Extract of a letter to the Editor, dated Clinton County, (N. York) March 26, 1813.

The inhabitants in the vicinity of Camp Seneca, are so barbarously treated by our soldiers, that it is difficult to refrain from resisting by force the abuse and injuries they receive.

It has been the practice of the commanding officers at the Camp, (and I am told it is the same in Burlington) since they have been ordered to repair to Sackets Harbour, with the force under their command, to send out parties of armed men killing themselves press gangs, to plunder from travellers and citizens, their horses, sleighs and harness for the use of the U. States, to transport soldiers, baggage, &c.

Mr. Earnsworth a resident of Plattsburgh, while driving through the village, had one of his horses knocked down with the breech of a gun; his sleigh and horses were then demanded and I believe taken from him.

A number of moving families, and travellers residing at a distance, have been stopped on the high way and their horses taken from them at the point of the bayonets, one of the instances here alluded to, was a poor family, consisting of a wife and several small children moving from the frontiers into one of the New England states.

Mr. Brown, of Plattsburgh, besides being robbed of his team had his house plundered of furniture, his life threatened, and was otherwise shamefully abused.

A very poor man living on Mr. Platt's farm in Peru, had his house robbed, while absent from his family, of all the bedding contained.

Mr. Fairman, of Salmon River Village, was knocked from his horse, with a blow so violent, that his life was despaired of; his only crime was not surrendered a Traveller's Horse, (which he was watering,) on the first demand.

On the night of the 18th inst. the house of Mr. Winter, was surrounded by a party of eight armed ruffians, five of whom entered and demanded his horses, sleigh and harness, on asking whose orders they acted under, the reply was, Maj. White's, and a written shewn signed by that officer, on refusing to comply with the requisition, two muskets were cocked, and with fixed bayonets were presented to his breast, in this situation he was detained a prisoner in his own house, until the remainder of the party broke into the stable, took out his horses, harnessed and put them before his sleigh and drove off, not leaving him the scrap of a pen to show for his property.

A young man driving peaceably along the road and without saying a word to any one, was shot through the body intentionally, of which wound he died a day or two afterwards. The murderer was given up, which is the only instance that has come to my knowledge of one of these villains being surrendered to the civil authority.

Some of the persons who had their teams pressed, and chose to go along themselves rather than lose them, have returned from Sackets Harbour, and after being used on the journey in the most brutal manner, both by officers and soldiers, were discharged without receiving a cent compensation. Others receive one dollar, and the largest sum that I have known to be paid to any one was two dollars—a small amount to travel 200 miles on, which is the distance from Sackets Harbour here.

Others who had been there and were returning, were forced back again. A Mr. Weatherwane, late of Peru, a worthy and respectable man, after making one trip for the army at his own expense, and while on his return, sick and unable to travel on foot, had his horses taken from him—he died six days after, leaving a wife and a numerous family of children.

"TREMBLE THOU WRETCH"

Among Mr. Barlow's papers, found on his secretary after the defeat and flight of the French from Russia, were found a number of interesting letters, which have been published in the London papers. Among other letters, the following is entitled to the earliest and most serious deliberations of the American people who have been betrayed, basely betrayed into the hands of France.

PARIS, Dec. 24, 1811.

Sir—The Duc de Cadore called on me this morning with a manner, manifestly wishing to effect some object more than he seemed willing at first to avow, and after much desultory conversation he asked me my opinion of the policy the Court of Russia would probably pursue in the event of a war between the U. States and Great Britain. I replied, that it was the immediate interest of Russia to be at peace with the U. S. and also her policy that England her present ally should not be embarrassed by a diversion of her resources and military and naval forces in carrying on a war with us, it was hardly to be doubted but that she would use her endeavors to bring about a peace between us and England.

Yours, &c. J. BARLOW.

Navigation of Roanoke.

In conformity to an Act of the last General Assembly, entitled, "An Act for improving the Navigation of Roanoke River, from the town of Halifax to the place where the Virginia line intersects the same," the undersigned, Commissioners named in the said act for the city of Raleigh, have opened a Book for Subscriptions for Shares in the Capital Stock for accomplishing the said undertaking, which will continue open till the 1st of October, at the Bookstores of J. Gales and W. Boylan.

The proposed Capital Stock is limited to 100,000 dollars, to be divided into shares of 100 dollars each. A general meeting of the subscribers is to be held at Halifax on the 4th Monday in October next; and if 400 shares be not subscribed before, or at said meeting, all subscriptions made to be void. But if a sufficient number of shares be then subscribed, a Company is to be organized, under the title of "The Roanoke Navigation Company," and subscribers must then pay ten dollars on every share subscribed, and the remainder when called upon, except that more than $3 1/3 dollars on a share not be called for in any one year.

April 10 Subscription Books are also opened at Edenton, Plymouth, Windsor, Halifax, Warrenton, Oxford, Rockborough, Caswell C. House, Wentworth and Germantown, under the direction of three Commissioners at each place.

