

CAROLINA SOCIETY

SHELBY.

SHELBY, Aug. 20.—Mrs. Charlie Forbes, of Greenville, N. C., was the charming hostess at a lovely party given by Mrs. L. A. Blanton last week. The attractive and inviting Blanton home was aglow with a wealth of sun flowers and marigolds. Progressive rock was played at three tables, after which elegant refreshments were served by the hostess and her sister, Mrs. Charlie McBrayer.

Last week Mrs. O. G. Falls, of Kings Mountain, entertained at Cleveland Springs at a very delightful 1 o'clock luncheon in honor of her niece, Miss Doris Harry, of Salisbury. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon. The invited guests being Mrs. J. C. Hayes and guest, Mrs. W. C. Rhea, of Rock Hill; Mrs. Chas. Thompson, of Gastonia; Mesdames Dilling, of Kings Mountain, Walter Davidson, of Charlotte, and Irma Wilford. Mrs. L. E. Ligon entertained most charmingly at her home on North Morgan street last Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hull, of Charleston, W. Virginia, who is spending the summer here. The rooms were bridge tables at four tables were artistically decorated with golden glow. After the games, an elaborate collation was served by the hostess and her daughter, Mrs. Willis McMurtry and Mrs. Vernon Porter. At her home on South Lafayette street, Miss Anna Newton and Miss Carrie Bell entertained jointly Saturday morning in honor of Miss Edith Hoyte, one of Shelby's most charming brides-to-be. Progressive hearts were played at five tables and after the games, the bride was showered with beautiful gifts. A delicious and copious repast was served by Mesdames Frank Hoyte and W. R. Newton.

One of the most beautiful and most unique social affairs of the mid-summer was given last Friday in honor of Miss Marie Linsberger, a bride of October, by Mrs. Charlie Washburn and Miss Orland Washburn at the latter's home. Delicious punch was served as the guests arrived by Mrs. Will King, S. A. Washburn, Herman Washburn, L. O. Doggett and Miss Eunice Roberts. The 30 guests found their places at the tables by attractive wedding bell place cards and many unique favors were played. Mrs. Charles Roberts was presented with a book of poems for making the most progressive and the bride was given a lovely piece of silver. A delicious course of refreshments was served.

Mrs. W. F. Mitchell entertained at a lovely party at her home on Monday in honor of Miss Mary C. Howell, of Tarboro, who is the charming guest of Miss Margaret Jenkins. Bridge was played at four tables and after the games, a collation was served. Complimenting her charming house guest, Miss Stella Anderson, of High Point, Miss Elma Gaffney was hostess last week at a lovely party at her home on Monday in honor of Mrs. J. R. Thomas, of Orangeburg, served a delightful ice course.

One of the largest and most brilliant social events of the mid-summer was that of last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Mae Wilkins entertained at a large reception in honor of the members of the Tongue and Needles club. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. In the receiving line were the hostess and the club officers, Mesdames Nelson Lattimore and M. O. Shields. Elegant refreshments were served in the prettily appointed dining room. Over 200 guests called during the hours of 4:30 to 8:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Suttle gave a garden party at their attractive home on North Lafayette street last Thursday evening as a special compliment to Mrs. Charles Forbes of Greenville, N. C. who is visiting her brother, Mr. Jap Suttle. Games were enjoyed and elegant refreshments served in the pretty flower garden.

Miss Margaret Jenkins was a charming hostess last week at a bridge luncheon complimentary to her pretty and popular guest, Miss Mary C. Howard of Tarboro. After an elegant six-course luncheon the guests were invited into the large living room where bridge was played. Miss Jenkins also was hostess on Monday evening at a beautiful dinner party in honor of her guest.

MOORESVILLE
MOORESVILLE, Aug. 20.—On Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock Mrs. Harry Mott and Mrs. Eugene Fink were joint hostesses at the home of their father, Mr. J. F. Mills, in honor of Mrs. J. F. Mills, Jr., of Charlotte. The decorations were of yellow flowers in hanging baskets, floor baskets and on tables. Punch was served on the lawn and rock was played on the porch. Ice cream and cake were served when the games were concluded.

