ALL THAT JAZZ. . . .

Legendary jazz greats Marian McPartland (right) and Eubie Blake, 97, perform together in an impromptu duet during a recent concert in New York launching the second season of "Marian McPartland's Piano Jazz" due to begin on National Public Radio this week. Eubie is Marian's guest on the first show. During that show, the English-born McPartland proves turnabout is fair play as she serenades Eubie with one of his most famous compositions, "I'm Just Wild About Harry."
