CHARLOTTE SUNDAY OBSERVER, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1918.

IN CHARLOTTE SOCIETY

city.

park.

Mr. Clark Buys Parsons Home.

Miss Elizabeth and Master Bender,

MECKLENBURG WOMEN ARE

Have Made a Splendid Record in

Asked to continue work in visiting the difference of the bourth Liberty loan in Meckleshburg works in the served break fast to seven families, 30 persons.
Are members of troes to seven families, 41 persons, and the work in the served break fast to seven families, 50 persons.
Are members of troes to the bourth Liberty loan in Meckleshburg will volunteer to clean and straighten will volunteer to clean and straighten up the homes where there is illness to the member of the works. fourth Liberty loan in Mecklenburg county received yesterday the follow-ing message from Mrs. William G. McAdoo, chairman of the Woman's Liberty loan committee:

Woman's Liberty loan committee: "The President has called on the nation to over subscribe the loan as imperative measure toward certain and complete victory. The nation-al woman's Liberty loan committee, appreciating all you have already done, calls upon you to take that mes-sage home to your community. Over subscription of quota in your district must be the personal responsibility of every Liberty loan worker.

"That the women are responding to this appeal is evidenced by the fact that their subscriptions through Thursday had totaled the large sum of $1,160,550."

Mrs. Morrison is greatly encouraged by this showing and expresses the hope that Mecklenburg women will not regard their task as finished but will keep up their splendid work dur-ing this week with the object of doub-ling, if possible, the amount already subscribed.

up the homes where there is illness they are asked to notify Mrs. Van Landingham at 578 or 2843 and this national army. He is a member of the Army and Navy club." Landingham at 578 of 2863 and this work can be done in connection with the canteen work. Perhaps some of the ladies would be willing to have their cooks accompany them to the homes and help set them in order. The canteen workers feel that if the Major Sloan is a nephew of Mrs. Charles P. Moody, of this city, and a brother of Miss Amy Sloan, who vis-ited Mr. and Mrs. Moody here last spring. homes are once set in order they can be kept so as the members of the families recuperate.

Mrs. Moody's Nephew Wounded. The following is from a recent issue

The following is from a recent issue of The New York Sun: "Officers and privates of New York's leading units—the 165th infan-try (old 69th) and the 77th division, national army—figure prominently in the latest casualty lists announced by the war department. The fighting 69th boys fell in the battle of the Ource" Mr. and Mrs. Clark, who have been living at Garland court for the past several years, will hardly move thto their new home before spring. Mr. and Mrs. Parsons and children, g this week with the object of doub-ng, if possible, the amount already bescribed. Canteen Workers Visiting Sick. The canteen workers with Mrs. Canteen workers with Mrs.

of St. Martin's and the Church of the Holy Comforter, in this city. He re-signed the pastorate of the latter church a year or more ago to as-sume charge of raising an endowment fund for St. Mary's college, at Raieigh.

Mr. Price Receives Comm

Mr. Robert M. Price, son of Mr. John M. Price, of Lenoir, has received ision as second lieutenant at Plattsburg training camp and has been appointed military instructon at New Hampshire college. Durham, *N. H. Liedtenant Price is just nineteen years old. He had finished his course in theology and had received his li-cense but will not accept a pastorate until after the war is over

Mrs. Walker a Visitor.

Mrs. Norvell Walker, of Baltimore, will arrive in the city this morning Major Moody's father, the late and will be a guest a William Sloan, was a native of this tel through Tuesday. and will be a guest at the Selwyn ho-

Mrs. Walker was formerly one of the state's most charming and popular women. She has frequently vis-ited Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Gallaway Mr. David Clark has bought the ited Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Gallaway home of Mr. W. A. Parsons, in Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott, in park. The home is one of the hand-this city. Mrs. Walker is an active somest and most complete in the Red Cross worker and much of her time during the past year or more has been given up to war work .

Red Cross Work Rooms Open Today. On account of a vast amount of emergency work the Red Cross work Asheville. cooms in the Mint building on West Trade street will be open today be-ginning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Moore Ill.