Mrs. Tina Johnston entertained a number of guests at a dinner at her home several miles east of town on Wednesday. An enjoyable day was spent by all and a delicious dinner was served. Those invited to participate were Mesdames J. E. Sherrill, M. F. Nesbit, Stephen Fronts, E. A. Lowrance, C. K. McNeely, V. C. Edmonson and John Brown.

Mrs. A. E. Bell was hostess to a number of her friends on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at her home on South Academy street. A delightful musical program was rendered, followed by rock at several tables on the porch. Mrs. C. C. Ward, of Rocky Mount, and Mrs. Sam Pharr sang several songs, with Mrs. Bell as accompanist. Misses Grace Kipka, Catherine Deaton and Blecka Cornelius gave piano selections. Concluding the morning entertainment, the hostess served a fruit salad, sandwiches and ice tea. Mrs. Zeno G. Mann, of Whitakers, guest of Mrs. Bell, was the honored.

Misses Julia Johnston, Catherine Rogers and Blecka Cornelius are guests of Miss Kathryn Hann at her home in Hickory.

Mrs. R. W. Freeze is spending the week at Montreat.

Members of a week-end house party at the home of Miss Sarah Boyd were Mesdames H. L. Lonon, of Marlon, Katherine Carr, of Asheville, Hattie May Morrissey, of Goldsboro, Mesdames A. G. Floyd, of Fairmont, Karl Thies and Jimmie Penny, of Charlotte, and Lathan Mills, of this city. Misses Carr and Morrissey remained over for the week. Several social affairs have been given in their honor, one of these being a dance by Miss Annie Lardner Moore at her home on South Charlotte street Saturday night.

Miss Pauline Edmonson gave a party Friday night in honor of her house guest, Miss Lutelle Torrence, of Charlotte.

Miss Lois Wilkinson, of Hillsboro, who has been the guest of Miss Catherine Deaton, has returned to her home.

The junior class of 1918 of the Mooreville high school held a reunion on Thursday night at the home of Miss Grace Kipka on West Center avenue. The class is composed of the following young people, all of whom were present: Miss Ruth Lutz, president; Miss Edith Hudson, vice president; Miss Grace Evans, secretary; Mesdames Madge Deaton, M. C. Brown, Queen Brantley, Dena Cashion, Ruth Deaton, Grace Kipka, Addie Mae Brantley, Mrs. Rena Westmoreland Alexander and Mesdames Heath Kennett, Fred Smith, James Young, Russell Cornelius, James Brantley, David Lovrance and Young White. Musical selections and reminiscences of the past three years provided a delightful program, after which punch, ice cream and cake were served.

REMEMBER "SCRAP IRON"
On Same Program
A HAPPY, SNAPPY COMEDY

Regular Prices 30c-15c

THE BROADWAY
A Charlotte Institution

Shows Start 11, 1, 3, 5, 7, 9

WINSTON-SALEM

WINSTON-SALEM, Aug. 20.—Of notable interest to a large number of friends throughout the state will be the splendid party given this week. The bride-elect has resided in this city for a number of years during the pastorate of her father at the First Presbyterian church and for the past two years has been a member of the commercial faculty of the city high school.

"Reverend and Mrs. David Clay Lilly request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Grace Guernant, to Mr. James Kennedy Foster, on Tuesday afternoon, the twenty-third of August, at half past five o'clock, First Presbyterian church, Lexington, Kentucky."

Miss Annie May Cantwell entertained at an informal dance on Tuesday evening in honor of her guests, Misses Mary Stierley of Statesville; Miss Frances Parley, of Salisbury; and Miss Mary Charles Pope, of Greenville. S. C. Dancing was enjoyed for several hours, after which an ice course was served.

Much interest is felt here in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Nancy Lee Patterson, of Concord, and George Raymond Edwards, of Rocky Mount, which was made recently. The marriage, which will take place in October, will be attended by a number of sixty people. Miss Patterson has visited here a number of times and is greatly beloved in the community, both for her personal charm and her rare musical attainments. She is a member of the college and a musician of marked ability.

