Central Dominates CIAA Stats

North Carolina Central leads the CIAA in rushing offense and total offense with 247.3 and 396.3 marks respectively. They are second in passing at 149.0.

Tailbacks Roscoe Burnette and Michael Worthy are primary reasons that the Eagles lead in rushing. Burnette has 320 yards in 63 carries to lead the conference, while Worthy is fifth with 240 yards in 47 attempts.

Senior quarterback Charles Yuille leads the CIAA in total offense having passed for 372 yards and rushed for 40 more.

The Eagles are third in total defense having allowed 185 yards per game. Norfolk State leads in total defense having allowed 133 yards per game. They are second in rushing defense at 72.3 behind St. Paul's College.

Other Central leaders - Rodney Birth third in punting at 36.1; defensive back Andrew Riddick, 2nd in interceptions with 3; defensive back Jerry Davis, 1st in kickoff returns at 26.0; and Carl Sanders, fifth in punt returns at 8.3.

MEAC Football Roundup

The Mid Eastern Athletic Conference action cranked up on last Friday with the Florida A&M Rattlers crushing Albany State 31-2 after they lost their season's opener the Saturday before. Sammy Knight got FAMU going in the initial quarter when he went all the way with a 57-yard punt return. In the second quarter flanker Bobby Knight caught a 74-yard touchdown bomb from Nate Koonce, and later scored on a five-yard run. Vince Coleman added a 31-yard field goal in that period. Archie Jones capped the scoring with a fourteen yard burst in the third stanza. Albany's only score was a safety in the first period.

On Saturday, South Carolina State beat conference rival N.C. A&T 24-9. Bethune-Cookman and Howard fought to a 13-13 tie in another conference match-up, and Delaware State got by University of the District of Columbia 8-6.

N.C. A&T out played S.C. State for most of the first half in New Jersey's Giant Stadium, but could only muster a field goal. Late in that half, A&T fumbled and lost a punt in its own 33. Five plays later Bill Mugin passed ten yards to Ed Lee for a score, and the Bulldogs took a 7-3 halftime advantage. S.C. State took it's first possession of the second half and marched 75 yards for a score, capped by Chris Ragland's eighty-yard run at the 8:00 minute mark. A&T fumbled on its next series and Prince Phillips found Marion Brown for a 27-yard score only sixteen seconds after the Ragland touchdown, and they went up 21-3. S.C. State got a 21-yard field goal from Al Gardner in the final period before the Aggies scored with 4:51 left to play. A&T has lost to S.C. State four straight times.

In Washington, Kenny McMillan passed seven yards to Darryl Crane and Wilford Morgan Booted a twenty-yard field goal, as Bethune-Cookman took a 10-0 halftime lead over Howard. The Bison answered in the third on a Ronald Wilson one-yard score and a Howard Ward 38-yard field goal. In the fourth, Morgan was good on another twenty-yarder and set the stage for an exciting finish. The homeanders engineered a long drive, and Ward kicked a 22-yard field goal with time running out.

Delaware State recorded a safety in the first quarter, and Sam Warren threw 27 yards to Clarence Weathers in the second, as the Hornets held UDC 8-0 until midway in the final period, when the visitors scored on a one-yard touchdown pass. Del. St. won its first game of the season to two losses, and are yet to score a touchdown on the ground, but have six via air.

Tailgating Ideas At Home of Afield

The football season is here. Tailgating, whether at home or afield, is a big part of the "season" for many of us. If you are an armchair quarterback, season ticket holder or maybe even a less than enthusiastic fan's spouse, the Kraft Kitchens has prepared a new booklet just for you.

This twelve-page booklet offers ideas to make the football party

"Tailgating" easier, more fun and more delicious. It features basic planning ideas to make the event successful, as well as menu ideas and recipes.

"Tailgating Ideas at Home or Afield" is offered FREE to you from KRAFT Barbecue Sauce. To get your copy simply send a request to Kraft Tailgating Ideas, P.O. Box 825, Department FE, South Holland, Ill., 60472
