and the rest of the Borough crew.

themselves. They may lessen the quanity of long as the bank notes will pass current, will in all likelihood, or the fate of the bo- grance! roughmongers and fun holders it runs throughout the stomp duties : and thus the business will be done in grand style.

is a bubble altogether. It makes every thing will not avail them much. uncertain. Every contract me de under a system of paper meney is liable to be violated eve-the value of the paper.

hear Jenkinson and Harrowby and Vansitiart filment of my predictions; and, it will pull the revenue, which is no other than an increase an open ayowal of the approach of the end. worth a straw; the Consier fairly triumphs over them; when, all the while, here are the reasons as plain as one's nose upon one s face. All matters of finance are now nothing at all. The whole system of sway rests upon , fict on: a false, a fraudulent paper, which nothing can save from destruction. A paper, which has been the means of causing more misery and oppression in the world than all other things put together, within the last half ce tury.

Yet, there are men, who pretend to be Reformers, and who call me a monster and a fiend for pointing out the sure, certain, easy and et feetual means of destroying this infernal paper. The L rerpoo Mercury makes use of this word, fiend. What? Does be wish the system to last, then, that he may live upon his railing against it? He has, for a long while been telling us, that a tyranny prevails in the country; that the people are monstrously oppressed; and the moment an effectual mode of res sting oppression, and that, too, without the chance of bloodshed, is postered out, he cans the author of the suggestion " a fiend." The troth is, that such men do not, at bostom, wish for reform. They are more party men. They lose grumbling and gabbung but, they do not wish for any change that would give fair-play

The scheme is the touch-stone. Those who have thought they were, but, they were not. has many things that they would not willing ly part with. They cannot, tender souls, en-How is it to come then? By open war? The conflict is too unequal; more hangings and marched to Coventry, a pound would not, in committed. Keep all pamphlets and paraany part of England, been worth a shilling. graphs that come into your hands about any Perhaps, these gentlemen, who are against the such. If you do nothing more, note down the tends to restore to the people the possession of Borough villains should be persuaded by argutheir rights; any thing that tends to the putt ng ment to give us our rights. Let these gentledown of the Borough-villains; any thing that men go, then, and try their persuasive powthous to diminish the power of the Russells ers upon a band of robbers in a cave. Let them try to persuade such band to give up its I shall not be surprized to hear, that there booty. No, no! Never will this reform come is somewhat of a breach between the Borough- with the consent of those who live on corrupfellows and the Bank fellows. he latter tion. Never will it come, while they can can pay, if the former will find the means. It employ an army - This is a settled point. is the tormer who are answerable for the And then, what we have to determine on is, amount of the bank notes and for the payment whether there be any means of depriving them of the d vidends also. The lower the value of of the power of employing an army. And I the paper, the better it is for the borough fel- am decidedly of opinion, that they always lows. But, the Bank-fellows may year for will employ one, and a powerful one too, as their paper, and thus create a demand on the I do not say, that a sowing of bank notes Borough fellows. These latter would throw is the only chance; for, I think that the the fundholders overboard, if they dared, chances are greatly in favor of a blow-up from They dare not lest the fundholders should drag other causes. I think, that the pretty works them over along with them. It is certain of the vibains themselves would destroy the that the fundholders would hang on to the side thing. But I do not see, why the people are and, indeed, for arrizons, it is not always good. of the boat, until their hands were chopped off. to wait to see them play their pranks I do It is a farming country. Every thing connect-There will, it things should take this turn, be not see, why the thing is not to be done by a el with agriculture thrives. But eved, in a dreadful struggle between the parties, and blow from the hands of the oppressed. It these eacs, a removal is not so pressent a we, my friends, with the king, I hope, at our will be amusing, to be sure, to see how the thing, I hav jus sent home the as o tast paris bead, shall decide between them-Mr. Free- tyrants will work about with the thing twisted of my Four's Resid nee. Those volumed tell mantle, at Botley, was once waiting amongst around them. They will be like wasps in a the whole stray; Luctrue story; and they will some bushes to shoot a hare, which he ex- tar barrel. Bet, I do not see why the vermin compressly, I hope, dissipate the delusions of pected to come through a gate. White he should not be trampled on at once. It is sa- W. B. ko.ck, which have already produced was waiting, a cat came and scated herself disfactory, at any rate, to view their confu- tune was The last Part, that is, the The moment the hare short to see the state to which they have that contains the Journal of our friend the gate-post. The moment the hare short to see the state to which they have that the first a Tour to the Western through, the cat leaped upon her, and a brought their affairs; to see them applying, to see them applying, the cat leaped upon her, and a brought their affairs; to see them applying, the cat leaped upon her, and a brought the channel of their amb speader to terrible struggle began. Freemantle shot and through the channel of their ambassador, to full and are account of this country. They killed them both. Such, or very much like it, A nerican artists to save them from our ven- with propadity to at the price of live or six