Winston-Salem society circles are very loth to give up David H. Blair, one of its beloved members, who leaves next week for his new home in Washington, D. C. where she joins Mr. Blair, who began his career in the United States commission of internal revenue several weeks ago. Many social events have been given this week in honor of Mr. Blair. One of the most delightful of these was the lovely bridge party given by Mrs. J. M. Barber on Friday afternoon. The home was elaborately decorated with a wealth of golden glow, arranged in floral baskets and vases. After the cards were laid aside an elegantly appointed collation was served, followed by an ice course. The table prizes, dainty handkerchiefs and small corsages of organza flowers, were won by Mrs. Clement Manly, Mrs. J. L. Ludlow, Mrs. Charles Shelton and Mrs. Thomas Barber. Mrs. J. M. Barber presented an exquisite piece of Madeira embroidery.

Miss Margaretta Moore entertained at a lovely bridge party on Friday morning in compliment to Miss Bess Jefferys, of Chase City, Va., and Miss Jones, of Winton. The bridge was played at six tables, after which the cards were laid aside and a prettily appointed double course luncheon was served. The high score prize, consisting of a handsome set of cards, was won by Mrs. A. Dodge Glenn. To Miss Jefferys the hostess presented a quilt pen, while to the two other honorees, popular brides of the season, silver sandwich cutters were given.

The members of the Whist club enjoyed an unusually delightful meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. N. Dalton. Following a series of games the cards were laid aside and a delicious salad was served. A delightful event of Wednesday afternoon was the bridge party given by Mrs. Charles Fogle in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Walter Morrison, of Tucson, Arizona. At the home of Mrs. Fogle the games and salad course was served.

The following announcements received this week are of more than usual interest in this city where the bride has made her home for the past four years, serving as a member of the faculty of the city schools:

"Mrs. John Robert Billings announces the marriage of his daughter, Coline Monroe Austin, to Oscar Julius Thies, Jr., on Wednesday, August 18, at the residence of the bride's parents, Charlotte, North Carolina."

Mrs. E. W. O'Hanlon entertained at a delightful swimming party on Tuesday afternoon in compliment to her guests, Mrs. E. C. O'Hanlon, Jr., of Fayetteville. At the close of the swim, which took place at the Forsyth Country club, the merry company repaired to the club house, where an enjoyable course of refreshments was served. O'Hanlon was assisted in receiving her little guests and in their entertainment by Mrs. Wilson Gray, Mrs. Charles Kent and Mrs. Thomas Maslin.

Mrs. Belle Roby, owner of Minne-ha-ha camp has had a wonderfully fine season and many a maiden will return home with a superabundance of health and happiness gained under the supervision of the national camps director, Mrs. Roby.

The Burlington church Sunday school, numbering 32, enjoyed a camping out party and delicious supper at Esmeralda inn. The report was the treat of W. H. May, an elder of the church, says showing his appreciation of the fact that since the organization, one year ago, with four members, every one has attended Sunday school regularly and remained for church service.

L. G. Turner was in charge and all reported the thought of good time.

S. W. Steele, of Rockingham, is stopping at Mountain View Inn and many are the tales he can relate about his camping days in 1874 on Bald mountain, Chimney Rock and Bat Cave. A propos of the subject, Mr. Steele told an interesting occurrence last week at a missionary meeting in Lenoir. A member from Illinois inquired where the Steele homestead was situated. On locating Mr. Steele she told him that in her possession was a hunting horn inscribed Robert L. Steele, 1841, which was stolen from Mr. Steele's father during the occupancy of his home by Yankee troops and she wished after these many years to return to the old home, to her. So the old horn which has called the hounds to heel numerous times in Merrie England, will soon be back in its adopted home in North Carolina.

Guests at Mountain View Inn: C. M. Butler and wife, Charles O. Butler, J. H. Davis and wife, W. H. Lightner and H. Hinchman, Nashville, Tenn.; Prof. R. B. Bivins, Sweetwater, Tenn.; L. Stendal and wife, A. H. Cottingham and wife and children, Luther Merchant, Greenville, S. C.; Misses L. Lanney, H. and L. Thomas, J. T. Beatty, J. O. Thomas, Misses E. R. and A. Covington, E. J. Simpson, J. H. Spratt, J. B. Mills, J. J. Bailey, Fort Mill, S. C.; M. O. Oates, E. D. Bason, Daisy Klutz, Charlotte; G. W. Cooper, Salisbury; E. T. James, Gastonia; J. M. Townley, Miami, Fla.; E. Lewis and wife, Fort-mouth, Va.; J. W. Dixon, Bowling Green, Ky.; Dr. E. Gattis, Nashville, Tenn.

