of His coreligionists, was Baha'u'llah (Glory of God) who in 1863 announced that He was the Promised One foretold by the Bab. The Anniversary of the Declaration of the Bab is one of nine Holy Days on which Baha'is suspend work each year. It is a festive event that recalls the beginning of the "divine springtime" and Baha'i communities everywhere observe it with music, talks, entertainment, and philanthropic deeds. Above all, it is a time to demonstrate the oneness and unity of mankind.

Leaders For Lasting Peace

More than a hundred representatives of Christians Moslems, Shintoists, Judaists, and Buddhists from dozens of Asian, African, American and European countries in Moscow late in March for an enlarged meeting of the Preparatory Committee for the World Conference "Religious Workers for Lasting Peace, Disarmament and Just Relations Among Nations." At the proposal of the Russian Orthodox Church it has been decided to hold the conference in the middle of 1977 in Moscow.

The idea of holding an international conference of followers of various religions to serve peace was advanced by representatives of the churches and religious associations of the Soviet Union. The initiative meets the wishes of all religious leaders who took part in the World Congress of Peace Forces in 1973 and today seek to multiply their construction to strengthening peace and justice on earth.

As Patriarch Pimen, the head of the Russian Orthodox Church, noted in his speech to the champions of the future Conference, peaceful co-existence, the elimination of the threat of war, disarmament, just social
