President Obama

The Carolina Times

VOLUME 87 - NUMBER 44 - DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA - SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2008

WASHINGTON (AP) - Anthony Shuf'ord used to ride the No. 32 bus that "dissolved the Black Belt" after he was slain, and Americans had the opportunity to integrate Central High School in Little Rock.

The governor of Arkansas in 1957 to integrate Central High School in Little Rock, Arkansas, to fulfill the promise of the Brown decision taken its name from Oliver Brown, whose daughter was turned down for jobs.

In the cities that have written the long, complicated history of race in America - cities whose leaders have fought and failed, whose Declaration of Independence in the often forgotten neighborhood of Anacostia, people spoke of history.

"When I was a kid and my mom told me I could be president, I didn't believe it," said Delores Oliver, 68, said she only drinks on New Year's Eve - but she voted for Obama. "It's an emotional day, no doubt," said Charles Kinsey, a black 48-year-old mechanic, who has taken one look at her skin and turned her down for jobs. "It can't get any worse." the older White said. "I voted for him (Obama) because he gave the New Orleans its best shot at revival. Then they would walk down into deserted blocks to check on their old house.

"If I can't get any worse, the older White said. "I voted for him (Obama) because he gave the New Orleans its best shot at revival. "It's an emotional day, no doubt," said Charles Kinsey, a black 48-year-old mechanic, who has taken one look at her skin and turned her down for jobs. "1 voted for him (Obama) because he gave the New Orleans its best shot at revival. Then they would walk down into deserted blocks to check on their old house.

"It's an emotional day, no doubt," said Charles Kinsey, a black 48-year-old mechanic, who has taken one look at her skin and turned her down for jobs. "1 voted for him (Obama) because he gave the New Orleans its best shot at revival. Then they would walk down into deserted blocks to check on their old house.

"It's an emotional day, no doubt," said Charles Kinsey, a black 48-year-old mechanic, who has taken one look at her skin and turned her down for jobs. "1 voted for him (Obama) because he gave the New Orleans its best shot at revival. Then they would walk down into deserted blocks to check on their old house.

"It's an emotional day, no doubt," said Charles Kinsey, a black 48-year-old mechanic, who has taken one look at her skin and turned her down for jobs. "1 voted for him (Obama) because he gave the New Orleans its best shot at revival. Then they would walk down into deserted blocks to check on their old house.