Emeralda inn: W. H. Clarke, Atlanta, Ga.; M. O. Cook, Indianapolis, Ind.; O. Keefe, Savannah, Ga.; Miss Kate Hingsworth, Chicago, Ill.; W. A. Mason, Woodruff, S. C.; Miss Walker, Atlanta, Ga.; J. M. Rankin, Greensboro; Miss Wilmer, Greensboro; and W. H. May and wife, Burlington.

HICKORY NUT GAP
HICKORY NUT GAP, Aug. 20.—Emeralda inn has two horses and a couple of burros available for those devoted to horse back riding along mountain trails and the tourists can delight in "the long brown path before me, leading wherever I choose."

The Misses Merchant and Geenwood, of Asheville, enjoyed with friends a camping party at Chimney Rock.

After witnessing many exhibitions in varying degrees of the "camel walk" and "toddle," it was a pleasure to see a company of young folk mounted on the mounts and riding fashionable dances of long ago. The Virginia reel, to the tunes of "turkey in the straw" and "money musk," with the caller out singing "chasey by your partner, first lady lead to right" was an exhilarating sight.

Carl Freeman, the wood-carver of Bat Cave, is a genius in carving out fine, ornamental and useful articles from rhododendron wood, and the tourists find them very attractive reminders of a happy vacation.

Speed Murphy stopped overnight on his walk back from New York City. Recently he has been at the Lions club, New York City, offered a purse of $1,500 to the person who could walk to Frisco and return in 30 days. Lewis and Murphy started, but the foot-ore Lewis failed on the coast, while Murphy is four days ahead of the time limit. He speaks glowingly of North Carolina hospitality.

Mrs. Jessie Dunlop and L. Wright of Norfolk, Va., returned to their home Saturday after several weeks at Freeman's camp.

Services will be held in Bat Cave, Tenn., at the home of Mrs. S. C. F. following a series of games the cards were laid aside and a delicious salad was served.

A delightful event of Wednesday afternoon was the bridge party given by Mrs. Charles Fogle in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Walter Morrison, of Tucson, Arizona. At the home of Mrs. Fogle the games and salad course was served.

The following announcements received this week are of more than usual interest in this city where the bride has made her home for the past four years, serving as a member of the faculty of the city schools:

"Mrs. John Robert Billings announces the marriage of his daughter, Coline Monroe Austin, to Oscar Julius Thies, Jr., on Wednesday, August 18, at the residence of the bride's parents, Charlotte, North Carolina."

Mrs. E. W. O'Hanlon entertained at a delightful swimming party on Tuesday afternoon in compliment to her guests, Mrs. E. C. O'Hanlon, Jr., of Fayetteville. At the close of the swim, which took place at the Forsyth Country club, the merry company repaired to the club house, where an enjoyable course of refreshments was served. O'Hanlon was assisted in receiving her little guests and in their entertainment by Mrs. Wilson Gray, Mrs. Charles Kent and Mrs. Thomas Maslin.

Mrs. Belle Roby, owner of Minne-ha-ha camp has had a wonderfully fine season and many a maiden will return home with a superabundance of health and happiness gained under the supervision of the national camps director, Mrs. Roby.

The Burlington church Sunday school, numbering 32, enjoyed a camping out party and delicious supper at Esmeralda inn. The report was the treat of W. H. May, an elder of the church, says showing his appreciation of the fact that since the organization, one year ago, with four members, every one has attended Sunday school regularly and remained for church service.

L. G. Turner was in charge and all reported the thought of good time.

S. W. Steele, of Rockingham, is stopping at Mountain View Inn and many are the tales he can relate about his camping days in 1874 on Bald mountain, Chimney Rock and Bat Cave. A propos of the subject, Mr. Steele told an interesting occurrence last week at a missionary meeting in Lenoir. A member from Illinois inquired where the Steele homestead was situated. On locating Mr. Steele she told him that in her possession was a hunting horn inscribed Robert L. Steele, 1841, which was stolen from Mr. Steele's father during the occupancy of his home by Yankee troops and she wished after these many years to return to the old home, to her. So the old horn which has called the hounds to heel numerous times in Merrie England, will soon be back in its adopted home in North Carolina.

