Dr. Wayne Watson To Head Boggs Academy

Dr. Wayne D. Watson has been named President of Boggs Academy, the only accredited, co-educational, predominately black college preparatory boarding school in the United States.

A native of Chicago, Illinois, Watson will become the academy's sixth chief administrator since its founding 71 years ago. Located in Keysville, Georgia, Boggs has an enrollment of 185 students, grades 8 through 12.

The 31 year old President-elect will assume his duties June 16. He leaves the position of General Manager of Wheeler Airlines, Raleigh. Watson is a 1968 graduate of Northwestern University, where he received the Master of Arts degree in Teaching in 1970 and the Ph. D. in Educational Administration in 1972. He did post-doctoral study at California State University at Fullerton.

His experience in education and public administration is extensive. Since 1974 he has been a Part-time Core Faculty Member at Union Graduate School, a position which has allowed him to accompany doctoral students to East Africa for research and study.

In 1974 he was appointed Chairman of the Division of Education and Associate Professor of Education at Shaw University, where he served from 1973-74 as Program Designer/Instructor in the Jobs Corps/Shaw University Middle Management Program and from 1972-74 as Associate Professor of Public Administration and Director of Research.

In 1972 Dr. Watson was appointed E. S. E. A., Title III Proposal Evaluator for the State (Illinois) Superintendent of Public Instruction, and from 1970-72 was Assistant to the City Librarian for the Evanston (Illinois) Public Library System.

Preceding his position as Director and Instructor for the Evanston Office of Economic Opportunity (Summer, 1970), he served as Class Lecturer at Loyola University, Assistant Director of Black Studies at Kendall College, Instructor at Northwestern University, Co-ordinator of the Counselor Aid Program at Evanston Township High School, and Project Director of "Operation Eye-Opener" for the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Dr. Watson is author of several papers and publications including "Oral Tradition," "A Vehicle in Education," "Kinship Language Model," "Oral Tradition Techniques," and "Education, A Vehicle for Containment of Liberation."

His professional and civic endeavors include affiliation with the African Heritage Studies Association, American Educational Research Association, African Archival Association, Kinte Library Association, and Editorial Board of the Journal of Negro Education, Howard University.

The affable Dr. Watson is a licensed flight pilot who enjoys karate, tennis and horseback riding.

KEEP THAT GREAT GM FEELING WITH GENUINE GM PARTS

- GM Transmission Fluid And Filter Change
Don't wait 'til it's too late... A check now could save you money now, lots of money later.
- GM Air Conditioning
If you suspect something's wrong, chances are you're right. Let us give it a GM check-up. Inspect for leaks, adjust drive belts, add Freon if necessary.
- GM Front End Alignment
Tires wearing badly? Car pulling or "walking"? Now's the time for a front-end and wheel balancing check-up.
- GM Brake Linings
Genuine GM brakes feature crown-ground drum brake linings for a smoother break-in period. Disc brake pads even have a sensor that "sounds off" when pads need replacing.
- GM Exhaust Systems
In need of muffler or other exhaust replacements? Here's where you're smart to replace with genuine GM parts for the smoothest, quietest performance.
- GM Extra-Duty Shocks
GM shocks feature Teflon-coated pistons for longer wear. Replacements are specially tuned and specified by GM engineers.
- GM Motor Tune-Up
GM specialists working with electronic equipment and genuine GM replacement parts fine tune your engine for carefree operation and top performance. A must before long, summer trips.

And, of course, GM Engine Oil and Filter Change
