

VOTE YES FOR...

The Community College Bonds and University Bonds

on

Tuesday, November 2

Higher Education WORKS

For North Carolina

by creating jobs & training people to fill them

"It is sound public finance to borrow for worthwhile capital projects. North Carolina, with its very low debt currently, has the borrowing capacity to take on the proposed new debt in the November 2 bond referendums. Because the debt service on those bonds will be a tiny percentage of the overall state budget, state taxes should not have to be raised to meet payments of interest and principal."

— State Treasurer Harlan Boyles

YOUR MEMBERS OF THE UNC BOARD OF GOVERNORS:

Mark L. Bibbs • Bert Collins • Valeria L. Lee • Maxine O'Kelley
Benjamin S. Ruffin • Harold H. Webb • Barbara D. Wills-Duncan

HISTORICALLY BLACK N.C. UNIVERSITIES

Elizabeth City State University
Chancellor Jimmy R. Jenkins

NC A&T University
Chancellor Edward B. Fort

Fayetteville State University
Chancellor Lloyd V. Hackley

NC Central University
Chancellor Julius Chambers

Winston-Salem State University
Chancellor Cleon Thompson, Jr.

INVEST IN THE FUTURE

of

NORTH CAROLINA'S HIGHER EDUCATION

Vote Yes on Tuesday, November 2

paid for by: North Carolinians for Our University, Our Future