Guests at Mountain View Inn: C. M. Butler and wife, Charles O. Butler, J. H. Davis and wife, W. H. Lightner and H. Hinchman, Nashville, Tenn.; Prof. R. B. Bivins, Sweetwater, Tenn.; L. Stendal and wife, A. H. Cottingham and wife and children, Luther Merchant, Greenville, S. C.; Misses L. Lanney, H. and L. Thomas, J. T. Beatty, J. O. Thomas, Misses E. R. and A. Covington, E. J. Simpson, J. H. Spratt, J. B. Mills, J. J. Bailey, Fort Mill, S. C.; M. O. Oates, E. D. Bason, Daisy Klutz, Charlotte; G. W. Cooper, Salisbury; E. T. James, Gastonia; J. M. Townley, Miami, Fla.; E. Lewis and wife, Fort-mouth, Va.; J. W. Dixon, Bowling Green, Ky.; Dr. E. Gattis, Nashville, Tenn.

WINSTON-SALEM

WINSTON-SALEM, Aug. 20.—Of notable interest to a large number of friends throughout the state will be the splendid party given this week. The bride-elect has resided in this city for a number of years during the pastorate of her father at the First Presbyterian church and for the past two years has been a member of the commercial faculty of the city high school.

"Reverend and Mrs. David Clay Lilly request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Grace Guernant, to Mr. James Kennedy Foster, on Tuesday afternoon, the twenty-third of August, at half past five o'clock, First Presbyterian church, Lexington, Kentucky."

Miss Annie May Cantwell entertained at an informal dance on Tuesday evening in honor of her guests, Misses Mary Stierley of Statesville; Miss Frances Parley, of Salisbury; and Miss Mary Charles Pope, of Greenville. S. C. Dancing was enjoyed for several hours, after which an ice course was served.

Much interest is felt here in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Nancy Lee Patterson, of Concord, and George Raymond Edwards, of Rocky Mount, which was made recently. The marriage, which will take place in October, will be attended by a number of sixty people. Miss Patterson has visited here a number of times and is greatly beloved in the community, both for her personal charm and her rare musical attainments. She is a member of the college and a musician of marked ability.

Winston-Salem society circles are very loth to give up David H. Blair, one of its beloved members, who leaves next week for his new home in Washington, D. C. where she joins Mr. Blair, who began his career in the United States commission of internal revenue several weeks ago. Many social events have been given this week in honor of Mr. Blair. One of the most delightful of these was the lovely bridge party given by Mrs. J. M. Barber on Friday afternoon. The home was elaborately decorated with a wealth of golden glow, arranged in floral baskets and vases. After the cards were laid aside an elegantly appointed collation was served, followed by an ice course. The table prizes, dainty handkerchiefs and small corsages of organza flowers, were won by Mrs. Clement Manly, Mrs. J. L. Ludlow, Mrs. Charles Shelton and Mrs. Thomas Barber. Mrs. J. M. Barber presented an exquisite piece of Madeira embroidery.

Miss Margaretta Moore entertained at a lovely bridge party on Friday morning in compliment to Miss Bess Jefferys, of Chase City, Va., and Miss Jones, of Winton. The bridge was played at six tables, after which the cards were laid aside and a prettily appointed double course luncheon was served. The high score prize, consisting of a handsome set of cards, was won by Mrs. A. Dodge Glenn. To Miss Jefferys the hostess presented a quilt pen, while to the two other honorees, popular brides of the season, silver sandwich cutters were given.

The members of the Whist club enjoyed an unusually delightful meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. N. Dalton. Following a series of games the cards were laid aside and a delicious salad was served. A delightful event of Wednesday afternoon was the bridge party given by Mrs. Charles Fogle in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Walter Morrison, of Tucson, Arizona. At the home of Mrs. Fogle the games and salad course was served.

The following announcements received this week are of more than usual interest in this city where the bride has made her home for the past four years, serving as a member of the faculty of the city schools:

"Mrs. John Robert Billings announces the marriage of his daughter, Coline Monroe Austin, to Oscar Julius Thies, Jr., on Wednesday, August 18, at the residence of the bride's parents, Charlotte, North Carolina."