You will in the France's speech and in the from the effects of a blow levelled at them from agriculture, gardening, parties, taw and relinewspapers be very regularly amused with the this side of the water. Here are all the bank given; but they also ay a so daily in view Increase of the revenue. No a observe. The note arts in the height of perfection. They are the Broad williams and here arts of fraud amount of the revenue; that is to say: its rela- wanting in nothing. Any thing can be inn- and oppression they have a great sale in tive amount, depends, now-a-days, principalty tated here, marks, paper, ink: all as com- this country; they have produced great effect. on the quantity of paper money jost For pleiely as possible. All that will be wanted free have some devery partize of the Boinstance, when the quantity is great and prices will be specimens of what the tyrants put forth. high, a certain horse sells for fifty pounds. The receipt tax on this transaction is 5s. (or what ever it may be); but if the horse sell for thirit goes on all the way through; for, when mo- In answer, to a friend, who asks me what ries than to me. ney is plenty, more of though saxed are "kept he ought to do with money that he has in the and used, though the nominal price is higher. funds, I say, let him turn it into Portugal Discla ming and abusing E gland. The fact ties so great as to make the bushel of wheat sell then, have ready money, when the blow up for five pounds, it would be very easy to col ect comes; and he will with his gold purchase an taxes; but, then the fundholder would get on estate four times the value of one that he can 15 about a teath part of what he now gets; now buy for paper,-Wheat will sell for about The boastings, therefore, a out the increase of the recenae are, in fact, boastings about the increase of the quantity of the paper money.

This is the light in which you ought to view the paper man entered to the present the present to the present to the paper man entered to the paper man enter tered into. He is sure to gain enormously. If indeed, the taxes we paid in gold and sil- if the blow-up come ; and, in any case, he ver, which has an intrinsic value, and which, can only loose a little interest. There is no therefore, cannot be augmented or diminished pity for those who keep their money in the at the ple sure of any man, or body of men, funds after this warning. Executors and then the increase of the revenue would be a guardians persist in keeping the property of proof of an increase in the real resources of the others in a state of such manifest jeopardy. nation; for it would arise from an increase in They will plead the Boroughmonger's sancthe real possessions of wealth. But, the paper tion of their proceedings; but I hope that I tuink it probable that, during the very next ry hour, by those, who have it in their power session, something will be done, directly or to change the quantity, and of course, to change indirectly to lower the interest of the Debt. They will be en ugh, however. It will be the first Laugh, therefore. I beseech you, when you of a regular series of lowerings. It will be ta fuland Castlereagh prating about the increase of down the funds most delightfully. It will be of paper money. Laugh at Perry and Wooler's When once that measure begins to be talked confused jurgon in their commentaries on the of, you will hear no more of Pitt Clubs. Those boastings of the Courier They are hunting gauge of marauders will begin to scratch and my, is willing to receive into her tamily their names from the list. Bolton Fletcher and the Hampshire Parsons will begin to look sharply about them. Lawyer Gross will have something else to think of than to tell lies a bout my ' Two Penny Trash." Have your eye upon every thing relating to Bank Notes; of such of the stockholders of this thunpany as have any for, compared to them, all other things are instalment due and unpad thereon, will be solbet public

In conclusion, let me express to you my satisfaction, that you have, in your proceedings, avoided all attacks upon the king and his family. It is not that family who oppress authorised by the charter of the company, to sue ... and

The immense sums placed to their account, they do not receive. These sums are, for the the charter in their behalf. far greater part, actually taken away by the Borough congers, though they are granted to the royal family. Let us be cautious, how we talk about changes in the form of government. -I know much more about this matter than you can know. My decided opinion is, that we ought to stick to our single object : a reform of the people's House of Parliament. Let us have that; that is all we need; and that we will have.

boggle at this, are short of the mark. They things go on a little, and, if a crisis arrive althan ever - Take no vengeauce in your own dure the idea of a blowing up of the paper guilty to the law of the land ; which I warrant money! Just as if any rational man ever ex- will overtake them soon enough. Do nothing pected a reform without such blowing up? unlawful in any case. Be firm be considerate. but, at the same time, resolute ; and the king and people will be safe; and all but the tyrants and theirstools will have cause to rejoice. shootings at least. Besides, would not open In the meanwhile let every man make his mewar blow up the paper? If Brandreth had morandum as to acts of tyranny by whomsoever

Any thing that is, with him, diabolical, which sowing of bank notes, would wish that the book or paper where you have read any thing to be referred to hereafter. Let every man keep an account of what passes in his own neighborhood, remember all acts of tyranny, who wer be the agent; for every fact of this kind will be of use. I have a great collection.

