CHARLOTTE SUNDAY OBSERVER, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1917.

A PAGE OF GASTONIA HAPPENINGS

REPRESENTATIVE MEN GIVE IDEAS ON STATE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Diverse Opinions on Organization of State Chamber of Commerce Given at Recent Banquet, but All Agree as to its Before any thing is undertaken, the Usefulness.

Special to The Observer.

Gastonia, Feb. 10.-At the big banquet given at Gastonia Tuesday, February 6 at which there were 350 guests, and the story of which has been printed before in these columns, expressions were solicited from the banqueters on "What a State Chamber of Commerce Should do For North Carolina." Here are many answers Here are many answers from many thoughtful men

What a State Chamber of Commerce Should Do for North Carolina.

Joe S. Wray, Gastonia, N. C.: It should help North Carolina to organize to help herself and the Nation meeting their needs. H. Y. Scott, Monroe, N. C .: The best thing possible for the State. Let's get busy now. G. Mark Goforth, Lenoir, N. C .:

Bring to closer relation the business men of the city and the farmer. The time is now at hand and if this is not done our country will suffer.

W. P. Hope, Danbury, N. C.: To use its influence in assisting in any manner possible directors and other officials in charge. Enact in some legislature or other influence to so support extending work as to exterminate ignorant, degrading influence. Bessie Hill Hackney, High Miss Point, N. C.: Institute State Home-Coming Week to bring some 400,000 who have left the State. Get eople up exhibits to be shown in January and February in North and West. Send representatives to stay monthly in same section to do personal work. Let said representative do research work in the section where there is dissatisfaction, where farmers toil seven days and nights in the week, and then make a bare existence. Also in those sections where everything is frozen up for two, three and four months. The Southern Railway is sending such exhibits and men into the North and West; other roads are doing the same. Alexis J. Coleman, Durham .: Recommend desirable legislation and keep close track of all measures introduced at every session of the Legislature. Promote publicity for North Carolina by advertising resources and advantages in newspapers of large Northern cities.

P. C. Whitlock, Charlotte, N. What I think of a State Chamber of Commerce should do for North Carolina: Combine her efforts towards advertising her resources.

John W Fox, Charlotte, N. C. Boost the city's natural and devoloped ment. Rev. J. H. Henderlite, Gastonia, N.

.: Ge to iL Chas. N. Evans, Baltimore, Md.:

Emulate the most excellent example of Gastonia Chamber by exploiting the State's resources as you exploit those CITY' COMPLIMENTED of your city. S. S. Stable, Salisbury, N. C.: Get the farmers and commercial interests into closer co-operation. There should be a board of agriculture in every county in North Carolina. H. H. Groves, Gastonia, N. C.: Would no doubt unite business interest in a State sense and make the State as a whole pull together which would be a great thing and mean better and more business for North Carolina.

Robert C. W. Ramspeck, New Bern, N. C.: Inaugurate North Carolina Products Day. Undertake State-wide profitable farming campaign, encour-State Chamber of Commerce should be adequately financed, a definite plan mapped out and competent management secured. A. C. Forester, Greensboro, N. C. Study needs of the State and striveto supply them. There are so many things to do, details should be left to governing boards. G. R. Horn, Rocky Mount, N.

Preach "Carolina Should Feed Itself," protect and encourage home industries. William F. Brown, Charlotte: Protect and encourage textile industries, good roads and streets. ••A City Well Paved is a City Well Dressed.

build

C .:

S. W. Thompson, Gastonia, N. C .: building of asphalt Agitate the streets in the city, and asphalted concrete on permanent foundation in the country for county roads.

G. H. Marvin, Gastonia, N. C.: Act as a guardian for all the smaller towns G. H. Marvin, Gastonia, N. C .: It would make North Carolina the richest State in the South. It would provide a whole-time health officer for every county. Let's get together-there is power in union.

W. G. Yeager, Lexington, N. C.: Work towards a mutual understanding between agricultural and civic populations. Gastonia is on the map. J. R. Sams, Marshall, N. C.; First, it should effect an organization of bocal boards. Second, it should coordinate and unify the aims and purposes of urbane and rural endeavor for the betterment of both.

