ni-annual meeting, at the Pavi- France.

al Ridgely, Mr. William Patterunble neat cattle ; consisting of French Stocks, April 2 L blood ar a sh te Devenshire, 1500of.

h breed. nery was Vaides ploughs were a hand, eafif y busheiting out weil ans, um and new constructions mple in its mechanism, and powseds, consisting of grass and gar-tarmers brought with them from elds, specimens of their Lucerne, are, their Orenard grass, their I Wartzel, &c. Fed. Gaz.

Foreign.

THE NEW YORK COMMERCIAL AD VERTISER, JUNE 15. LATE I KOM ENGLAND. e fast sailing sh.p Criterion, Capt. from London, the Editors of the ereial advertiser have received pers to the 4th of May. length of the account of the executhe men convicted of high treason, is the insertion, this day, of seve eresting articles from these papers. day after the execution of the ators, a meeting of the friends of plortunate families was held, to measures to ra se funds for the and children of those, who were orted, as well as these who were ed. It was finally resolved to re-Lord Sidmouth to permit the exhithe bodies for this purpose. . It cessary to add that such a request used The Coffins were filled with ime, & boried the following a ght. outh wales where they are banish-ward of three hundred pounds is by the magistracy of Glasgow for prchension of two individuals, Robert Fulton and John Huichwho stand charged with thigh n. They are printers by trade, rked in the office of Mr. Macken-Glasgow. - They are suspected of used their master's types-in g the treasonable placard which sted up in Glasgow and the surg neighborhood, on the first of last he evening of the 1.th ult George who was committed to Kirkwall r housebreaking, escaped by dishimself in his mother's clouk and y which the gaoler was deceived ; ctionate old woman being laid up nugly in the bed-while the son deliberately out of the prison, pasgaoler, and effected his escape.

Volney died a few days since, at of an inflammation in the bowels. s conscious of the danger of his n and met his fate, says the Mornonicle, " with a truty philosophical

" This eulogy is easily underphilosopical death beds are the s of atheism; and the character of s writings dose not justify us in ng an exception in his case.

eut Gazette. says that it is as. d, " from a peculiar course of inon," that the Queen has express intention of certainly serving in in the first week in May. A let-Home of the 12th April. states Queen left that capital on the 9th irs, and from thence she will pro-Way of Milar, to London.

igence from Stock oim, dated 14th, states, that the American r had addressed a remonstrance wedish government against cervisions in the new navigation act, are considered contrary to the cial treaty concluded between and the United States.

ttengen p ragraph says- His Ma ur most gracious King, George been pleased to take upon him office of Rector of the George is University, and has issued a dated Carlton bouse, 21st expressed to the most gracious especting this most honorable diswhich his Majesty las been to confer on the University.

papers had been received to the April. Accounts from Brussels e 34th, state, the Countess de lou, who since her return from na has resided in that city, is many was numerous and respect 231 ; seven per cent, 104; new six per their lives. cent. 102 a 103 ; three per cent. 66 1-4.

British Stocks, May 3 - Three per Henry Thompson Mr. William cent. reduced. 68 3-4, 7-8; three per cent. Mr. George Ruck, and others, ex- consols, 69 8-4; four per cent. 36 1-2, 3-

French Stocks, April 2d .- Five per mixed, of the cent. consols, 181 63e; bank actions, new dollars, 44 11d.

Average prince of grain, on the 22d of have been saved." April, wheat, 68, 11d ; rye, 4s 3-1d; barley 36s 6d.

