

Sarah E. Smith District Celebrates 30th Anniversary

Members of the Sarah E. Smith District of White Rock Church celebrated the church's 30th anniversary during a Jan. 19 meeting at a local restaurant.

Minerva T. Fields presided over the program. Invocation was given by Jimmie Lee Lyon, and reflections by R. Kelly Jr., recognition of guests by Ruth S. Boyd, topic of prayer by Mrs. Ida Barnes and benediction by Mrs. Virginia Thomas. Rev. Lorenzo Lynch presented to receive a gift to the church from the district. This presentation was made by R. Kelnt, Jr.

The district was organized in 1956 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Fields, as the East View District. Mrs. Sarah E. Smith was elected the first president. It was in November of 1956 that the name was changed from its first and only president who continues to serve as president.

UNCF Pledges Total Now $8.2 Million

ST. LOUIS — Two weeks after the airing of the 1985 "Lou Rawls Parade of Stars" telethon, pledges and contributions have reached $8,250,000, according to United Negro College Fund officials at their national headquarters in New York.

Urging everyone who made pledges to send in their contributions, Christopher F. Edley, president and chief executive officer of the United Negro College Fund, said, "The fulfillment of pledges made during the 'Lou Rawls Parade of Stars' telethon is vital to the future of the young men and women who are attending UNCF schools."

The "Parade of Stars" was aired coast to coast during the weekend between Christmas and New Year's. The six-hour show was broadcast from Los Angeles and featured over 50 celebrities from the entertainment world.

Wayman F. Smith III, vice president of corporate affairs at Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc., commenting on public response to the telethon said,

"Viewer reaction to the 'Parade of Stars' was extremely enthusiastic as indicated by the volume of pledges made during the program." Smith added, "To assure that the educational programs of the UNCF schools move forward, it is essential that those who made pledges mail in their contributions."

Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc. is the founding and national sponsor of the "Lou Rawls Parade of Stars." The national co-sponsor is The Kellogg Company.

Telethon contributing co-sponsors in 1985 were: American Airlines, General Motors Corporation and the Polaroid Corporation.

Celebrity guests who appeared on the "Parade of Stars" included actors Billy Dee Williams, Louis Gossett, Jr., "Hill Street Blues" star Veronica Hamel, former Miss America, Vanessa Williams, and talk show host Phil Donahue.

Rawls' co-hosts for the education special were Ed McMahon,

Marilyn McCoo, Gregory Hines and Alex Trebek.
