

1990 Jabberwock Contestants

Nicole Michelle Blake
HHS

Natalyn Rachelle Bradshaw
Jordan

Tamara Charmaine Brown
Jordan

Wytina Shavonne Carrington
SHS

Stephanie Koxanne Exum
NHS

Sonya Deloris Harris
JORDAN

Amber Dupree Kelley
HHS

Erricca Denese Majors
HHS

Lori Alethea Minor
DHS

Dakya Dominique Sims
HHS

According to recent estimates there are about 40,000 different varieties of fish.

The potato must grow entirely under ground and after harvest should be kept in a dark place. Light brings out its bad qualities.

1990 Jabberwock Set For Nov. 24

On November 24, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., the Durham Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc. will present the 1990 Jabberwock at the Sheraton Convention Center in the Research Triangle Park. The night's activities include the presentation of the 1990 debutantes, the coronation of Miss Jabberwock 1990, the return of the 1989 Jabberwock debutantes, and performances from the Broadway musical, "Bubbling Brown Sugar," by the Hillside and Durham High Drama troupes.

Tickets for Jabberwock are available at the door for a tax-deductible contribution of $15.

Slaves

(Continued From Page 3)

studying the war. His book, tentatively titled "Black Confederates," will be published next year.

According to Jordan, "there were blacks who helped the Confederacy and those who didn't." The book will recount how some black Virginians volunteered to serve for the South as early as June 1861. Jordan has found both Union and Confederate witness accounts of free blacks and slaves fighting at the battles of Manassas and Antietam, among others.

Jordan also plans to write about black spies for the South and the North, and chronicle the attitudes of blacks on slavery and the war. He is writing the book while on leave and is supported by a $10,500 grant from the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities.

Jordan, who has written two other books on the war, studied diaries, newspapers, government documents and census data in an attempt to piece together a black history of the period.

Many blacks worked as military laborers and tried to volunteer for the Confederate army, bought war bonds and killed Union soldiers, Jordan said.

There were various reasons for the support, including a strong desire by slaves to please their masters, he said. Free blacks may have "wanted to stay in the good graces" of their white neighbors, Jordan said.

There also were free blacks who didn't want a change in their status and who felt more loyalty to the state than to the country, a common feeling in those times, he said.

Though the evidence may make some people uncomfortable, Jordan said he won't back away from his findings. "I'm writing the book as a contribution to Virginia. I'm proud to be a Virginian," said Jordan, who grew up in a Norfolk housing project.

Jordan believes he has a responsibility to explore the subject because he considers the Civil War the genesis of the civil rights movement and an important part of black heritage.

"It affects us today," he said. "I see this as a duty. I owe it to black people."

SEARS  Your Christmas Store with a whole lot more

SAVE $10 WHEN YOU BUY TWO!
COTTON TURTLENECK IN HOLIDAY BRIGHTS AND LIGHTS

TWO DAYS ONLY
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

9.99 Each

Or 2 for 19.98

Reg. $14.99 each. Easy to wear, neat to layer. With a touch of spandex in the collar and cuffs for a great fit. In neons, dusty pastels, brights and jewel tones. Misses' sizes S-M-L. Great gift! Colors may vary by store.

Ad effective Friday, November 23 through Saturday, November 24, 1990

SEARS Charge
BONUS CLUB
Now, more than ever—
it pays to shop at Sears!

Merchandise in this ad available at most larger Sears stores. All reductions are from Sears regular prices unless otherwise stated. If an item is not described as reduced or a special purchase, it is at its everyday Great Low Price which is not reduced. A Special Purchase, though not reduced, is an exceptional value.

We do our best to have adequate stock of advertised items to meet demand. Due to circumstances beyond our control, on occasion, out-of-stocks occur. When this happens, Sears will, at its option, substitute an equal or better item at the advertised price or provide a "raincheck." Excludes limited offers.

SEARS
Your money's worth and a whole lot more.