THE LONDON COURIER OF MAY 1 BUTION OF THISTLEWOOD NGS, BRUNT, TIDD & DAVIDSON its execution, a turnip and pota- It being determined to make an early or, calculated to prepare, with example of the conspirators who on Frira with the cob for extile, work- the atrocious crimes of which they were course of the afternoon; but, as we sta- promot observe to the mandate. ese articles for stocks; a mill to day last received judgment of death, for and; a turnip drill; a machine found guilty, and intimation was given to nowing of clover with exactness, and economy as to the seed; the an coltivator, for keeping clean delay, of the proceedings under the Coman coltivator, for keeping clean good condition, corn, polatoes, mission. On Saturday a privy Council and a great variety raluable implements of husband-here were also presented to view as feel at the Cabinet Ministers where were also presented to view as of beautiful wheat from the ea, from Smyrua, from Friesland, m Tuscany, barley from England; a Smyroa. We had further the Council, after two hours deliberation, a two councils after two hours deliberation, and spent some time the divine deal to all his arguments; they persisted in asserting their disbehief in the divine deal to all his arguments; they persisted in asserting their disbehief in the divine origin, of Chris., and declared them, were to be launched into eternity. The block was now brought up, and prisoners also attended. The Common paid them a visit, and spent some time in each of the realist of the spectators were surprised at the shape of the block, as, instead of presenting their disbehief in the divine origin, of Chris., and declared them, were to be launched into eternity. The block was now brought up, and prisoners also attended. The Common paid them a visit, and spent some time in each of their cells. Davidson alone senting a flat surface, it was slanted off. n Smyroa. We had further the Council. after two hours deliberation, in each of their cells. Davison alone senting a flat surface, it was slanted to feel the necessity of seeking so that the top of it was quite sharp. tiewood. John Thomes Brant-James Consolation is religion, and although he should take place this day, and that the Deist, he requested that he might be terior of the prison reach the door, through remaining six prisoners should be respited during his Majesty's pleasure. Mr. Borwn, the Governor of Newgate, received the warrant at seven o'clock in the evening; & accompanied by Mr. pullen the under sheriff to Sheriff Parkins, im mediately went to the condemned room, in which were sitting those who were erdered for execution, attended by eight officers. When he entered they rose in the most respectful manner He held in his band the Recorder's warrant, of the contents of which they appeared conscious. A dead silence prevailed, but there was not the slightest agitation observable in the countenances or manuer of any one of the prisoners.

> Mr. Brown addressed them in the following words :-- it is my painful duty to communicate to you, that I hold fecting. They were both plunged into time you have to remain in this world was equally deep. Ings still clung to populace were removed. will be employed by you in making preparation for that to which you are go-

Sir, the better. Our wish is to die as soon as possible." The others expressed the same sentiments.

Mr. Brown .-- " If any of you wish to have the assistance of a Clergyman of and solemnity, but free from dejection any persuasion, let me know it, and I or fear. Ings has been generally dejec shall apply to the authority by which I ted; the rest perfectly indifferent, and am convinced you will not be refused."

Not a word was attered by any one of family, has been allowed to see them. the prisoners.

Mr. Brown then said-" Let me en-devote it to repentance and prayer, to that Being who will not desert you at the moment of fatal separation." The prisoners did not speak nor make

Mr. Brown then left the room, and sation in which they had been engaged Upon going to the condemned room where the six conspirators who pleaded tion; Harrison and Wilson showed no had proposed to witness the execution. symptoms of agitation, but appeared hope or fear.

that their lives were spared.

· Strange, Cooper, Bradburn, and of gratitude. Harrison and Wilson rails fixed across, and guarded by soustawere still silent, and apparently unmov- bles.

show you the dark side of the picture, in immense numbers, and the firemen Your unfortunate miserable companions from the different insurance offices were in crime, who were tried, are ordered among them. They were formed in sevefor execution on Monday morning; and ral parties, and its proper station was asyou, Harrison, Wilson, Cooper, Strange, and Bradburn, are to be transported for

His Excellency Mirza-Aboul-Hassan- our poor friends ; I am indeed sorry for Old Bailey, were occupied wit educeday afternoon last, " The Khan, the Persian Ambassador, has had them." Harrison said nothing; the o ous pectators - Every windo Agricultural Secrety' and a private audience with the King of there were too much occupied with the crowed, and several hundreds took joy of their own escape to bestow a places on the wall which enclosed the dens, in the city of Baltimore. American Stocks, May 2. - Bank shares thought upon those who are to forfeit yard.

