HENDERSON'S NEW BETHEL TO BE DEDICATED

HENDERSON — The minister and congregation of New Bethel Baptist Church, 619 East Avenue, will dedicate the its newly constructed church building, Sunday, September 28 to the social and spiritual uplift of the poor and downtrodden.

Rev. J. H. Bryant, New Bethel's minister, will stress the total involvement of the church in civic, social, and political affairs of Henderson, Vance County, the state and nation. Soul City developer-freedom fighter Rev. Floyd B. McKissick, and Vance County contractor Spotwood E. Burwell will be awarded tokens of appreciation for their community work spanning decades in Vance and surrounding counties.

"Unfortunately, the Church as we know it today has shifted its responsibility for man's social condition to the state and federal government," remarked Rev. Bryant, "and the people can't hear from heaven." Bryant says the new building is the first stage of a program to involve New Bethel Church in Vance County's total community life including economic development, voter registration, day care, recreation, and health care.

"We urge Christians whose concerns are the same as ours to share this dedication," Rev. Bryant says.

During the 11 a.m. worship service the awards will be presented to McKissick and Burwell. Rev. Bryant will deliver the morning address. An old fashion dinner will be served at 1:30 p.m. At 3 p.m., Rev. W. E. B. Lewis and his congregation of First Cosmopolitan Baptist Church, Raleigh, will conduct the service.

New Bethel has been serving Henderson since 1891.
