

AYETTEVILLE HAPPENINGS

Yetteville City and Cumberland County educators returned for their 1979-80 work year.

The Zetas met and held their regular meeting Saturday at Red Carpet Inn in Lumberton. Everyone enjoyed a delicious luncheon after the business session.

Johnny Johnson, has been appointed systems officer of the Money Management Services Division in Philadelphia.

Paul B. Eaglin has joined the law firm now known as Cooper, Davis, Thagard and Eaglin, with offices in 903, Wachovia Building. He received his B.A. degree from John Hopkins University, graduated from Duke University Law School. He has practiced law with the Legal Aid Society of Winston-Salem and has recently been in private practice here.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Mrs. Melvin who was funeralized recently.

Many college and university students are preparing to leave for their new fall, winter and spring homes. We wish each student will have a successful year.

A program on "vegetarianism and fad diets" was held Wednesday past at the FAHEC Library across from Cape Fear Valley Hospital.

The Board of Directors of the Cumberland County Extension Program, Inc. met at 8 p.m. at the Old County courthouse.

Fun in the sun is great, but the increased pace of summertime outdoor activity can lead to a rash of eye injuries. It is suggested that counselors and coaches be alerted for emergencies.

Jack Henson a former vocational counselor at E.E. Smith and Red Ross high schools, has been appointed administrative assistant at E.E. Smith.

Women must work together and support each other. Mrs. Dorothy Nelms, national president of Federally Employed Women, was guest speaker at a luncheon Monday past. Ms. Nelms had spent 28 1/2 years as a federal employee before retiring last year. She is currently in her third year of law school at Georgetown University. She encouraged women to join organizations with direction and purpose.

Mrs. Margaret B. Fisher joined her friends on the Madison Tour last week. They have reported a pleasant, safe and enjoyable tour and return.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Kinney and son attended the upcoming activities at Asbury United Methodist Church in Clio, South Carolina on Sunday. While there, they enjoyed the annual "Minturn Picnic" in Inlet, South Carolina. Many friends from across the county gathered to eat and fellowship for a week's duration.

Misses Calla and La Beech Hodges have returned in their summer vacation in Westchester County, N.Y. and Newark, N.J.

Mrs. Burnice Miller is visiting her relatives and friends in Washington, D.C., New Jersey and New York City.

Charles Griffin, 1863 Gola Drive, has received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Florida State University.

BITS AND PIECES

NEW YORK — The Miss Black United States pageant will be held on Saturday, August 23, at the Westchester County Center in White Plains, New York.

HISTORY QUIZ: What was the "Black Cabinet"? The "Black Cabinet" was formed under President Franklin D. Roosevelt during the 'New Deal,' and consisted of blacks specialists and advisors on problems affecting blacks. Some served only briefly but others liked permanent service and stayed on during the Truman Administration. The only woman member of the group was Mary McLeod Bethune who unofficially led the group. An unprecedented 41 per cent of a 153-member Baltimore Police recruit class is black, reflecting several years of gradual and increased emphasis on black recruitment, officials said.

The Suffolk, Long Island police department will spend $30,000 this summer to tutor 200 black, Hispanic female applicants for the November civil service exam. In Suffolk, as in Nassau and New York City, most police are white males. Less than two per cent of Suffolk's 2,500 officers are black or Hispanic and less than one per cent are women.

Because of population losses in black and Hispanic districts, New York City may lose its only Hispanic congressman and its only black Congresswomen. Representative Robert Garcia and Shirley Chisholm could be redistricted out of their jobs. Garcia's South Bronx district is down 39 per cent in population, according to Census Bureau projections, and Mrs. Chisholm's central Brooklyn district is down twenty per cent.

At the swearing in of Patricia Harris, former secretary of HEW last week, Assistant Secretary of State Barbara cracked: "If Pat doesn't watch it she'll end up the Elliot R. Richardson of this administration." Richardson was secretary of HEW, Commerce and Defense, as well as Attorney General.

New York City is agog over the news coming out of Amsterdam News. First came the suit by former Executive Editor Bryant Rollins who is asking for $21,042 in damages for breach of contract and defamation of character after his firing. Then comes the news that two owners are attempting to remove John Cooper, the publisher, because they contend that insurance contracts held by his wife's company with the City of New York have "seriously compromised the integrity of the paper."

Travelers' checks were invented by Robert Herries to take the place of letters of credit. The original checks could only be used on a prearranged route.

Young Resigns

UNITED NATIONS — Andrew Young, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, addresses the Security Council in this March 14, 1978 file photo. In Washington, Young resigned August 16 to spare President Carter further controversy, stating calmly, "I really do not feel a bit sorry for anything I have done." Young resigned in the midst of furor caused by his unauthorized meeting with a representative of the Palestine Liberation Organization. UPI

NEWS FOR CONSUMERS

Removing Stains From Fabrics
Nobody ever plans to spill something—it just happens. And, then you're really in a pickle or a jam until you can get the spot out.

To help you remove those tough stains without damaging your cloths or furniture, The Science and Educational Administration of the U.S. Department of Agriculture has a booklet that really hits the spot. For your copy of Removing Stains from Fabrics, send $1.20 to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 79G, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

If you don't move fast enough to avoid the spill, try to move quickly afterwards to avoid further staining. Many stains come out with just a few drops of cool water blotted with a clean, dry absorbent cloth. But water may cause spotting on some fabrics. It's also safe to absorb the excess liquid with a clean cloth paper towel or sponge.

When you have a stain that needs a little rubbing to get it out, here's the best method: First, remember not to scrub it against another part of the cloth. That will spread the stain around. Take a new, clean nylon shoe brush (the kind for applying shoe polish). Then, with an action like tapping a tack-hammer, gently tap the wet stain with the face of the brush. Then blot the loosened stain out and repeat till no more shows. If the fabric isn't strong enough for that, use the bottom of a stainless steel spoon. Rub it gently back and forth in quarter inch strokes. Again blot to get out the loosened stain. For stubborn spots, dry cleaning solvent works well. But keep in mind that its poisonous, and may be flammable. When you use it, work outside or in a well-ventilated room, and stand so that the fumes are blown away from you. Don't lean close to your work. Use only a small quantity at a time. Don't allow children or pets in the room while you're working.

To prepare an effective dry spotter, mix one part coconut oil and eight parts drycleaning solvent. This solution is used to remove any kinds of stains. Dry spotter keeps well if the container is tightly capped to prevent evaporation of the drycleaning solvent. If you can't get coconut oil, use mineral oil in the same amount as coconut oil.

Stubborn stains take special techniques. Here's how to work out a wine stain: If the fabric is washable, soak it in a solution of 1 quart warm water, 1/2 teaspoon liquid hand dishwashing detergent, and 1 tablespoon vinegar for fifteen minutes. Rinse with water. Sponge the stained-area (stained side down) lightly with rubbing alcohol.