E. D. Bowditch, Waynesville, N. C. Aid, develop and boost the Old North State. C. R. Hudson, Raleigh, N. C.: Endorse and help forward the follow-ing five F's: Farmers' need; Fertile soil; Food and Feed crops First.

A. G. Hendren, Wilkesboro, N. C. It would make business men and farmers better acquainted. It would help the counties of the east to know more about the counties of the west J. J Rogers, North Wilkesboro, N. Bring our business men and farmers to know each other, to realize our interests are mutual and cause cooperation to take the place of competition. G. R. Pugh, Elizabeth City, N. C .: advertise. Get in touch with North merce work.

Rev. B. F. Hargett, Pineville, N. C .: Agricultural and industrial develop-

Frank Parker, Washington, D. C .: C Be a county bureau of information. A build county and towns. center for farmers-for advice and aid.

Horace F. Smith, Richmond, Va .: interests of the entire South.

ON EVENTS OF PAST WEEK BANQUET TO GASTONIA CO.; MEMBERS GRATIFIED BY WORK OF C Expressed by Prominent GENUINE LOVE-FEAST Men.

Special to The Observer.

Gastonia, Feb. 10 .- This expression has come from many: "No other city or organization in the State could have brought the people together as did Gastonia." They are the words of many prominent men of the It seems to have been the bellef of all that Gastonia is the only city in the State that could have brought so many prominent and busy men of the State together. "This is probably due heard of. They are not only

Special to The Observer.

Gastonia, Feb. 10 .- Messrs. R. B.

Miss Anna Belle Dowd, of Charhear of an

GASTONIA MEN

mêrce would be well.

hand-in-hand.

mote

Special to The Observer.

Capt. Kent, U. S. A., Talked for

From Gen. Young and Talks

to the way Gastonia is doing things." said one visitor. "I never knew Gastonia, Feb. 10 .- It is hard to any city in my life to be making the say whether the banquet that yesterprogress that Gastonia seems to be making, and her Chamber of Comday was tendered to Gastonia's Comwer pany B by the citizens of Gastonia work which the organization is do-so was more gracious to the guests or to ing, so it is probable that in the hey the hosts. merce-it's a whale. Did you ever organization doing much as that body is doing, and they the hosts, are the most unselfish crowd I ever Either

Either way one takes it, lovefeast, indeed, it was from start to finish. work-The men were formed by Captain will be secured and the present in-Bulwinkle at 2:30 in front of the ar- come doubled. ing for Gastonia, but are lending material assistance to Gaston County and even is on the lookout for the welmory and marched to the banquet fare and development of the State, room at the Armington.

They stepped out as fine as General LOWELL MAN SEEKS and I am glad to see one organization in the State that is not working Pershing could have asked. And what selfishly, but has the whole State at a difference. A bunch of lads when heart, when the State Chamber of they went-come back as a compact Commerce is perfected which the perfectly moving company mass of Commerce is perfected which the Gastonia body has started, it is going to be the greatest thing that ever happened for North Carolina." men-hard-with the blood red in happened for North Carolina." men-hard-with the blood red in their cheeks, their hearts strong with the confidence of perfect manly cour-age and their legs nimble and whit-the confidence of perfect manly cour-age and their legs nimble and whittled down for lasting a long time. The dining room was well filled-

Craig.

VISIT ATLANTA say 150 in all-and the dandy dinner was enjoyed. Speeches were inter- PHILADELPHIA MAN TO mingled among the courses in order to get through with them all. Rev. J. H. Henderlite, the toastmaster, hand-Gastonia, Feb. 10.—Messrs. R. B. H. Henderlite: J. F. Mason, dially invited to attend and admission tions of Mr. Henderlite: J. F. Mason, Mayor C. B. Armstrong, Rev. H. H. will be free. Jordan, S. N. Boyce, J. H. Separk, Rev.

lotte, spent several days the past week W. C. Barrett, A. G. Mangum, Col. in Gastonia as the guest of Miss T. L. Craig, Capt. A. L. Bulwinkle, Myrtle Gray. She attended the Tor-rence concert. Ing out officer) St. C. C. Craig, (Sec-their college period for one year's = ond Lieutenant Reinhardt was kept away by sickness), A. N. Dixon, for-productive period. "You cannot make Co-ordinate all city and county or-ganized activities into a scientized ducation and active influence for the benefit of all the people. Ernest L. Perkins, Morganton, N. C. I think a State Chamber of Com-I It is ticklish to pick out any of the scale activity of the scale of the scale of scale of the scale of the scale of scale of the scale of the scale of sc claimed.