the most remarkable circumstances at- awfully interesting occasion was peaceatending your case that ever took place ble in the extreme. upon any occasion; and, if you have At seven o'clock, four boards to elevate any feeling, it must make a deep and placards on, were brought within the indelible impression upon you. Those rails which enclosed the gallows. Large very persons against whose lives your bills were immediately nailed to them Builion .- New dooblooms, 31 15s 6d; hands were about to be raised, are the containing the following words :- "The men by whose intercession your lives riot act has been read, disperse immedimention of the commutation of punish- they were not exhibited to the populace,

Each man was then placed under the care of two persons who were engaged for that purpose. The Rev. Mr. Cotton, the Ordinary of the gaol, had re- be ignorant of the peril to which they peacedly communed with them in the would be exposed by neglecting to yield time in attenting to this wish, and immediately sent tor a gentleman of that persuasion, who would, it was hoped, be enabled to effect a change in his sentiments. Datidson also begged to be allowed a pen and ink, and a sheet of paper. This as granted, and he wrote a letter to the Barl of Harrowby, which was delivered in the course of the day.

The most heart-tending scenes were the morning, the families of the different prisoners were permitted to enter their cells, and take of them a final leave in this world. The parting between Thistlewood and his son was extremely afin the course of the evening, duminished turned round several times to the multreat you with effect to give up your after midnight, but long before the first titude, and smiled at them, and then sung coffin, which was left open. The bodies thoughts to the contemplation of the ray of the morning a considerable numchange, which you are about to under- ber of persons took up their stations Death or Liberty!' The executioner go. Your time in this life is very short; close to the inner bar, evidently with a determination of remaining there till the close of awfal busi ess of the day. By four o'clock, the bar which had previously been bounded but by one rank of spectators, was enclosed by a second, and the assembling populace the miserable men turned to the conver- soon began to assume the appearance of scene which he had just quitted, as fat arrived, and this introduced many to altogether rejected by the others. as regarded Strange, Bradburn, Coop- take their stations beyond the first barer & Gilchrist. He entered with the Re- rier. This apprehension turned out to corder's warrant in his hand, which be well founded, and at a quarter past o, contained cheering intelligence to them. those who had been for hours clinging to Strange, Bradburn, Cooper and Gil- the inner rail, were onliged reluctantly christ, seemed sunck with consterna- to abandon the situations, in which they

A great quantity of sawdust was brought rather to despise than to pity the deplo- out at an early hour, and deposited berable condition of their companions, neath the scuffold on which the decolations and uttered not a word expressive of were performed. It was shortly afterwards transferred to the top of it, and at Mr. Brown then informed them, that the same time black cloth was brought, mercy had been extended to them, and and the scaffold erected, in the rear of the drop was completely convered with it. The posts which sustained the chains Gilchrist, immediately fell on their knees, while these preparations were in progress and after a pause, gave interance to in- every avenue leading into the Old Builey coherent and unintelligible expressions was carefully secured by strong wooden

Before six o'clock, the City Marshals, Mr. Brown said, " I have now to Foot Guards, Constables, &c. assembled signed to each .- At this time the Lord Mayor attended, and, accompanied by the arrangements.

