BOULWARE GETS WSSU NOD:

WINSTON SALEM, N.C. - A new era for Winston-

Boulware

Salem State University football will begin as Kienus P. Boulware has been named the new head coach of the Rams after serving as the Rams' defensive coordinator for the past four years. The ninth head coach in WSSU history, he will look to care, on the proud tradition that is Rams football.

This is a dream job, and I'm at a dream school," Boulware said. "I'm extremely happy that this day has come." Though this is Boulware's first head coaching position, he brings a wealth of experience to the position and has been well prepared to carry on the strong legacy of the WSSF football program," said Bill Hayes, WSSU athletic Box, tor, "A man with more than 17 years of collegiate coaching experience under his belt. Boulware is regarded by his peers as one of the top defensive coaches in NCAA Division II football. He has certainly spent his coaching career as talent developer, motivator and a professional with an unbridled passion for the game of foot-

Boulware arrived at WSSU after spending four years an assistant coach at Shaw University in Raleigh. where his defensive teams ranked tops in the nation in 2007 and 2008, and brings with him a wealth of collegiate coaching experience and championship pedigree.

Over the past four seasons, Boulware has transformed the WSSU defensive unit into the best in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association and the nation each year. His 2013 defensive unit was not only tops in the CIAA, but finished the season ranked as the top Division II defense in the nation. During the Rams run to national title game in 2012, his defense led the CIAA once again and finished 12th nationally. In 2011, his defense led the CIAA and finished ninth in Division II and his defensive unit finished ranked as the number one unit in the CIAA and fifth nationally in 2010.

A native of rnomasville, N.C., Boulware started in football and attenues a two-time state champion wrestler swifte High School. He would go on to play two casons (1993-94) as an inside linebacker at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill before his football career was shortened by the discovery of a spinal cord abnormality. He remained on the sideline as a student coach for two seasons under former coach Mack Brown, work ing with linebackers and defensive linemen Upon graduating from UNC-Chapel Hill in May of 1997 with a degree in organizational communication, Boulware coached linebackers at Livingstone College for two years (1997-98) and helped to lead the Blue Bears to a pair of CIAA Championships.

Following his tenure at Livingstone he moved to North Carolina Central in Durham, where he served in various capacities including assistant football coach (linebackers and defensive line), assistant track coach and assistant athletic director.

JAMES TAKES OVER AT VA. UNION:

Virginia Union University held a press conference

James

Tuesday to name Mark James as the Panthers new head football coach.

James, a 2000 VUU graduate, played defensive line for the Panthers after transferring from Louisville, and has spent the last two seasons as the Panthers' defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator under former head coach Michael Bailey

Bailey was a high school head coach in his native a before serving as an assistant at Norfolk. State Lickers) and Saint Paul's (offensive coordinator).

SIAC Commissioner gets contract extension

Atlanta, GA - The Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) Council of Presidents and chairman, Miles College President George T. French Jr., announced last week that the SIAC and Commissioner Gregory Moore have agreed to a contract extension.

"The Presidents Council of the SIAC has been very pleased with the work of Commissioner Gregory Moore across all sectors. In fact, his leadership in financial matters and in marketing the conference has been transformational. The Council extended his contract with a unanimous vote," the Miles president said, "As the incoming Chair, I very much look forward to working with him."

During his five years at the SIAC Commissioner Moore's achievements included doubling SIAC revenues (largest revenue increase in NCAA DL II or III), a nearly three-fold (265%) increase in sponsorship revenues, retiring all conference debt from SIAC balance sheet and increasing conference membership from thirteen to lifteen institutions.

Commissioner Moore stated, "I am extremely grateful for the trust accorded me by the SIAC Council of Presidents. My staff and I look forward to continuing our daily effort to identify creative and innovative opportunities to leverage intercollegiate athletics to advance the overarching objectives of our member institutions and enhance the experiences of our student-athletes."
