SIXTH ANNIVERSARY — New Jerusalem Baptist Cathedral will celebrate its sixth anniversary Sunday, November 11, during the 11 a.m. worship service in its new worship center at 3405 Danube Lane (corner of Old Oxford Highway and Danube Lane).

During the service, individuals who are not members of the church will be recognized for their participation and support in completing the church. The formal dedication of the church building will be held at a later date. John L. Caldwell, pastor, planned, designed and served as the construction manager of the center.

The public is invited.

CONCERT — Ms. Ruth Grinsley and the Junior Sunday School Class of Hatcher Grove Baptist Church, Morrisville, will present the Walker Sisters in concert Sunday, November 11 at 3 p.m. The public is invited.

CHOIR CONCERT — In observance of its 88th anniversary, the Senior Choir of Russell Memorial CME Church, 703 S. Alston Ave., will present choirs from several area churches Sunday, November 11, at 4 p.m. The public is invited.

ANNIVERSARY — The Pastor's Aide Society of Union Baptist Church, 904 North Roxboro Street, will celebrate its 26th anniversary on Sunday, November 11 at 6 p.m.

This anniversary will be dedicated to the memory of the late Rev. Dr. Grady D. Davis, Sr., who was pastor of Union Baptist Church for 26 years.

Rev. Percy High, pastor of Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, Durham, will be the guest speaker. He will be accompanied by the Mass Choir of Mt. Vernon under the direction of Mrs. Ruth McCollum.

The public is invited.

THE JUNIOR MISSIONARIES of Mt. Olive United Holy Church, 808 Lee St., will celebrate their third anniversary Sunday, November 11, at 4 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Missionary Mary Alice Jones of Calvary Temple UHC, Henderson. Rev. Gladys L. Surles is pastor of Mt. Olive and Marion L. Price is supervisor of the Junior Missionaries.

PASTOR'S AID SERVICE — The Pastor's Aid Department of Mt. Olive UHC will observe its service on Sunday, November 18, at 4 p.m. Rev. V.F. Jeffries of Mt. Zion UHC, Oxford, will be the guest speaker. Mount Zion Choir, ushers and congregation will be guests.

PRE-THANKSGIVING SERVICE, sponsored by the Pilgrim Wonders Gospel Chorus, will be held Sunday, November 18, 4 p.m., at Orange Grove Baptist Church, 505 East End Avenue. Rev. J.G. Everett, choirs and congregation of Elevation Baptist Church, Raleigh will be guests. Rev. Carl Kenney is host pastor. All are invited.

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT — Fisher Memorial United Holy Church, 420 East Piedmont Avenue, will hold a special session Saturday morning, November 17, for all males, ages six to twelve. Bishop Elroy Lewis, pastor of Fisher Memorial, and Dr. Hanu Rao will present some sessions designed to motivate the youth to stay in school, stay away from drugs and strong drink, and to select role models in the community to follow; to assist parents in their efforts to help the young men to make lives for themselves. All young males, ages six through twelve, are invited to participate. Sessions are scheduled from 9 to 11 a.m. For further information, contact the church office at 682-7416.

DEDICATION — St. Mark AME Zion Church has reached another milestone in the celebration of its centennial. The Anthology Committee announces the publication of a book entitled, "This Joy." The book contains original writings by members of the church. A dedication service for the book and a reading of selections from it will take place at 5 p.m., Sunday, November 11. Following the program, a reception will be held in the fellowship hall. The public is invited.

78TH ANNIVERSARY — The Senior Choir of Mount Gilboa Baptist Church, 404 Dowd St., will celebrate its 78th anniversary on Sunday, November 18, 3 p.m., at the church. Rev. Pebbles Lindsey will speak and the Morningstar Gospel Singers and the Gospel Revelators of Burlington will render the music. The public is invited.

ST. MARK CENTENNIAL LAY DAY — The Lay Council of St. Mark AME Zion Church, 531 S. Roxboro St., celebrated the centennial by observing its annual Lay Day recently during the Sunday morning worship service.

Mrs. Arletia Marsh Perry, a lay person of the church and a descendant of one of its founders, gave an inspiring message integrating the Lay Council's theme, "Strengthening the Church Through Service, Stewardship and Evangelism" with St. Mark's centennial theme, "A Century Anchored in Faith — A Journey Forward In Grace."

Mrs. Perry is a native of Durham, a graduate of North Carolina Central University and paternal granddaughter of Mrs. Sara' Marsh, one of the seven founders of St. Mark.

Ostella Criss, Sr., president of St. Mark's Lay Council, presided; Mrs. Norma Royal was program coordinator and Mrs. Thomasena LeGrand was chairman of the Laypersons of the Year Selection Committee. Some of the other program participants were: Fred Brunson, Lee T. Sellars, Mrs. Arabella Herndon, Mrs. Cora Hunter, William Lucas, Larnie McNeill, Mrs. Ruth McDowell and Dr. Dwight Perry.

The six Laypersons of the Year were: Mrs. Joyce Lattimore, Mrs. Sharon Y. Grooms, Mrs. Thomasena Shaw, Mrs. Carolyn D. Smith, William W. Lucas and Newman Alford.

WORLD COMMUNITY DAY is an ecumenical worship event, sponsored annually by Church Women United, that brings Protestant, Roman Catholic, Orthodox and other Christian women together to focus on issues of the wider global community and a mutual search for justice and peace in the world. "Women for Justice/Justice for Women" is the theme for the 1990's observance that raises consciousness to the condition of women of all races and cultures who are oppressed. It lifts up support and prayer for the groups and individual women who are working for justice.

The Durham Unit of Church Women United will celebrate WORLD COMMUNITY DAY Friday, November 9, at Duke Memorial United Methodist Church, 504 West Chapel Hill Street. The service will begin at 10 a.m. and the public is invited.

Mrs. Catherine Barnes is president of the Durham Unit.

MRS. WALKER

WOMAN'S DAY — The thirty-fifth annual Woman's Day observance will be held Sunday, November 11, at 11 a.m., at 1008 Morehead Avenue.

The main address will be delivered by Dr. Priscilla A. Brodie, an educator and commissioned missionary. Dr. Brodie received her high school education in Franklinton and earned an undergraduate degree at Shaw University, Raleigh. She holds a master's degree in Religious Education and an earned Doctor of Ministry degree from Waske Forest Southeastern Theological Seminary. She currently is executive secretary-treasurer of the Woman's Baptist State Convention Auxiliary to the General Baptist Convention with headquarters in Raleigh.

Mrs. Constance Ann Sartor Walker, a well-known achiever, motivator and role model for the West End Community, has been selected and will be crowned Woman of the Year. Mrs. Walker is a product of Durham City School and NCCU where she has studied business, marketing and law. A special choir, under the direction of Mrs. Willa Farmer, will render music. General chairman for the day is Mrs. Johnnie B. McLester. Rev. Benjamin Mack is pastor of Morehead Avenue Baptist Church. Dinner will be served in the fellowship hall following the service.