Mount Holly, and T. R. Carver. It is ticklish to pick out any of the speakers for special mention. One Mangum, Colonel Craig, Mr. Mason, D. B. Britton, Gastonia, N. C.: Pro-thing sure, A. N. Dixon made a hit, specially, Captain Bulwinkle, note especially agricultural and and Colonel Armstrong disclaiming Boyce and Lieutenant Craig. A manufacturing interests of the whole State. E. H. Anderson, Greensboro, N. C.: It should work to co-ordinate and be and colored and the boys before him to be company in which Gastonia takes Organize and maintain a North Caro- direct in a general way the individual "men." "Men" were worth more than such added pride since their well-do-lina Agricultural Products Day and chambers over the State, and should brick buildings. They were the builders ing in every way during their seven seek to establish definite co-operation of the State and Nation. His words months' absence. Carolinians outside of the State, and and unity of efforts on part of com-enlist their aid in Chamber of Com-mercial secretaries and their organiza-and the boys took them all in. away.

tions with extension workers to have A feature of the banquet were the A letter was read from General development of city and county go remarks of Capt. W. A. Kent, U. S. Young to Captain Bulwinkle express-A., the officer detailed by Washington ing his gratification at the fibe be-H. S. Sellers, Kings Mountain, N. to muster out the men. His main havior of Company B on the border. To promote social intercourse, thought was the future of the Army and the National Guard. The Army held a reception at the court house R. W. Stowe, Gastonia, N. C.: Pro-mote education and manufacturing interests of the entire South.

MILITARY COMPANY BRILLIANT CONCERT BY ROSTER OF GASTONIA'S BY WORK OF CHAMBER Fine C. of C. Is General Opinion MANY WELCOME SPEECHES; Chamber of Commerce Merits Co. B Returns With Full War Support of Citizens of Gas-Support of Citizens of Gastonia.

to the chamber,

Special to The Observer.

much success in their new home.

Strength Military Company. Names of Officers and Men. Special to The Observer.

Gastonia, Feb. 10.-There were 75 Miss Torrence and Signor Sor-Gastonia, Feb. 10 .- From what your correspondent could gather on Company B who returned home Wed-Universal Service - Letter the streets of Gastonia Saturday, It nesday night: Captain, A. L. Bulwinkle; first lieuappears that the citizens are highly pleased with the way the meetings nant, C. C. Craig; second lieutenant,

P. Reinhardt. by Capt. Bulwinkle and Lieut. came off this week and at the large First Sergeant, W. L. Glover; supamount of publicity received. In fact, ly sergeant, N. F. Kaylor, mess some of the members of the Gastonia chamber have been heard to say eants, T. L. Jenkins; sergeants E. E. Boyce, J. O. Durham, F. A. Gannt, G. A. Short, C. S. Short, J. Wilson that they are willing to add consid-erable to their present contribution several men McArver. are known to have said they are willing Corporals, J. H. McArver, J. H. to put in several hundred dollars a Wells, W. L. Jenkins, J. H. Henry, R. J. Morris, J. H. Carroll, J. C. Faysyear to an organization doing the soux, Fred Bumgardner, A. H. Rodden, Pink Porch, L. W. O'Daniel. Musicians, J. H. Taylor and G. J. cide to increase the revenue of the Harris. Cooks, A. P. Williams and

G. W. Glover, Artificer, L. M. Glover, chamber, that many new members Privates: Dores Allen, W. L. Burns, Hall Britton, T. L. Crow, E. L. Car-son, Mack Dilling, Harris Fields, B. B Griggs, L. L. Harwell, C. A. Henly, Hoke J. Hanna, Sidney L. Perkins, A. NEW RESIDENCE Gastonia, Feb. 10 .- Esquire C. W Their many friends at Lowell regret

L Justice, Oscar L. Lewis, George W Glover, W. A. Putman, C. H. Painter, R. L. Rhyne, R. D. Whisnant, Lawrence Bess, R. B. Beach, S. G. Britton, R. L. Brown, M. T. Brown, J. F. Brown, B. E. Baker, E. M. Bonds, C. Clark, J. H. Farris, Hugh Fields, Luther Hasting, Robert Holding, Dean to give them up, but wish for them

Holland, Russell Hasting, A. B. Harrelson, P. L. Jordan, L. R. Mosley, P. R. Stroup, Samuel Lowrance, R. V.

