INFLATION FIGHTING FASHION IDEAS

Need a new jacket or coat? One of this season's fabulous fake furs may be exactly what you've been looking for!

FABULOUS FAKE. This new coat looks like ribbed beaver, but it's only pretending. Trendy shawl collar and sash belt and an affordable price: it's $65 in Sears Fall '79 Catalog.

You know that fake furs are lightweight yet warm, long wearing and nicely affordable. But did you know that the new pretenders have also come into their own fashion-wise?

The latest fake furs show off all the right details like slimmed-down shapes, widened shoulders, shawl and stand-up collars, piping and sash belts. They show up in trendy flat fur looks as well as the sensational long-hair favorites.

You might pick a jacket that looks like lynx, a 3/4 jacket that copies Persian lamb, a 7/8 coat in glossy "seal" or a cozy parka that's a double for red fox.

Or, because these fake furs won't break the bank, you might even invest in two—a sporty jacket and a dressier coat.

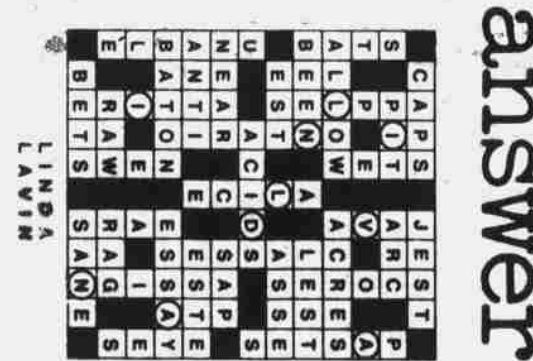

The budget-minded price-tag, by the way, may be the only way you can tell a new fake fur from the real thing!