Notice.

AS Attorney for Messrs Livingston, and Fulton, Patentees for Steam Boats in the United States, and the territories thereof, I will receive subscriptions to form a stock to complete a line of Steam Boats, through the N. Carolina waters, &c to the E. Florida line, and will appoint suitable and respectable persons through the different states to receive subscriptions, of which when appointed I will give due notice.

Feb. 24. JOHN D. DELACY.

Notice.

WHEREAS a certain JOHN STEVENS, of Hoboken, did obtain from the Legislature of N. Carolina, during their last session a law granting to him the exclusive right to navigate the waters in said state with Steam Boats to the manifest prejudice of Robert Fulton, Esq. the inventor, and of Robert R. Livingston, Esq. his associate, in the patent granted to him by the U. States for said new and useful invention.

And whereas the said John Stevens has by an instrument in writing under his proper signature and seal, ACKNOWLEDGED formally, fully and unequivocally, "that the said Robert Fulton is the inventor of new and useful Steam Boats, and the first that has shewn the superiority of water wheels over all other modes of propelling Steam boats, and demonstrated the relative proportions of the several parts." And whereas the said John Stevens had neither right, title, claim or authority (from, or under the said Livingston and Fulton, the true and actual patentees, for using and vending to others to be used within the United States, and territories thereof, the right to navigate with boats propelled by fire and steam and wheels; but did unwarrantably and unjustifiably, apply for, and surreptitiously and by misrepresentation or otherwise, obtain said law in order to wrest under cover thereof from the aforesaid patentees the well earned and just reward of their ingenuity, enterprise, labor and perseverance, and thus made the state subservient (though unknowingly) to injustice, which may possibly involve the patentees in serious, troublesome and expensive suits in defending their rights from invasion by said Stevens or any ignorant or unprincipled persons who may be induced to join with or uphold him in so flagitious an invasion of the rights of individuals. And whereas the said law passed as aforesaid by the state of North Carolina is not only voidable, but absolutely void and nugatory, in as much as it is in direct hostility to the law of the United States, under which the patent has been granted to the said Robert Fulton and Robert R. Livingston, the legislating upon and granting of which is by the constitution exclusively assigned to the United States:

I do hereby give notice,

That I will, for and in the name of the said patentees prosecute all, each and every person, severally and individually, who combine or conspire with said John Stevens, to invade the exclusive privilege and property of the said patentees, or injure, or subvert their interests in any unlawful manner at or in any place or state from the City of Baltimore to the Florida line.

JOHN D. DELACY. Attorney pro patentees.

The black Arabian Barb,

Sent to America in 1810 by Colonel Lear, our Consul general at Algiers, who obtained him from the Dey as a mark of his particular favor,

WILL stand at my stable, in Salisbury, the present season, now commenced. For particulars reference can be had to my bills.

As this is the first genuine Arabian that ever stood in North Carolina, and as it is universally admitted that the superior excellence of the English horses is owing more to their being crossed with Arabians and Barbs, than to any other circumstance, it is hoped the American breeder will not permit so good an opportunity to pass unimproved.

This Horse was selected by Col. Lear from the private stable of the Dey of Algiers, which consisted of 30 that were chosen from his public stable of 200. Col Lear speaks of him as having the highest character of any horse in the whole regency.

WILL stand the present season in my stable at New Hope, two miles above the town of Salisbury at the following prices: Forty dollars the single leap, which may be discharged by the payment of $20 before the first day of August; 60 to ensure, and 20 the single leap. The season to commence the first day of March, and end the first of August.

SIR ARCHY is a blood bay, with black legs, mane and tail; one hinder foot white; upward of sixteen hands high; and eight years old this spring. He is in full health, and just of the best age for propagating racing stock, possessing a sound constitution and the finest action. His decided and acknowledged superiority as a racer renders a publication of his performances unnecessary. Suffice it to add that he beat every distinguished horse of his day in Virginia and North Carolina.

PEDIGREE

Sir Archy was gotten by Old Diomed out of the imported mare Castianira; her dam Tabitha by Trentham; g. dam by Bosphorus; Foresters Coalition Colt, Bustard, Charming Molly, &c. to a royal mare. Thus as a blood horse he is equal to any ever bred in this or any other country. His stock are large and promising, and higher prices have been offered for them than any colts on the continent. Five hundred dollars was refused for the half of an Archy colt at nine days old.

Good high land pasturage, and servants being gratis; and mares fed with corn at the market price. I have separate lots well enclosed for mares with colts, and the best attention shall be paid to them; but I will not be accountable for accidents of any kind.

Gentlemen who send mares to remain with the horse, may be assured that they shall be returned in as good or better condition than they were sent. One dollar will be expected by the groom with each mare. ALLEN J. DAVIS. New Hope, Feb. 26. 83. cow 1 May