Mrs. E. W. O'Hanlon entertained at a delightful swimming party on Tuesday afternoon in compliment to her guests, Mrs. E. C. O'Hanlon, Jr., of Fayetteville. At the close of the swim, which took place at the Forsyth Country club, the merry company repaired to the club house, where an enjoyable course of refreshments was served. O'Hanlon was assisted in receiving her little guests and in their entertainment by Mrs. Wilson Gray, Mrs. Charles Kent and Mrs. Thomas Maslin.

Mrs. Belle Roby, owner of Minne-ha-ha camp has had a wonderfully fine season and many a maiden will return home with a superabundance of health and happiness gained under the supervision of the national camps director, Mrs. Roby.

The Burlington church Sunday school, numbering 32, enjoyed a camping out party and delicious supper at Esmeralda inn. The report was the treat of W. H. May, an elder of the church, says showing his appreciation of the fact that since the organization, one year ago, with four members, every one has attended Sunday school regularly and remained for church service.

L. G. Turner was in charge and all reported the thought of good time.

S. W. Steele, of Rockingham, is stopping at Mountain View Inn and many are the tales he can relate about his camping days in 1874 on Bald mountain, Chimney Rock and Bat Cave. A propos of the subject, Mr. Steele told an interesting occurrence last week at a missionary meeting in Lenoir. A member from Illinois inquired where the Steele homestead was situated. On locating Mr. Steele she told him that in her possession was a hunting horn inscribed Robert L. Steele, 1841, which was stolen from Mr. Steele's father during the occupancy of his home by Yankee troops and she wished after these many years to return to the old home, to her. So the old horn which has called the hounds to heel numerous times in Merrie England, will soon be back in its adopted home in North Carolina.

Guests at Mountain View Inn: C. M. Butler and wife, Charles O. Butler, J. H. Davis and wife, W. H. Lightner and H. Hinchman, Nashville, Tenn.; Prof. R. B. Bivins, Sweetwater, Tenn.; L. Stendal and wife, A. H. Cottingham and wife and children, Luther Merchant, Greenville, S. C.; Misses L. Lanney, H. and L. Thomas, J. T. Beatty, J. O. Thomas, Misses E. R. and A. Covington, E. J. Simpson, J. H. Spratt, J. B. Mills, J. J. Bailey, Fort Mill, S. C.; M. O. Oates, E. D. Bason, Daisy Klutz, Charlotte; G. W. Cooper, Salisbury; E. T. James, Gastonia; J. M. Townley, Miami, Fla.; E. Lewis and wife, Fort-mouth, Va.; J. W. Dixon, Bowling Green, Ky.; Dr. E. Gattis, Nashville, Tenn.

Emeralda inn: W. H. Clarke, Atlanta, Ga.; M. O. Cook, Indianapolis, Ind.; O. Keefe, Savannah, Ga.; Miss Kate Hingsworth, Chicago, Ill.; W. A. Mason, Woodruff, S. C.; Miss Walker, Atlanta, Ga.; J. M. Rankin, Greensboro; Miss Wilmer, Greensboro; and W. H. May and wife, Burlington.

HICKORY NUT GAP
HICKORY NUT GAP, Aug. 20.—Emeralda inn has two horses and a couple of burros available for those devoted to horse back riding along mountain trails and the tourists can delight in "the long brown path before me, leading wherever I choose."

The Misses Merchant and Geenwood, of Asheville, enjoyed with friends a camping party at Chimney Rock.

After witnessing many exhibitions in varying degrees of the "camel walk" and "toddle," it was a pleasure to see a company of young folk mounted on the mounts and riding fashionable dances of long ago. The Virginia reel, to the tunes of "turkey in the straw" and "money musk," with the caller out singing "chasey by your partner, first lady lead to right" was an exhilarating sight.

Carl Freeman, the wood-carver of Bat Cave, is a genius in carving out fine, ornamental and useful articles from rhododendron wood, and the tourists find them very attractive reminders of a happy vacation.

Speed Murphy stopped overnight on his walk back from New York City. Recently he has been at the Lions club, New York City, offered a purse of $1,500 to the person who could walk to Frisco and return in 30 days. Lewis and Murphy started, but the foot-ore Lewis failed on the coast, while Murphy is four days ahead of the time limit. He speaks glowingly of North Carolina hospitality.