Special to The Observer.

Forest City, Oct. 12 .--- William Jennings Bryan was the chief speaker at a great Liberty loan rally held here today. Mr. Bryan came through from Charlotte, and was joined here from by Marcus Erwin, of Asheville, who spoke on the program with Mr. Bry-

Assistant District Attorney Clyde R. Hoey, of Shelby, introduced Mr. Bryan, paying a high tribute to the prominence of the speaker of the day, referring to him as "one of the great citizens of the world," this remark drawing a storm of applause. Mr. Bryan made a splendid talk. touching on the war in all its aspects and paying particular attention, to the necessity for oversubscribing the "Fighting Fourth" Liberty loan at this time. He recalled that Forest City had gone "over the top" in the three previous loans and predicted that it would repeat, "as usual." Mr. Erwin made a strong plea for the Liberty loan and added his usual humorous talk. Both Mr. Bryan and Mr. Erwin vere guests of J. F. Alexander during their stay in Forest City, leaving late this afternoon by automobile

GASTONIA APPEALS FOR NURSES FOR "FLU" CASES

Over 700 Cases in Neighboring City and 10 Deaths Occurred

Be a Stockholder in Victory, Buy Liberty Bonds Keep up the Christmas Spirit With Holiday Greeting Cards

Send a message of cheerfulness to the boys overseals so they will receive it, in time for Christmas day. Mail us your request for our new samples which will be ready October fifteenth and will be forwarded free.

It takes time to make these tokens of your good will to special order and they should be sent not later than December first-Attend to the matter now. J. P. Stevens Engraving Co., Greeting Card Manufacturers 99 Peachtree Street (Opposite Piedmont Hotel) and 47 -Whitehall Street, Atlanta.

WHEN YOU SEE IT IN THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, IT'S SO

McCoy's--The Rug Store rienta Domestic PANSAN P

At this time when there is an acknowledged Rug shortage all over the country, you will be delighted to see the wonderful variety of patterns we are showing in medium and fine domestic and Oriental Rugs.

We have a rug to suit ever room. Make your selection while our stock is at its best.

headquarters. Mr. Lacy Moore is ill, at his home on East Vance street, suffering with an attack of Spanish influenza. Celebration Called Off. Mr. Heriot Clarkson received a let-Mrs. Moore has just returned home ter yesterday from Mr. W. A. Erwin, of Durham, chairman of the comfrom Goldsboro where she was called by the illness and subsequent death mittee on celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the bishopric of widow of the late W. H. Porter. the Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount Cheshire, Mrs. Moore found Mr. Moore ill of the Episcopal diocese of North Carolina, saying that the celebration scheduled for Tuesday at Tarboro had on her return to the city.

been called off on account of the epi-demic of Spanish influenza. Lieutenant Murrill to go Overseas. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Murrill received a telegram yesterday afternoon from their son, Lieut. Hugh A. Mur-rill, Jr., saying that he expected to go verseas shortly. Mr. and Mrs. Murrill will go north their son. Tuesday to join their son for a few lays before he leaves.

Lieutenant Murrill was recently appointed aide to Brigadier General Bradley, and has been stationed at Camp Freemont, Cal.

the 15th of last month to Miss Eliza- fuenza beah Tracy Sturgis, daughter of Maj. Gen. S. D. Sturgis, commander of the 87th division, at the home of her grandfather, Colonel Bement, at St.

Mr. and Mrs. Murrill hope to bring Lieutenant Murrill's bride home with

Lieutenant Murrill was graduated

Miss Stratford Home. amp Freemont, Cal. Lieutenant Murrill was married on during the epidemic of Spanish in-

Miss Stratford is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stratford, at their home on Central avenue.