During the time occupied by the pro-Mr. Brown said, "There is one of Parations above described, the conduct the countless thousands assembled on this ately." These were then laid down on Gilchrist has been respited, without each side of the debtors' door. Of course being only prepared to be used in case of necessity; that if subappily it should become the duty of the civil authorities to have recourse to so strong a measure, it might be impossible for the multitude to Those opposite the prison saw to the lags William Davidson, & Richard Told, had previously professed himself to be a next moment, the procession from the inpermitted to have the attendance of a which the culprits were to pass to expiate Wesleyan minister .- Mr. Brown lost no their crimes with their blood. The Ordinary ascended the platform, and at a quatter before eight, I'histlewood made his appearance on the scaffold. His step faultered a little as he mounted the platform, and his countenance was some what flushed and disordered on being conducted to the extremity of the drop. His deportment was firm and be looked round at the multitude with calminess. He had an ed down so as to conceal part of the orange in his hand. On the cap being mask, mounted the scaffold with a knife placed on his head, he desired that it in his hand, similar to what is used by yet to be encountered. In the course of might not be put over his eyes. While surgeons in amputation, and advancing the executioner was putting the rope to the coffin, proceeded to sever the head round his nack, a person from the top of from the body. When the crowd perthe houses, exclaimed, " God Almighty bless you." Thistlewood nodded. The Rev Mr. Cotton, by whom he was preceded, and avored to obtain his attention; but he shook his head, and said . No; the Recorder's warrant for the execu- the deepest anguish. The wives and No." He looked round repeatedly, as ex- et to disconcert the person in the mask tion of you, Thistlewood, Ings, Brunt, children of the other prisoners were pecting to recognise some one in the for a moment, but upon the whole, in Davidson, and Tidd, on Monday morn- subsequently introduced, and it is hard- erowd, and appeared rather disconcerted performed the operation with dexterity, ing. I hope and trust that the short ly necessary to say, that their sorrow at observing the distance, to which the and having handed the head to the assis-

the hope that some event might occur, Tidd was brought up second. He ran which would save him from his impen- hastily up the ladder. An unusual flush the hootings of the mob. The assisding fate. To to a late hour last night. pure spread his food of any of the prisoners, except David- harly nodded to some one to whom he re- voice - This is the head of Arthur son, whose mind was evidently softened cognized at a willing, with an air of cheerafter the incrview with his family .-- fubress. He also dreaded that the cap Tidd has from the very begining preser. might not be put over his face, but said ved an uniform and consisten steadiness nothing. He nodded at different people in the windows. He likewise had an orange in his band, which he continued to suck till the cap was drawn over his face.

scafford he gave three cheers, and con-The crowd which had been very great ducted himself with great bardihood. He the head was again taken out and put in in a discordant voice-"Oh, give me having tied the cap over his eyes, he exclaimed, " Let me see as long as I can." He followed this by saying to the crowd. " Here we goes, my lads here's the last | cight minutes. remains of James logs !"

Thistlewood said to Tidd, " We shall soon know the last grand secret."

Davidson ascended the scaffold with a firm step, calm deportment, and undis a crowd.-They stood 8 or 10 deep, by mayed countenance. He bowed to the before he entered, without any reference the time the clock struck five. An idea crowd, but his conduct was equally free partially prevaided, that the area im- from the appearance of terror, and the mediately without the rail which encom- aff-etation of indifference. - When he first passed the scaffold where on ordinary came up, he seemed engaged in prayerguilty were confined. Mr. Brown ob- occasions spectators are allowed to stand, and he was immediately joined by the served a very striking contrast to the would be cleared out when the constables Rev. Mr Catton, whose attentions were

While the executioner was tying up Thistlewood, he again spoke, and said (addressing a person near him.) "I have but few moments to live ; I hope you will tell the world I died a sincere friend to lugs now addressed himself to a person in front of the scuffold, who was taking notes, and said, "I die an enemy to all tyranis. Recollect, put that down !"

Brant was the last that came out. He passed hastily up the steps, assisted by one of the officers and advanced with a laugh on his countenance. While the rope was bring adjusted. he looked towards St. Sepulchre's church, and perceiving some one with whom he had been acquainted—he nodded several timeand then made an inclination of the head toward the coffins, as in derision of the awful display. His conduct was marked with the tame irrational levity to the last. When his neck handkerchief was taken off, the suffener fell out, & he kickedit away, saving "I shan't want that any more."

