DESECRO PASTOR IS

y. E. R. Welch, New Paster o Methodist Church, Greeted by Wadeshore. Dec. 30.—Union services of all the local churches were held at the Methodist ohurch last evening to welcome Rev. E. R. Welch and family into the religious lite of the town. The services were presider oved by Rev. W. H. Reddish, of the Baptist church. Rev. B. M. Walton, of the Episcopal church, read the scriptures; Rev. John Jordan Bouglam, of the Presbyterian church, offered the opening prayer. Addresses of a -brief welcoming nature were made by Rev. Mesurs. Douglam, Walton and Reddish. A very appreciative response was then made by Rev. E. W. Weich.

Solos were rendered by Mr. Mary Kennedy Little and Mrs. H. W. Little. The spring term of school opened here this morning.

There are several new cases of "Ru" in town, but it seems to be of a milder type than formerly. No quarantine is anticipated.

Dr. Maynard, a popular physician of this place, who has received recently an honorable discharge from the army, has returned to resume his practice.

The Blewitt falls electric ferry, which was out offuDH élw hrdium which was at one time out of commission, has resumed operation.

Thomas Emmanuel, of the Blalock-Allen Automobile company, was taken to the hospital last evening suffering with Spanish influenza.

GERMAN AVIATOR TELLS OF DOWNING ROOSEVELT

Donhauser Is Planning Trip to America and Hopes to Become American Aviator.

With the American Army of Occupation, Saturday; Dec. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—Christian Donhauser, a youthful German aviator, who claims to have defeated Lieutenant Quentin Roosevelt in the fighting in the air in the region of Chamery which resulted in the death of young Roosevelt, today told the correspondent that the day following the combat his commander informed him the American he had downed was Roosevelt. Immediately afterward German aviators began arranging the details for the funeral of Lieutenant Roosevelt.

Before the war Donhauser was an aviator, although now he is only 23 years of age. He is the smallest of the German aviators, weighing only 94 pounds. Soon after the war began he entered the service as an ob-server, serving on various fronts, but principally on those in France and He wears the iron cross and other German decorations. The aviator is credited with 12 planes downed in For informat eleven consecutive days.

Donhauser's home is Hamburg. Although still in the German army.

Donhauser is Blanning a trip to the United States. Furthermore he says he hopes eventually to take out the American aviation forces.
