

Calendar and Announcements

SIXTY OR OVER? Put your organizational skills to work in the office of a higher institute of learning or spend a couple of hours one morning or afternoon a week familiarizing two foreign elementary school children with the English language (no tutoring involved).

RSVP provides travel reimbursement and free insurance coverage. For more information, call Ms. Helen Pressley or Ms. Kathy Walters, 596-9311, extension 321, Durham Technical Institute.
VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED A 15-year old boy needs a "big brother" to encourage good school performance and participation in recreational activities. He has experienced some involvement with the juvenile court and would greatly benefit from a positive male role model. To learn more about this specific case, and other opportunities, contact the Volunteer Services Bureau at 688-8977, weekdays, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

HARPIST SERIES — Harpist Jacquelyn Bartlett will present the first performance in North Carolina Central University's Wednesday Afternoon Concert Series for 1981-82, with a solo concert at 4 p.m., Wednesday, September 30, in the university's Music Building Auditorium.

Ms. Bartlett began her studies at the age of six. Her teacher was her mother, who was the harpist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. She was a youthful winner of numerous prizes and honors.

The NCCU concert will feature a selection of Irish folk tunes and works by Handel, Faure, Prokofiev, Naderman, Salzedo, Taileferre, and Granados.

The Wednesday Afternoon Concert Series is sponsored by the NCCU Lyceum Committee. Admission is free. For information, call 683-6026.

YARD SALE — Dozens of artists will empty their attics and garages to raise funds for their gallery and center at the Second Annual Center/Gallery Yard Sale to be held on Saturday, October 3 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, October 4, 2-5 p.m. Center/Gallery is located at 118-A E. Main St., Carrboro, above Tumbleweed Cyclery and across from Carr Mill.

A SELF DEFENSE WORKSHOP will be offered on Thursday, September 29, 7-9 p.m., at the Durham YWCA, 809 Proctor St. Learn basic kicks, yells and punches in this introduction to self-defense class. Call 688-4396 to register.

There is still time to register for classes offered at the YWCA in "Self Concept for Women", "Advanced Assertiveness Training", and "Handling Criticisms, Complaints, and Rumors". Call the "YW" for details and to enroll, 688-4396.

"WHOLE BIRTH CATALOGUE" — Almost every pregnant woman wants to be involved in making decisions about the kind of birth experience that is best for her and her baby. In order to help her to become more aware of the options she has and to enable her to assume more responsibility and control over her pregnancy and childbirth experience, the Women's Health Counseling Service will again sponsor its popular eight-week series: "The Whole Birth Catalogue." The series will be held this fall at the First Presbyterian Church in Hillsborough on Wednesday evenings at 7:30. The series is free, although donations are appreciated.

- The following topics will be covered:
- Sept. 30: "To Parent or Not to Parent?" & "Up Against the Clock"
 - Oct. 7: "Caring for Your Pre- & Pregnant Self"
 - Oct. 14: "A Consumer Approach to Birthing"
 - Oct. 21: "Choices in Childbirth, Part 1: Medical Practitioners & Childbirth Educators"
 - Oct. 28: "Choices in Childbirth, Part 2: The Homebirth Option"
 - Nov. 4: "Choices in Childbirth, Part 3: The Midwife Option"
 - Nov. 11: "Technology and the Birth Experience"
 - Nov. 18: "The Politics of Childbirth" & "Parenting Issues & Resources"

For further information, call Ms. Elaine Barney at 968-4647 or Ms. Susan Waldrup at 732-4617. The Women's Health Counseling Service is funded through the Orange County Commissioners, United Fund of Chapel Hill/Carrboro, United Way of Orange County and the towns of Chapel Hill and Carrboro.
