OBSERVATIONS

By the Junior Observer.

Congratulations.

In my humble judgment Charlotte has reason to feel proud of the fact that, despite all the insurances which operated against it, the allotment of $100,000 for the war work campaign in this county has been over-subscribed and that within the period originally set, ending Monday night, November 18.

And while I am about it I might call attention to the fact that this is not the first, nor the second, nor yet the third time this thing has occurred. The first, second, third and fourth Liberty loans were over-subscribed; likewise the Red Cross, and again the war savings stamps quota (by the way, I just learn from the office of Col. F. M. Fries, state director, that Mecklenburg went into the 100 per cent class of 13 counties in the whole state), and in everything else this city has been called upon to give or lend or buy, it has more than made good.

Now there are several reasons for the success of the united war work campaign. There are so many that it would be difficult to name them all. But in the first place the organization handling the work was as nearly perfect as is possible to think of. Men whose hearts were in the work, and women who know the value of the work of the seven organizations, got right down to the matter and developed a great organization.

Then came the work of the individual members of the teams. Men whose time could not be purchased, regardless of the price offered, went out into the city for days and days, soliciting subscriptions. Women who are averse to physical effort labored long and faithfully, assisting in the work of canvassing.

The newspapers assisted materially by giving the exact facts in the case. Column after column of space was given for the reports of the committees, and business men gave a large amount of display advertising space which was used to good advantage, to tell further of the matter and the reasons for which the fund was being raised, and of the increasing needs; and last but not least, the people themselves gave and gave freely and gladly. That is, in most cases they gave freely. In a very few isolated cases this was not true. In one, and I do not know the man's name, the committee was met by the statement that he had not given a dollar; he did not expect to give a dollar and that he did not care for anyone else gave. This man, I am told, is exceedingly well-to-do. He is a man who has been spoken of as one of the leaders in the city. A man who has been looked to by some as being the epitome of loyalty and true Americanism. Yet in the prime of life, engaged in a business which takes but little of his time, he gives neither money nor work. And it is stated, also, that in other campaigns he has taken the same position, purchasing just enough liberty bonds to escape being reported to the department of justice.

But in spite of these very, very few cases, the public responded in a most gratifying way to the needs of the boys in the uniform, through the recognized agencies.

In only one instance was the matter of religion broached, so far as I can learn, and that case was where the man took advantage of the combination of the seven organizations to take a shot at one of them with which he has long been at enmity.

And our pride in the achievement of the city and county is all the greater when we look about us and note the results in other counties of this state and of other states. And furthermore, to the fact that the joint national committee extended the campaign period until tonight to give additional time to raise the quota.

At the final meeting of the committee and workers on Monday night General Chairman Arthur J. Draper made the statement that Charlotte is the most loyal city he knows. I know others just as loyal, but to none would I yield the palm for excellence in this regard.

Her people, I believe time will show have not been given the consideration due in every regard and at all times. But this has no effect upon the heart of the right sort and the mind which seeks its equilibrium in the face of apparent injustices. They recognize their obligations to the fighting forces of the nation, and to the needs of humanity, and when once they know the necessities there is never any lack as to their willingness and their ability to perform.

Therefore, for these and many other reasons I point out that Charlotte and Mecklenburg county have just cause to be proud of the fact that the allotment for the united war work campaign was over-subscribed and within the original time limit.

GAY WHITE WAY MAY
AGAIN HOLDS FULL SWAY

Order Received Suspending Former Light Saving Regulations by Fuel Administrator Little.

Charlotte's "white way" may again be put in full operation after many months of partial darkness, the result of a fuel saving war regulation.

J. H. Little, the local administrator, yesterday received an order from R. C. Norfleet, of Winston-Salem, federal fuel administrator for North Carolina, stating that all orders suspending the full lighting of streets and other places had been cancelled.

The order authorizes complete suspension of all restrictions relating to the use of electric lights in cities, villages and towns by any person, firm or corporation for street illumination, display signs, announcements or signs on the exterior of any building or structure, or any billboard or other structure for display advertisements, announcements or signs or for illuminating or displaying any window, in any shop or store, provided current for the lights is generated by hydro-electric power.

The order, however, does not affect in any way lights generated or produced by the use or consumption of fuel. In regard to this latter class of lights, orders heretofore issued by the United States fuel administrator will remain in full force and effect until further orders.

J. R. CLARK VICTIM OF SPANISH INFLUENZA

Funeral to Be Held Today at Mt. Airy—His Bride Also Seriously Ill.