Mrs. Jessie Dunlop and L. Wright of Norfolk, Va., returned to their home Saturday after several weeks at Freeman's camp.

Services will be held in Bat Cave, Tenn., at the home of Mrs. S. C. F. following a series of games the cards were laid aside and a delicious salad was served.

A delightful event of Wednesday afternoon was the bridge party given by Mrs. Charles Fogle in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Walter Morrison, of Tucson, Arizona. At the home of Mrs. Fogle the games and salad course was served.

The following announcements received this week are of more than usual interest in this city where the bride has made her home for the past four years, serving as a member of the faculty of the city schools:

"Mrs. John Robert Billings announces the marriage of his daughter, Coline Monroe Austin, to Oscar Julius Thies, Jr., on Wednesday, August 18, at the residence of the bride's parents, Charlotte, North Carolina."

Mrs. E. W. O'Hanlon entertained at a delightful swimming party on Tuesday afternoon in compliment to her guests, Mrs. E. C. O'Hanlon, Jr., of Fayetteville. At the close of the swim, which took place at the Forsyth Country club, the merry company repaired to the club house, where an enjoyable course of refreshments was served. O'Hanlon was assisted in receiving her little guests and in their entertainment by Mrs. Wilson Gray, Mrs. Charles Kent and Mrs. Thomas Maslin.

Mrs. Belle Roby, owner of Minne-ha-ha camp has had a wonderfully fine season and many a maiden will return home with a superabundance of health and happiness gained under the supervision of the national camps director, Mrs. Roby.

The Burlington church Sunday school, numbering 32, enjoyed a camping out party and delicious supper at Esmeralda inn. The report was the treat of W. H. May, an elder of the church, says showing his appreciation of the fact that since the organization, one year ago, with four members, every one has attended Sunday school regularly and remained for church service.

L. G. Turner was in charge and all reported the thought of good time.

S. W. Steele, of Rockingham, is stopping at Mountain View Inn and many are the tales he can relate about his camping days in 1874 on Bald mountain, Chimney Rock and Bat Cave. A propos of the subject, Mr. Steele told an interesting occurrence last week at a missionary meeting in Lenoir. A member from Illinois inquired where the Steele homestead was situated. On locating Mr. Steele she told him that in her possession was a hunting horn inscribed Robert L. Steele, 1841, which was stolen from Mr. Steele's father during the occupancy of his home by Yankee troops and she wished after these many years to return to the old home, to her. So the old horn which has called the hounds to heel numerous times in Merrie England, will soon be back in its adopted home in North Carolina.

Guests at Mountain View Inn: C. M. Butler and wife, Charles O. Butler, J. H. Davis and wife, W. H. Lightner and H. Hinchman, Nashville, Tenn.; Prof. R. B. Bivins, Sweetwater, Tenn.; L. Stendal and wife, A. H. Cottingham and wife and children, Luther Merchant, Greenville, S. C.; Misses L. Lanney, H. and L. Thomas, J. T. Beatty, J. O. Thomas, Misses E. R. and A. Covington, E. J. Simpson, J. H. Spratt, J. B. Mills, J. J. Bailey, Fort Mill, S. C.; M. O. Oates, E. D. Bason, Daisy Klutz, Charlotte; G. W. Cooper, Salisbury; E. T. James, Gastonia; J. M. Townley, Miami, Fla.; E. Lewis and wife, Fort-mouth, Va.; J. W. Dixon, Bowling Green, Ky.; Dr. E. Gattis, Nashville, Tenn.

WINSTON-SALEM

WINSTON-SALEM, Aug. 20.—Of notable interest to a large number of friends throughout the state will be the splendid party given this week. The bride-elect has resided in this city for a number of years during the pastorate of her father at the First Presbyterian church and for the past two years has been a member of the commercial faculty of the city high school.

"Reverend and Mrs. David Clay Lilly request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Grace Guernant, to Mr. James Kennedy Foster, on Tuesday afternoon, the twenty-third of August, at half past five o'clock, First Presbyterian church, Lexington, Kentucky."

Miss Annie May Cantwell entertained at an informal dance on Tuesday evening in honor of her guests, Misses Mary Stierley of Statesville; Miss Frances Parley, of Salisbury; and Miss Mary Charles Pope, of Greenville. S. C. Dancing was enjoyed for several hours, after which an ice course was served.