Colonel and Mrs. Edwards Here. Colonel and Mrs. Ogden Edwards have arrived in the city, after a trip them, after he sails, for a visit. to Baltimore and New York, and are from V. M. I., and from West Point, at the home of Dr. Annie Alexander, and last summer he was machine gun on North Tryon street. instructor at Camp Hancock, Augusta, he summer Mrs. Moore found Mr. Moore ill Charles Keerans to Graduate.

Charles L. Keerans, Jr., only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Keerans, of this city, will graduate from West Point in November. Mr. Keerans is one of Charlotte's brightest young men. He has been at West Point for the past eighteen',months. Mr. and Mrs. Keerans have recently returned home from a visit to

ities are contemplating further action in an effort to stop the epidemic,

GREENSBORO MAN DIES IN Miss Willie Mae Stratford, teacher SERVICE AT FORT THOMAS of history in the high school at Ashe-

Special to The Observer.

service a few

monia caused the death.

Greensboro, Oct. 12 .- Edward Laham, only son of J. E. Latham, of this city died this morning at Ft. Thomas, Ky., following a short ill-

months

PURCELL'S

WOMEN'S GARMENTS

OF

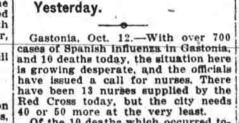

PURCELL'S

The father was on his way to Fort Thomas when news of the death reached here. The mother is in New York. Mr. Latham tried to get into service at beginning of war but was 880.

Pneu

Colonel and Mrs. Edwards spent under weight. He went into limited

Of the 10 deaths which occurred today, eight were white and two negroes. The deaths were mostly in the mill sections, and it is in these sections that nurses are most badly needed. Quarantine regulations are still being strictly enforced, but the author-

Fall Coats for Women and Misses

Are here in an extraordinarily large assortment of materials, models and colors. The display is by far the greatest that we have ever shown, and no advance in price. We made a tremendous effort in the beginning of the season to get in position to keep prices down by placing large orders, many in advance, and this we feel we have very successfully done, and we are offering the public-

$20.00 Coats at	$16.50
$25.00 Coats at	$19.75
$27.50 Coats at	$22.50
$35.00 Coats at
$39.50 Coats at	$29.50
$45.00 Coats at	$35.00
$50.00 Coats at	$39.50
$65.00 Coats at
ALL CALLER CONTRACTOR OF THE CALL OF THE C	ALL

FFRD

ing Rock Their return to Charlotte is always Mrs. Brown Volunteers as Nurse. Mrs.-William J. Brown has volune a source of much pleasure to their eered her services as a nurse and is wide circle of friends. at the Presbyterian hospital. At a mass meeting of women held

Mrs. Goff Organizes Motor Corps. on the lawn in front of the., First Mrs. Jeremiah Goff. one of the Presbyteran church under the ausmost active and enthusiastic workers pices of the Red Cross the first of of the Red Cross canteen service, has the week, five young ladies volun-the week, five young ladies volun-teered as nurses during the Spanish who are operating their cars deliver-influenza epidemic. They were: ing food from the canteen during the Misses Sara Tanner, Lula and Anne Misses Sara Tanner, Lula and Anne ladies will not only deliver food but will do other motor work and in this Taliaferro, Maria Tucker and Minnie Little. Later Mrs. Brown volunteered. way do much towards alleviating suf Mrs. Brown is one of the city's most fering. attractive and popular young maically ill at St. Peter's hospital with oneumonia, following an attack of Cadet Little Improving. Spanish influenza.

The young ladies, who are at the Presbyterian hospital, go on duty at 9 o'clock and are off at 6 o'clock.

Cadet J. P. Little, Jr., who has been confined to his home for the past Miss Moody's sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Moody, who is also a trained nurse ,was called here from Asheweek suffering with an attack of Spanish influenza, is much improved ville Tuesday night to nurse her and was taken ill soon after her arrival with Spanish influenza. Her condiand expects to be out next week. Mr. Little arrived home last night from Austin, Texas, where he had comtion was somewhat improved. pleted his course at the school of Miss Moody's Condition Critical.

