Clement Masonic Grand Master

William A. Clement, former executive vice president of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, was unanimously elected Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina and Jurisdiction, Prince Hall Affiliation, at its 110th grand communication held in Greensboro Thursday, October 9. The convention host was Invincible Lodge Number 251 and St. John's Lodge Number 12 of Greensboro.

The Lodge of Sorrow was held on Tuesday, October 7, at St. James Baptist Church. The pastor, Rev. Prince Graves, was the speaker. Remaining sessions were held at the Holiday Inn Four Seasons.

William C. Parker, Jr., was the guest speaker at the past masters luncheon on Tuesday.

Clement, who was elevated from the office of the Right Worshipful Grand Secretary to the Most Worshipful Grand Master, was the speaker at the Worshipful Grand Master's breakfast.

Approximately 600 persons attended the Annual Fellowship Banquet on Wednesday, October 8. The honorable Richard E. Erwin, Judge, Federal Middle District Court, was the speaker.

On Thursday, October 9, the grand lodge received the grand officers and members of the Order of the Eastern Star and the Knights of Pythagoras.

During the awards banquet, contributions were made to many of the organization's beneficiaries. Among the awardees were the Central Orphanage of North Carolina, Oxford - $20,000, NAACP - $10,000, United Negro College Fund - $1,000. Approximately $33,000 is to be awarded in scholarships.

The organization represents some twenty thousand Prince Hall Masons in the jurisdiction of North Carolina.