Much interest is felt here in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Nancy Lee Patterson, of Concord, and George Raymond Edwards, of Rocky Mount, which was made recently. The marriage, which will take place in October, will be attended by a number of sixty people. Miss Patterson has visited here a number of times and is greatly beloved in the community, both for her personal charm and her rare musical attainments. She is a member of the college and a musician of marked ability.

Winston-Salem society circles are very loth to give up David H. Blair, one of its beloved members, who leaves next week for his new home in Washington, D. C. where she joins Mr. Blair, who began his career in the United States commission of internal revenue several weeks ago. Many social events have been given this week in honor of Mr. Blair. One of the most delightful of these was the lovely bridge party given by Mrs. J. M. Barber on Friday afternoon. The home was elaborately decorated with a wealth of golden glow, arranged in floral baskets and vases. After the cards were laid aside an elegantly appointed collation was served, followed by an ice course. The table prizes, dainty handkerchiefs and small corsages of organza flowers, were won by Mrs. Clement Manly, Mrs. J. L. Ludlow, Mrs. Charles Shelton and Mrs. Thomas Barber. Mrs. J. M. Barber presented an exquisite piece of Madeira embroidery.

Miss Margaretta Moore entertained at a lovely bridge party on Friday morning in compliment to Miss Bess Jefferys, of Chase City, Va., and Miss Jones, of Winton. The bridge was played at six tables, after which the cards were laid aside and a prettily appointed double course luncheon was served. The high score prize, consisting of a handsome set of cards, was won by Mrs. A. Dodge Glenn. To Miss Jefferys the hostess presented a quilt pen, while to the two other honorees, popular brides of the season, silver sandwich cutters were given.

The members of the Whist club enjoyed an unusually delightful meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. N. Dalton. Following a series of games the cards were laid aside and a delicious salad was served. A delightful event of Wednesday afternoon was the bridge party given by Mrs. Charles Fogle in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Walter Morrison, of Tucson, Arizona. At the home of Mrs. Fogle the games and salad course was served.

The following announcements received this week are of more than usual interest in this city where the bride has made her home for the past four years, serving as a member of the faculty of the city schools:

"Mrs. John Robert Billings announces the marriage of his daughter, Coline Monroe Austin, to Oscar Julius Thies, Jr., on Wednesday, August 18, at the residence of the bride's parents, Charlotte, North Carolina."

Mrs. E. W. O'Hanlon entertained at a delightful swimming party on Tuesday afternoon in compliment to her guests, Mrs. E. C. O'Hanlon, Jr., of Fayetteville. At the close of the swim, which took place at the Forsyth Country club, the merry company repaired to the club house, where an enjoyable course of refreshments was served. O'Hanlon was assisted in receiving her little guests and in their entertainment by Mrs. Wilson Gray, Mrs. Charles Kent and Mrs. Thomas Maslin.

Mrs. Belle Roby, owner of Minne-ha-ha camp has had a wonderfully fine season and many a maiden will return home with a superabundance of health and happiness gained under the supervision of the national camps director, Mrs. Roby.

The Burlington church Sunday school, numbering 32, enjoyed a camping out party and delicious supper at Esmeralda inn. The report was the treat of W. H. May, an elder of the church, says showing his appreciation of the fact that since the organization, one year ago, with four members, every one has attended Sunday school regularly and remained for church service.

L. G. Turner was in charge and all reported the thought of good time.

S. W. Steele, of Rockingham, is stopping at Mountain View Inn and many are the tales he can relate about his camping days in 1874 on Bald mountain, Chimney Rock and Bat Cave. A propos of the subject, Mr. Steele told an interesting occurrence last week at a missionary meeting in Lenoir. A member from Illinois inquired where the Steele homestead was situated. On locating Mr. Steele she told him that in her possession was a hunting horn inscribed Robert L. Steele, 1841, which was stolen from Mr. Steele's father during the occupancy of his home by Yankee troops and she wished after these many years to return to the old home, to her. So the old horn which has called the hounds to heel numerous times in Merrie England, will soon be back in its adopted home in North Carolina.

Guests at Mountain View Inn: C. M. Butler and wife, Charles O. Butler, J. H. Davis and wife, W. H. Lightner and H. Hinchman,