J. R. Clark, aged 30 years, died at 10 o'clock yesterday morning following a few days' illness with influenza. Mr. Clark was assistant traffic manager of the Charlotte Shippers and Manufacturers' association, which position he had held for the past four months.

Mr. Clark was married to Miss Miller, of Mount Airy, November 6. One week from that date he reported for work. The next morning he was taken ill and gradually failed until death occurred. His wife is confined to the Presbyterian hospital in a serious condition with pneumonia.

Mr. Clark was of exceptionally fine physique, an honest, upright and lovable man. Although in Charlotte but a short time he had made a host of friends.

The body will be taken to Mount Airy, his former home, for burial this morning.

HORNER TO MEET C. U. S.
ON GRIDIRON TODAY

The Horner Military school football team will clash with the Charlotte University school eleven at Horner's field this afternoon at 4 o'clock in what promises to be one of the fastest scholastic contests staged in Charlotte this season.

Both teams are evenly matched and from comparative scores of the five teams against the Charlotte high honors. Horner trimmed the C. U. S. boys by a 14 to 0 tally while the "U" kickers took the same team's measure 12 to 6 last week.

20 INFLUENZA CASES
REPORTED YESTERDAY

The city health department announced yesterday that 20 cases of influenza had been reported in the 24-hour period ending yesterday at 2 o'clock. This number was somewhat in excess of the usual number for a like period, but it was explained that this was probably due to the fact that some of these cases should have been reported in the 48-hour period ending Monday afternoon.

RECORDERS
DISCHARGE MEN

More Than 1,500 Soldiers at Camp Greene to Leave Army.

Actual Mustering Out Delayed by Lack of Official Forms—Negroes May Go Overseas.

Orders for the demobilization of troop units at Camp Greene, which will result in the return to civil life of from 1,500 to 2,000 soldiers, were received yesterday. It was learned from official sources. Work preliminary to the mustering out of these men is under way but none of the men will be given their liberty until the proper discharge and other forms are received from Washington. These are expected today.

In addition to the enlisted men, a number of commissioned officers will be mustered out of the army. Some will be retained on the "reserve list" and others will be released completely, according to the wish of the individual officer. There is at present an excess of officers at this camp.

The units to be disbanded first are called development battalions, and it was understood that as soon as the men in these outfits have been discharged the men in the several so-called "recruit camps" will be released.

In the development battalions is a relatively large number of men having diseases of a nature that, in the view of army officers, makes it advisable to hold the soldier until he is well. Orders to this effect have been received also. It was understood that no soldier suffering from curable disease which was contracted or which developed since the individual has been in the army will be mustered out until he is considered cured.

Already a number of medical officers have been transferred from the base hospital at Camp Greene. Major Hatfield, a former governor of West Virginia, is one of the medical officers who has left this camp during the past few days.

While no office at camp headquarters would admit holding such a belief, it was indicated in various ways that they would not be surprised to know that the number of men at this camp would be "very small" by January 1. The negro troops here in various labor battalions will be sent overseas or to ports of disembarkation to assist in the tremendous task of returning to America the great forces of the armies now in France, it was definitely stated.

SAVE YOUR HAIR!
A SMALL BOTTLE
STOPS DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Your hair appears glossy, abundant, wavy and beautiful.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of new hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and nurtures them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

NUX-IRON

TONIC
With Paw-Paw Added
THREE POWERFUL FORCES IN ONE
PUT UP IN LIQUID FORM

When run-down, nervous, tired and worn out all the time, take this reliable preparation and know what it is to again feel like your old self. The cost regardless of the size of your purse, is the same, and it may be secured without trouble at any first class drug store, and by taking it, one loses no time from work or pleasure and soon feels the wonderful transformation which comes over one when regaining strength, vitality and old ambition.

The formula is on every bottle and you are taking an honest Tonic on the wine base without addition of any alcohol or bad whiskey compound with the best known drugs for the special object of restoring your strength and stomach to what they should be to enjoy health.

In your anxiety to get better quickly don't overdo it, as many sufferers do, and take larger doses of this standard remedy. It will not act any faster and you will not receive the same benefits from its use you otherwise would.

Your druggist probably keeps it, but if he doesn't it is sold in Charlotte by the John S. Eise Drug Co., "On the Square," and by all druggists.

WARNING—Ironised Paw-Paw. If taken according to directions and not as a beverage, it is superior to any tonic, having a guarantee of satisfactory unqualified endorsement from people all over the world. Interstate Drug Co., Inc., New York.—Adv.
