McAlister-Vaughn Wedding.
Many friends in Charlotte were interested in the marriage of Miss Mary Watson Vaughn and Mr. John Worth McAlister, which took place in Greensboro Monday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Vaughn, Rev. Charles F. Brass, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating.
The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Josephine Vaughn, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Margaret Vaughn, Jean McAlister and Lynn Richardson. Little Miss Cynthia Vaughn was flower girl.
In noting the marriage The Greensboro News says: "The rapture is one of long standing."
The bride was a student of Converse college, Spartanburg, S. C., and is a graduate of the Castle-on-the-Hudson. Lovely in person and character, she adds to her attainments a musical ability rarely equalled.

"Among the many exquisite presents showered upon the bride and bridegroom was a mahogany music chair, formerly belonging to the bride's great-grandmother, Mary Watson, of Charlottesville, Va.
The groom enlisted several months ago in the United States marine corps and will sail in a few days for France. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McAlister, of this city, and a grandson of Col. A. C. McAlister and Col. B. F. Little. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Vaughn, also of Greensboro, and the granddaughter of Joseph E. Vaughn, of Madison, and Dr. Henry G. Smith, of Greensboro.

"The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Montcastle, of Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Penn, of Madison; Misses Kate Rucker and Cassandra Penn, of Madison; Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, Dr. Henry Louis Smith; Miss Catharine McDonald, of Charlotte; Miss Frances Worth, of Davidson; Bryan McCullen, of Washington, D. C.; Charles Vance, of Winston-Salem; Miss A. C. McAlister, of Miss May McAlister, of Asheville; Miss Maude Carson, of Charlotte; Henry Spann, of Davidson college."

Remember the Soldiers Overseas.
There are a great many people in this city and county who have not any relatives in the service to whom they can send a Christmas box and they should see it their privilege to be one of the number to send a box to one of the boys overseas from the Carolinas, Tennessee, Georgia and Florida who hasn't a relative to look for a box.

The Charlotte Red Cross chapter has undertaken the work of sending 500 boxes and Mrs. Paul Chatman is in charge of the work.
Mrs. Chatham is in her office in the Mint building every day from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. and often helps and her assistants have to work late into the night packing boxes.

Already 220 of the 500 boxes have been packed.
The minimum cost of a box is $1.50. Don't delay sending your check to Mrs. Chatham for at least one box. Your card will be sent in the box. Think of the joy you will cause "over there" at Christmas.

It will be recalled that last Christmas, Mrs. Hattie C. Jones, Sr., and her corps of workers labored for weeks sending a splendid box to each of the boys in the army and navy from Mecklenburg. So generous was the response from the people in this city and county that a neat sum was left over.

At a meeting of the committee held some time later it was unanimously voted to give this sum to the canteen service of the American Red Cross. The check was sent to Mrs. Ralph Van Landingham, commander of the canteen work, and the money was judiciously used in the canteen service.
