Deltas Present Merrick-Fisher-Spaulling Award

The Durham Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority recently presented the 1993 Merrick-Fisher-Spaulling Award, the highest award, to Mrs. Della M. Fulbright at a luncheon held at the C.C. Mutual Life Insurance Co. Auditorium.

Given annually since 1975, the Merrick-Fisher-Spaulling Award recognizes outstanding service and dedication to the sorority and to the community. It is named in honor of some of the local chapter's founding members, Mrs. Mary Lee Fisher Harris and Mrs. Minnie Pearson Spaulding, and one of the local honorary members, Mrs. Lyda Merrick.

Donor Betty Johnson, chair of the Selection committee, said, "It was appropriate for Mrs. Fulbright to receive the honor this year for many reasons... particularly her dedicated work with the tutoring program sponsored by the Durham Alumnae Chapter's Life Development Center."

Mrs. Fulbright said, "Receiving this award was the highlight of my life. It was really thrilling to have achieved this honor. I never thought that I would, but I hoped to receive it one day."

Prior M-S-F awardees are Sorors Charlotte Hackett, Lyda Merrick, Jeanne Lucas, Mary Hester Smith, Charlotte Sloan, Marva Thorpe, Edith M. Johnson, Betty Blackmon, Andolia Eaton, Louise Weeks, Frances Schooler, Edna Mason, Margaret Goodwin, Beatrice Allen, Ruth Thomas, Alice Little and Mudy Stone.

At the same ceremony, the Durham Alumnae Chapter also presented National 50-Year Service Awards to Emma Boone King and Della Fulbright. National 25-Year Service Certificates were presented to Rubestene Potter, Thomascene LeGrand and Charlene Polk. Delta Board members Edith M. Johnson, Willie Hill, Bernadette Watts, Frances McIver and Juanita Massenburg also received certificates of appreciation of their service from the chapter.