Miss Beulah Moody continues crit-

Mr. Harris Improving military aeronautics. On account of Mr. Richard Harris, who has been illness Mr. Little has been granted a furlough until November 1. undergoing treatment at the Charotte sanatorium since Monday night. is improving slowly. Mr. Harris was very ill for several days.

Sergeant Woods Lands Safely. Friends in this ctiv of Sergeant Robert Woods, unit No. 2, Fort Caswell, formerly a member of the Fifth company Coast artillery, of this city has landed safely overseas. Rev. Francis Osborne III. The hundreds of friends through out the state of Rev. Francis' Osborne, son of Rev. E. A. Osborne and Mrs. Osborne, of this city will regret to learn that he is critically ill with pneumonia in Sewanee, Tenn. Mr. Osborne was in Raleigh when he was notified of the illness of his wife and park, suffering with Spanish influenson, in Sewance. He left immediately za. Mr. Sloop is very ill. for Sewance and was taken ill route with Spanish influenza.

Mr. Osborne was formerly rector

Beautiful Silk Dresses.

$15

made in smart Fall styles of fine Taffeta, Crepe de Chine and Messaline in Black. Burgundy, Taupe, Navy and Midnight Blue —Dresses ordinarily sold at $22.50, and of a character that will please tasteful women.

Walk a Block and Save a Dollar.

GATLING'S

39 East Trade St.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate Expected Home. Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Tate and children, who spent the summer at Asheville, and expected to return home about the 20th. During their absence their home in Myers park is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Tate and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate Expected Home.

Ill With Influenza. Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Sloop and child are confined to their home, in Myers

DAILY CALENDAR

Sunday. a. m.—Open air services on the lawn at the First Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Albert Sidney Johnson. a. m.—Red Cross work rooms, in the Mint building, on West Trade street, will be open to fill emerg-ency orders for hospital masks ency orders for hospital masks. Monday. 0 a. m. to 6 p. m.—The Red Cross work rooms, in the Mint building, on West Trade street, will be open. All workers are urged to be in their places. to 10 p. m.—The Red Cross work rooms in the Mint building will be open to all, especially the business women. Therefare.

- Tuesday. a. m. to 6 p. m.—The Red Cross work rooms. in the Mint building, on West Trade street, will be
- open. 8 to 10 p. m.—The Red Cross work rooms will be open. Wednesday. 10 g. m. to 6 p. m.—The Red Cross work rooms in the Mint building, on West Trade street, will be
- open. to 10 p. m.—The Red Cross work rooms will be open. Thursday. 0 a. m. to p. m.—The Red Cross work rooms in the Mint building, on West Trade street, will be
- Friday. a. m. to 5 p. m.-The Red Cro work rooms in the Mint buildin on West Trade street, will i

10 a. m. to 6 p. m.-Th work rooms, in the a on West Trade stre

Seventy-five new cases of influenza here caused the city commissioners to pass new ordinances today, by which all soda fountains are closed. Stores will be closed after 4 o'clock each day.

AND THE ARE NOT THE TAX THE THE TAX THE TAX T

Settle It During Quarantine

It's an ill wind that blows nobody good.

Quarantine time is a fine time to shop—No crowds—Nothing else to do. So why not settle the clothes question now?

Decide, as you read this, whether its a dress, suit or coat for you this season. Decide and come in and see our lines of tomorrow. Never a better time to make selection. The past week brought many newcomers-late style features, rarer shades and fabrics.

Suits, Coats and Dresses

Mere word pictures would never begin to do them justice. You must see, see, see-try, try, try. All we've got to say is we have no hesitancy in assuring you that you'll find what you want, and can buy, for we've marked them just as close as is commensurate with quality.

Suits	$35, $37.50) to $50
Coats	$29.50, $35	5 to $85
Dresses	. $17.50, $22.50) to $75

P. S. In case you can't afford Furs, we suggest Marabou, that fluffy, feathery stuff that so becomingly frames the face. New neckpieces of it just in-stoles, capes and animal shapes, priced $10, $12.50 to $27.50.

PURCELL'S