MR. COCKERELL'S TOUR.

Mr C. R. Cockerell, an eminent antiquarian of Great Britain, has returned to England after England in 1810 & first visited Turkey. In con- han will be promptly attended to. junction with Baron Haller be undertook to exsavate the temple of Jupiter Pauhellen us in Omins. His success exceeded his utmost hopes, for besides a complete restoration of the Architecture be had the good fortuse to discover the statues which formed the composition enriching the two frontier preces; which, as the carliest specimens of excellent Greek sculpture and of the school of Ogina, of which we have no othe: catein examples, are of the utmost inter-

Ho of arwards succeeded in excavating the Temple of apolle Epicurius, at Phigaleia, in Arcadia, wurre besides a very complete restoration of a temple which is described by Pausanias as one of the most beaut, (4) to Greece. he had the gratification of brigging to hight the piece, which enriched the interior of the Cella, and which is now deposited in the British Mu-

His avocations led him into Asia Minor, where he completed the tour of the seven churches, saking many drawings and observations on those remains, and collecting many inscriptions. He visited Priene, Sames, Miletus, and Crete where he made plans of the Labyrinth of Minos. From Rhodes he crossed to Patara, and visited the numerous cities and remains on the coast of Lycia, and collected, besides drawings. a vast number of inscriptions, and in particular varieties of those in the Lycian character which are hitherto unexplained.

In a second tour, he visited Epiras, Thessaly and other provinces of continental Greece and the tonian islands. - In February of 1818, he passed into Apalacia and Naples whore he had the advantages of six weeks study of the Antiquities of Pompeii.

TROM THE NEW-YORK NATIONAL ADVOCATE. OLD KALEIDOSCOPE.

After all, give me autumn-give me refreshing zephyrs instead of scorching blasts-tool face much scarred from fighting and has lost the fourth or nights and balmy sleep, instead of myriads of moschettees and restless inquietude -and, in the morning, a system braced, an energetic apperite, but muffins, strong coffee and Lang's 1 Gazette. Seated but yesterday at the breakfast table, and while musing on nothing, and viewing the curling smoke which gracefully ascended from the plated urn, my eye lighted on the Kaleidoscope, which, for a length of time had been dozing on the mantle in . blest forgetfulness." Ah! are you there old friend? come to my eye-'tis long time since I have the town of Fayettroille, a BRICK HOUSE, three stories had a peep. Looked down Wall street, the high, to be finished in the first style of eleganos, suited golden mine-fruitful in banks, brokers and barbers—some little jostling during the last for business, and is increasing in value daily. Also, in week—hoax the knowing ones—drive tandum the city of Raleigh, a HOUSE & LOT, with six acres of -great sports-men-shoot a bank flyingtouch to the tune of thirty, forty, fifty, sixty thousand-exchange checks-borrow for an nience of any gentleman who wishes to reside at the hour buy up southern notes bum each other seat of government, for the purpose of health and pleasmash-dash that's your sort." - Peeped dence and business in the centre of the city. Likewise, round the corner of Wall street, and up Broadway-charming display of reticules, filled with way—charming display of reticules, tilled with above property a credit of one and two years will be jungling trifles—large bonne s—no getting a allowed, the purchaser giving sufficient security. Defull view of a lady's face—shielded effectually ring my absence, I have appointed Mr. Kenneth Gillis, of from impertinent gazers—no decision on beauy. There goes a beau fresh from Bond street clear the course here he comes blue frock, pidgeon breasted-corsetted to the eyes, "an eagles talonin the waist"-Cossack pantalouns-boots with brass heels-cravat tight to suffication-bushy hair-bell hat-watches, seals and rings quite the dandy. There he goes, walking on tiptoe-breast forwardback projecting-rattan dangling-opera glass ogling-who is he? a Brummagin merchant, sells buttons, japanned waiters, snuffers, and coal scuttles must know something about fashions, therefore-By this time my coffee grew cold. So I laid by the Kaleidoscope for a future occasion, for the arrival of the season devoted to tea parties, balls, plum cake, and carraway co:nfits.

THE improvements that have lately been commenced in this place, may afford some gratification to those who feel an interest in the agricultural and commercial prosperity of this section of the state. - Hats are now building in this place, for the use of the Yadkin Navigation company, and arrangements have been made by the company to proceed in the improvements of the river with as little delay as possible. Several boats for the purpose of conveying produce down the river are in a state of forwardness,-Hands are now engaged opening a route for a turnpike, to lead from the landing above the narrows down the western side of the river, to the town of Blakely .- This route will form a postage of about fourteen miles -The Morganton road has been opened as far as this place. and passes in nearly a direct course through the course of the town-a road has been opened to, intereact the principal road leading from Cabarros county; and another from the ferry to the main road on the tastera side of the river will shortly be completed.

A number of Carpenters are employed erecting buildings, and as soon as practicable, several mercamile houses will be established.