Martin, Arthur Perry, Oliver Parker, Stowe Petty, Samuel Rodden, T. L. SPEAK AT COZY THEATER Gastonia, Feb. 10 .- There will be a Stowe, Frank Stockton, Boyce Stevenson, T. E. Terry, F. D. Terry, George

Moore, W. A. Haney. -CARNIVAL MANAGER

CONFERS WITH SECRETARY

Gastonia, Feb. 10 .- K. G. Barkoot, most democratic. His plan was to manager of the famous Barkoot Carnival Company, which is wintering at Spartanburg, S. C., was in the city Thursday to confer with Secretary Holland of the Gaston County Fair soldier in three months," he ex-Association with reference to the 1917 fair. Mr. Barkoot told The Gazette Judge Jones talked well, as always reporter that he thought Gastonia W. T. Rankin, without any airs, was the best town of its size any-

> WEEKLY MEETINGS OF MISSION STUDY CLASSES

> > Special to The Observer.

Gastonia, Feb. 10 .- The Mission Study classes of the First Presbyte-

Mr

All the

The mustering out will come right A letter was read from General

Franklin avenue. Tonight from 7 to 9 the company

The Linwood College girls basketball team played the girls' team of tant future. Lowell High School at Lowell the Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

rentino Entertain Enthusiastic Audience-Former to Continue in Concert Work.

SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

TALENTED ARTISTS AT

13

Gastonia, Feb. 19 .- A large and enthusiastic audience greeted Miss Marie Torrence and Signor Umberto Sor-rentino at the Central School Auditorium, Wednesday evening, when they appeared in concert under the auspices of the William Gaston Chapter. Daughters of the American Revolution. The audience was a thorughly representative one, the leading musicians and music lovers filling the large auditorium. Miss Torrence's first appearance brought forth a most flattering outburst of applause. She her was charming to look at and opening numbers, "Spring's Awaken-ing" and the difficult "Staccato Polka" by Mulder were given with splendid effect. Miss Torrence posse high, clear soprano voice which is under perfect control at all times. In her group of German songs (sung in English) and the Aria from "Lou ise," some beautiful legato singing was enjoyed while in" Lo, Hear the Gentle Lark" by Bishop her command of coloratura work amazed her many admirers. In all her work Miss Torrence was the finished artist and one of her greatest charms is her unaffected simplicity and her evident pleasure in her work. The dust from

'LaBoheme" and the always welcome "Oh That We Two Were Maying" by Nevin with Signor Sorrentino were sung exquisitely. Signor Sorrentino was given hearty welcome on this his second appearance in Gastonia and once again this popular young tenor sang his way into the hearts of his hearers. His beautiful voice rang clear and true in every number and it is hard to say which pleased the most, his Aria from "Pagliacci" or the group of Neapolitan folk songs. He was enthusiastically applauded after each number and was obliged to respond with encores. His group of English songs delighted the audience and "Love's Majesty" by W. H. Prutting was one of the gems of his portion of the program.

George Roberts, a gifted young planist, played the accompaniments for Miss Torrence and Signor Sorrentino magnificently and was an inspiration to the singers. His solo numbers by Brahms, Schumann rian Church will hold their regular Chopin were played in a decidedly meetings next Monday afternoon at 3 artistic manner. Mr. Roberts plays o'clock. The western division will with marked individuality, singing meet with Mrs. W. T. Rankin on tone, excellent technique, and his per-West Main avenue and the eastern formance on this occasion was redivision with Mrs. R. M. Reid on splendent with the many attributes of a very excellent planist. It is hoped that these three young artists will appear here again in the not too die

> Miss Torrence will continue in con cert work.

Special to The Observer.