I remain bere, for the present, principally, that I may, before I leave the country, know what the bank fellows are doing in England. -This, probibly, I shall not know for a certainty before May next, and then i-snall have to stop a little to consult as to what ought to be done. If the Boroughmongers reduce the interest of the debt, though in only a triffing degree, I strike my lent, and an off at oner; for hen the game begins But, let me not act a children part; let me not go home to come back aga n : let me not return till I have haished my work here.

i beg of you all to remain where you are, and not come bither. This is a fine country for farmers and labourers in agr culture | bui iveamot, at present, be good for manufacturers; shillings . but, one egy may serve a whole Be you assured, that nothing can save them neighborhood. They are a mixed wedley of of an Eng shman to the back bone; though they never flamer, and vary often censure, the ty pounds, as he will when the quantity of pa ed thing However, measures will be taken thor the friend ship of thousands of men of per is small, the tax is perhaps only 3s. Thus to obtain all these. Rest you satisfied, that great weight in their several neighborhoods; a fact not less honorable to the people of Ane-

Let no one expect to artice friends here by So that, if the paper were put forth in quanti- G ld, and keep it in that shape. He will, is so unnaturation its il, and savours so much of bas-ness in the monve, that all good men turn with disgust from the man who is guirty of it. When my American triends laugh at me about the assarding of hered tary titles and offices, I tell them of some of their pretty little tricks that are played here, especially in Pennsylvania. For my part I do not know what may become necessary in order to obtain and secure the huernes of England , but, while I am nore, I will not seem even to agree to any thing different form the Constitution of England, lest I should be suspected of flatters. and, test I should be suspected of preferring this Country before Eng and.

WM COBBETT. Hyde Park, Long Island, 3d. Jan. 1819.

Cape rear Navigation Company. DUKOUA . I' to the p ovisions of the act of 1 Lacorporation, notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Schoolers of the Cape Fear Navigation Company, who be held at the Town House, in Fayetieville, on Thursday the first day of July next at which time the attendants of the proprie ors is required, periodator by their representatives

By order of the President air, Directors J W WHIGHT, Secretary. Fayetteville, June 1, 1019.

Miss Nye, TAVING taken a house near the Acadeas bounders lew feman saucems.

Cape Fear Navigation Company. J SUKSUANT to the provision of the charter, notice is hereby given, that the sources auction before the Town Hous, in Faretteville on Mo . day the 7th day of June wxt a 9 o'clock A M. and such deta quents are nonced that if such sales shall not produce the full sum heretofore ordered and directed to be advanced on their respective shares, with morest and incolernal courges. The President and Directors, are recover the balance by motion in any court of competem jurisdiction, on ten days previous notice, and they wal feel themselves bound to inforce the provisions of

R. leight, Jun 8, . 619

By order of the Pre-mont and Directors. HENRY BRANSON, President. Payerteville, May 3, 1819. Under authority of the President and Directors the sale of Stock above mentioned is positioned until Monday the Lat. July next, oil Which delinquents have J.W. WRIGHT, Secretary.

Take Notice.

NY person wishing to buy LANDS on Cape Fear river in the neighborhood of If you hear of bank-notes being introduced not exceeding 5000 acres, by applying to the subscribe: Eavetteville, can be accompodated with any quantity from America, say nothing about the matter, - aving on said river eight mides above the town. O Keep quiet, and let the thing work. You can the premises are two Saw Mills, Dwelling and other on never do any good by a premature bustle. Let houses, several plantations, &c. The lands hear acvertised he on both side of the river within the mile of six and eight of Fayetteville;-Also, one half acre have thought they were, but, they were not, ways be on your guard against those who re- Loran the town of Fayetteville, fronting 54r. I Wine Trey have been angry with the tyranny; but commend violent measures; for then will be low's dwelling house and joining Mr. P. I. Tillinghast's they, when they come to consider, find that it the time for you to be more cool and patient Those Lands are attended with several other advantatages too tedious to mention; however, I deem it unnhands, when such a time arrives; leave the to any description i could give them respecting the same, therefor, I invite them to come forward, exam me the Land and judge for themselves. Terms of pay ment will be made casy to purchasers, . NATHAN KING.

To Journeymen Taylors. WO or three good Journeyman Taylors will meet with constant employment and liberal wages by applying to,

Raleigh, May 6, 1819.

Public Sale. On Tuesday the 27th day of July next will be offered for sale at public Auction, 100 LOTS IN THE TOWN OF BLAKELY.

North east side of l'edee river, Monigonde County, N. C.

