DENMARK S.C. — An unprecedented number and cross section of alumni and former students of Voorhees College are expected to return to the Denmark, South Carolina campus for a look week-end of gala events, slated for April 6-8.

These alumni-sponsored events are planned in conjunction with the traditional Founder's Day observance, along with the inauguration of the first Voorhees College alumnus as president of the 82-year-old institution.

The major alumni event is the Inaugural-Founder's Day Dinner. Prezrell R. Robinson, a Voorhees alumnus and president of Saint Augustine's College, is the keynote speaker for the dinner on Saturday evening, April 7. The Inaugural Bill will follow the dinner.

The dinner is sponsored as a fund-raising event designed to highlight the Alumni New Thrust and Fund Drive. The goal of the New Trust Fund Drive for this year is $150,000 by June 10, 1979. The dinner will climax the activities of an unique "All-Class Reunion," planned in tribute to the new president, Dr. George Bell Thomas. A wide range of classes are expected to be represented at the dinner, and identified by class. Earlier on Saturday, class coordinators will conduct reunion activities for their respective classes.

The dinner will be held in the Lawrence Memorial Auditorium of Massachusetts Hall. All ticket purchases will be credited as an individual contribution to the college.

There is consideration by the National Alumni Association to sponsor an annual Alumni Founder's Day Dinner. Mrs. Leila Duncan Jamison and Waymon S. Wright are the co-chairmen for this year's dinner. For further details, contact the Alumni Affairs Office, (803) 793-3351.

WSSU ALUMNI ASS'N SLATES NATIONAL UNITY DAY

WINSTON SALEM — The Winston Salem State University Alumni Association's 16th Annual National Unity Day will be held April 13-15, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Washington, D.C. Speakers for the three day session will be Dr. Elizabeth Branowitz, Assistant Director of Education and Women Issues, White House Domestic Staff and Mrs. Lozelle Deluz, WSSU Class of '52, Education Curriculum Specialist, Harper Row Lippincott Publishing Company.

The purpose for Unity Day is to allow "Rams" from all over the country to unite, renew, and rededicate themselves to WSSU. Winslow Lowery, director of Alumni Affairs, said that one of the goals of Unity Day is to "encourage graduates to share their financial gains with the alumni association." With this being the 16th annual Unity Day, Lowery said that "every year it is held in a different location to reinforce and strengthen chapters and districts in respective areas." The Alumni Association is expecting a large turnout for the three day affair. Last year over 500 people attended the affair and it is expected to attract at least that many alumni and friends this year. Lowery expects representatives from all over the United States. He indicated that Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Poag, San Francisco, California will be making their 16th appearance at the Unity Day festivities. Lowery feels this kind of dedication is essential to the association's existence.

YOUNG CONGRESSMAN, WHITE HOUSE AID FEATURED IN JEFFERSON-JACKSON EVENT

RALEIGH — Senator Joe Biden, Jr., D-Delaware, will be the featured speaker at the 49th annual Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner at the Raleigh Civic Center April 7, at 7 p.m.

Biden, 36, is the youngest person ever re-elected to the United States' Senate. He won his most recent election with more than 58 per cent of the vote in Delaware, and in his previous election gained national attention for his defeat of a Republican opponent who had had the most successful political career in the history of Delaware.

Speaking at the Wake County Democratic Women's 10 a.m. breakfast that day will be Sarah Weddington, President Carter's advisor on issues affecting women. She chairs the President's Interdepartmental Task Force on Women, replacing Bella Abzug. Ms. Weddington is a former member of the Texas House of Representatives, and is an attorney. The breakfast will be held at the Hilton Inn in Raleigh.

"Both of these young leaders are inspiring speakers, and should bring a lost of energy and excitement to our traditional Democratic gathering," said State Party Chairman Russell Walker. "We expect about 2,500 Democrats from all over the state for this day of fun and fellowship," Russell said.

Tickets for the dinner are $25 each, and may be purchased from local Democratic party chairmen, or from the State Democratic Party Headquarters, Box 12196, Raleigh, N.C., 27605.

Tickets for the breakfast are $10 each, and may be purchased from Wake County Democratic Women, 2541 Albermarle Avenue, Raleigh, N.C. 27610. Prepaid tickets may be picked up at a special reservation desk at the Hilton on Friday April 6 from 5-8 p.m., and from 8-10 a.m. Saturday. Tickets for the popular breakfast are usually sold out before the day of the breakfast. Any remaining tickets will be sold at the door.

Everyone who holds a dinner ticket is also invited to the Governor's Mansion for a reception from 3-5 p.m. Biden, Governor Hunt, members of the state's Congressional delegation, members of the Council of State and others will be the receiving line. Light refreshments will be served.

GI BILL WINDING DOWN FOR VIETNAM VETERANS

Approximately 854,000 Vietnam Era veterans will lose their GI Bill eligibility during fiscal year 1979, according to data released today by the Veterans Administration.

The estimate is based on the number of veterans who will reach the tenth anniversary of their separation from military service when, by law, their GI Bill Rights expire. VA Administrator Max Cleland said that although the Vietnam Era GI Bill has been used by a record 65 per cent of veterans, many thousands more still have time to make beneficial use of the program.

"We're doing all we can to make veterans aware of the time factor," Cleland said.