Ings, who still kept looking about with firmness, again spoke and said, "I am not afraid to go before God or man. 1 know there is a God, and I hope he'll be Mr. Woniner, superintended the whole of merciful." He had a blue cap on his head when he came up, which was im Wilson, who before had appeared The tops of St. Sepulchre's Church, of mediately removed by the executioner, perfectly calleds, now exclaimed. " Ah! New gate; and of all the houses in the and its place supplied by a white one.

The executioner now proceeded to part their caps over their eyes, and adjust the ropes. When he came to Ings the unisappy man said, " Now old gen. tleman, finish me tidily. Tie the hand. kerchief tight over my eyes. Pull the rope tighter-it may slip.

Davidson, who continued to pray with Mr. Cotton, firmly pressed his hand, The executioner then left the scallold. and in a few seconds, at six minutes at ter eight, the fatal signal was given, and the drop instantly fell .- Their sufferings were brief. Thistlewood never mored a fimb, nor did he turn, but hung exact. ly as he had previously stoud. lnga was much convulsed for some seconds, but at the expiration of three minutes, all earthly suffering seemed to be at an Decapitation of the Traitors .- Half an hour after they had been turned off, the order was given to cut the bodies dawn. The executioner immediately ascended the scaffold, and drew the legs of the sofferers up and placed the dead men who were still suspended, in a sitting per sition, with their feet towards Ludgale. hill. This being done, the platform was again put up as before, and the culpins were brought out. He proceeded to cut Thistlewood down; and with the aid of an assistant, lifted the body into the first coffin, laying it on the back, and placing the head over the end of the coffin 80 33 to bring the neck on the edge of the block .- The rope was then drawn from the neck and the cap was removed from the face. The last convulsions of the traitor had thrown a purple hue over his countenance, which give it a most ghast. ly and appatting appearance, but no violent distortion of feature had taken place. When the rope had been removed and the coat and waistcoat forced down, so as to leave the neck exposed, a person wear. ing a black mask, which extended to his mouth, over which a colored handkes chief was tied, and his hat was slouch. ceived the knife applied to the throat of Thistlewood, they raised a shout in which exclamations of horror and reproach were mingled. The tumult seemtant executioner, who waited to receive it, he immediately retired, pursued by voice- . This is the head of Arthur Thistlewood-a traitor!" A thilling sensation was produced on the speciators, by the display of this ghastly object, and the huntings of a part of the mob were vehemently renewed.

The head was then placed at the foot Ings then came up ; he was dressed in of the coffin, while the body, before lifteven hardened. Not one except their his burcher's jacket. On reaching the ed up to bring the neck on the block. of fidd, ings, Davidson and Brunt, were decapitated with similar ceremo-

The execution occupied an hour and

The person who wore the mask, and who performed the decollations, is the same person who beheaded Despard and his associates. In performing this dread. ful duty, the edge of the first knife was turned by the vertebrae of Thistlewood, and two others became necessary to enable him to finish his heart appalling task.

I he coffins containing the remains of the sufferers were left on the scaffold but for a few minu es after the sentence of the law had been carried into effect -- While there, they continued open. At nine o'clock they were conveyed into the prison by the debtor's door, and the crowd began peaceably to separate.

In consequence of the pressure of the persons congregated about the railing of St. S pulchre's Church yard, some of the railings were thrown down, and sixteen persons were seriously injured.-Two had their arms broken, and one person his leg.

FROM ST. AUGUSTINE. A serious disturbance took place at St. Augustine, on Friday, the 2d inst. An officer of the regiment of Malaga it appears, had struck a soldier belonging to the regiment of Catalonia. stationed there; which so exasperated the latter regiment, that they sallied out in a mass, in the evening threatening vengeance against all belonging to the former regiment. Many guns were discharged into some of the houses, but no lives lost. The Governor finally succeeded in restoring order in the garrison; but 28 men of the Catalonia regiment descried with their arms, during the tumult, and arrived at St. Mary's on Wednesday last; where they disposed of their arms, uniforms, &c. and proceeded on to Savannah. + Charleston Courier.