HIS town is situate at the head of burig. ble water, below the Great falls, or an rows, a portage will form a communication with the vigable water of the river above the falls. The improments, now in operation, will, in a short time, on manifection for boats of ten to fifteen tons burbe, in Wilkesborough to the head of the falls on the Yalk and fron Blakely to the head of Steam Boat navgum on the Pedee; by these improvements the tradeout western countries will be concentrated at Blakely, we must secure to that place a permanent and entering business: its local advantages will be readily period and preciated by those who may visit the place

Terms of Sale-A credit of 12 and 18 months #1 given, purchasers giving bonds with approved and

June 1 1919.

J. LEVY, & Co. .ha's

SIILLS.

I AMES JEFFER -, &CO have on had at dillsoorough, a general asserting of stills, some with pewter worms and some who open this, with circlight pipes of copper and cans web gog meek or pewter. - Their tills are made of the best may rists and the workmanship equal to any in he blad Systes. Persons at some distance can be certain of b. is sected if application is made before the about the sproken, and if orders are laid in soon, they will be cited with despatch. Old stills can be upared a a same place.

Milsborough June 2, 1819

S. Bond,

AS just received a handsome assertment of spring, fancy and staple goods, among hearticles just received, are superfine clottes and mees, Nankeen, Vestings, Gangleams date, Robes, V. ditto, Canron Crapes dette, Shawls, Sak de te and Brown Linnens, sheeting, Long Lawn, Lond Halkerchiefs, Flag and Silk ditto, Lotton data, Lo Vels, Parasols, B imbazetts, Checks, Camb res lale and Genttemen's Gioves assorted, Cotton Hose, Hall Cnyats, Steam Loom shirtings. Hardware and outer a lige assor ment of Ladies and Gomlemen's his and Corse shoes, Elegant Grass ware, fine and Coarse in Laf and Brown Sugar. Tea and Coffee, sno Guns, Par de and Sant, Cot on Cartis, Iron and Steat, Blacksmill Tels Travelling Trunks, &c &c.

Ice-Creams.

AN be had at the house of the subscribe, on Monday, the 17th inst. and every day nowing, from ten o'clock in the morning till tenne ming also ice, by the bushel o pound.

SUSANNA SCHAUL Raleigh May, 13th 1819.

Wanted

WO JOURNEYMEN, well acquaint with the Stage or Wagon making with who will meet with liberal wages and constant ment. H. C. WIATT, & 00 Raleigh, April 7, 1819.

BHE celebrated and unequalled RACI HORSE, TIMOLEON, will stand the sting season at the subscriber's stable, 3 miles and offarrenton. The terms, blood and performance vil belade known in due time. ROB'T R. JOHNSON.

he Celebrated Horse Fi- Hall, A VD o this se is on at a y s hi in Grabvalie county, five miles north of Williams and ever mares against to hear vinch can be dis harg d by it is the we in the seas in Marys 1 19 19 on planto the groom in every many : HALL of the hands enest horses eve. 3 Course try his blood unacceptionable; asremid t the best racer ever rased in a and performances at tage are 11 5.4

av 14, 1810.

ST printed at Haleigh.

Notice.

E public are informed the All a President and Director the Second kt. Whav gar fon Company, as .. papa is considered by my con and defore void, and that the me the persons regularly a sers are therefor eautoned tracer arrangements solutions and arrangements with the said are unit, I their competency establed by the courts of law methy compelled to apply for a security compelled to apply for a security in the security of t

Righ, May 5, 1319.

FA OF N. CAROLINA, 7 Cha AKE COUNTY. ) Ses .. . Wm & J. C. Guy to Jan s Hay . -- Ungal

ment Lexicd on .74 acres of land, E Defendant having removed at of the Mate or so conceals himself, that the add. naryocess of Law cannot be served on h.m. h. shert. Or lered by the court that publication be only a tRaleigh Minerya, for three months, that if the 4. end dies un come forward on or below the box Ter this Court, which will be held at the Court Hoods Raleigh, on the third Monday of August Eli-Phandgment final will be had against him and oc t, is ondemned to plant fi's reaven-

T. OF N. CAROLINA, & Gourt of Pleas & Quarter 183 5 Segmons, May Para 18.3. Whall vs. James Hayles—Original Attachment level

on 274 acres of land. E defendant having removed out of the Binte or so conceals himself, that the order artocess of law cannot be served on him; it is had Ordered, by the Court, that publication is and Ruleigh Minerva, for three months, that if the hant does not come forward on or beare the next out this Court, which will be held of the Court of the Radeigh, on the third Monday in August 1624. tata gement final will be had against him aid the on rievied on, condemned to the plantiff s receivery B. S. KING, C. C.