

SOCIETY

MRS. MARGARET KELLY ABERNETHY, Editor. Office Phone No. 154

Mrs. Adair Foster

Well known member of Atlanta society who has just completed correspondence course of Bridge evolved from years of experience as one of the leading teachers and players of the south.

Gave Initial Dance. The members of the Ace of Clubs gave their initial dance of the year at the Charlotte Country Club...

The decorations of the ballroom were especially attractive and were suggestive of the approaching Halloween season. Yellow and black paper ribbons were festooned from one end of the room to the other...

The Original Pennsylvania serenaders furnished fine and inspiring music. During the first part of the evening the German was danced.

At midnight the grand march took place and the lights were extinguished save the artificial moon suspended over the mantel. During the march the ladies received as souvenirs miniature flash lights...

Punch, sandwiches and salted nuts were served from a long table in the reading room. A mass of white chrysantheums formed the center piece of the table.

Mr. Floyd M. Simmons, is president of the club and Mr. Thomas Henderson is secretary and treasurer, and to them much of the success of the dance was due.

Members of the club are: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Taliaferro, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton C. Jones, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Lambeth, Mr. and Mrs. Esley O. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. David Clark, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Withers, Mr. and Mrs. Gaston G. Gallaway, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wade, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bethea, Mr. and Mrs. Connor Sherrill, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Quarles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lassiter, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Goyer, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Eberhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lane, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cooter, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Nalle, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. C. Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. McAdams, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Heath, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Casler, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George W. Graham, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graham Fitzsimons, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Hardie, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pease, Dr. and Mrs. W. Myers Hunter.

Stuart Gilchrist, John Durham, J. A. Harrison, Jr., Guests present were Mrs. David Burgevin, of New York, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. Ada Morrison Nutall, of Raleigh, guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Klugh, and Messrs. Latta Law and Tom Crawford, of Rock Hill, S. C., guests of Mr. and Mrs. Quarles, Miss Helen Brack, of San Francisco, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fitzsimons, and Mrs. Margaret Kelly Abernethy.

Burwell-Murphy Wedding Plans. A wedding of state-wide interest to society will be that of Miss Matilda Edmond Burwell and Dr. John Gerald Murphy, the latter of Wilmington, which will take place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at H. Powell Presbyterian church. Rev. Richard S. Burwell, father of the bride-elect, and pastor of the church, will officiate.

Mr. Keller, of Charlotte, will render the wedding music. Prior to the ceremony Miss Emily Murphy, of Georgetown, S. C., will sing. Mrs. John Lawrence Chisolm, of Birmingham, a cousin of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Fred Ramseur, of Lincolnton, will be dames of honor. Miss Mary Graham, of Charlotte, will be maid of honor.

Dr. Murphy will be accompanied by Dr. David B. Sloan, of Wilmington, who will serve as best man. The groomsmen and ushers will be Dr. Henry L. Sloan, Charlotte, Mr. Wright Murphy of Greensboro, Mr. Paul P. Murphy, of Lowell, Mr. R. C. Carson, of Whiteville, Mr. Marion Farrow, of Hopewell, and Dr. John E. Wright, of Raleigh. Almost all the out-of-town guests will be Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Carson, of Whiteville, Mrs. John L. Chisolm of Birmingham, Miss Eliza Murphy of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Wright Murphy of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Murphy of Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Murphy of Ivanhoe, Raleigh, and Dr. and Mrs. John B. Wright of Raleigh.

Tuesday evening after the rehearsal Mr. and Mrs. Burwell will entertain the bridal party and a few friends at their home in Hope-Well.

Willis Warren Newell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Newell announce the birth of a son, Willis Warren, Jr., at St. Peter's hospital. Mrs. Newell was formerly Miss Kate Banton.

Benefit Concert Realizes $200. The American War Mothers held their first meeting of the fall under the new leader, Mrs. E. P. Tingley, at the home of Mrs. C. A. Black on West Third street.

The meeting was one of the largest ever held and showed the unflagging interest of the mothers for the sick and dying ex-service men at Oteen.

Six new members were added to the already large list. Halloween favors and confections were sent to Miss Clement, the house mother at Oteen for the boys on I-11.

About $200 was realized from the concert given at the chamber of commerce on Tuesday evening. Fuel and clothing were sent to a family who were in distress.

The body of a soldier will be removed from the strangers' lot in Elmwood and a memorial service will be held at the soldiers' plot on armistice day at 11 o'clock. This hour being selected as a national memorial hour for the American War Mothers.

Miss Propet to Wed Mr. Harper. Mr. and Mrs. James Pickney Propet announce the engagement of their daughter, Marian, to Mr. Henry Green Harper, Jr., the wedding to take place November the 23d, at St. John's Baptist church.

Miss Propet is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pickney Propet. She was graduated from the Charlotte high school and finished her education at Brenau and Salem college, specializing in piano. She is a pretty blonde, with an attractive personality and is admired by a host of friends.

Mr. Harper is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Green Harper, the former secretary and treasurer of John M. Scott and company. He is inside sales manager of the Good-year Tire and Rubber company, supreme treasurer of the P. Kappa Phi fraternity, member of the Civitan and Myers Park club. Mr. Harper graduated from the University of North Carolina in 1917, also receiving a certificate in the department of economics. After receiving his diploma he entered the first officers' training camps at Fort Oglethorpe, and was later stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga. Mr. Harper is a young man of sterling qualities and character and is held in high esteem by hundreds of friends throughout the state.

Miss Mellon Gives Complimentary Bridge. Miss Sara Mellon entertained charmingly at a bridge luncheon yesterday at the home of her sister, Mrs. I. C. Love, Myers Park, commencing Miss Helen Lewis, whose marriage to Mr. Allan White of Asheville, S. C., Thursday, is to be a notable social event, and Miss Helen Brack, of San Francisco, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graham Fitzsimons, the latter her sister.

Miss Mellon chose a color scheme of yellow and white, effectively carried out florally in chrysantheums, and at the edibly in loaves, confections and cake. An elaborate luncheon was beautifully served.

Miss Julia Baxter Scott won the high score prize. Miss Brock was presented with the guest of honor prize.

First Cotillon Dance of Season. The event of magnitude tomorrow night, socially, is the Halloween dance which the Charlotte Cotillon club will give at the Myers Park club, dancing to begin at 9:30. The original Pennsylvania serenaders to furnish music.

Mr. E. B. Shelby is president of the club, and he and his committee have put forth every effort to make the dance, which inaugurates the season, the most beautiful the club has yet held.

The ballroom will be decorated in Halloween colors, and concerts, and will present a charming effect.

SMALLPOX IS RAGING IN COUNTY OF STOKES. WINSTON-SALEM, Oct. 28.—A message received here this afternoon from Germantown states that there are many cases of smallpox in Stokes county and that if it continues to spread schools in some sections will have to suspend. A small child died from the disease near Germantown Thursday night.

ROCKY MOUNT WAREHOUSE FIRE CONSUMES COTTON. ROCKY MOUNT, Oct. 28.—One hundred and fifty-six bales of cotton together with a storage house and a large receiving platform near the Atlantic coast line freight depot were destroyed by fire here today. The loss, partially covered by insurance, was estimated at $20,000.

YOU HAVE A BEAUTIFUL FACE. But oh! that superfluous hair, and that ugly mole! You wouldn't neglect your teeth because it costs money to have them fixed. Then why permit your beauty to be marred with these hereditary facial blemishes, which are more unsightly than bad teeth. All facial blemishes permanently and painlessly removed by the electric method, guaranteed. No scars. Mrs. Taylor.

MARINELLO BEAUTY SHOP. Phone 8551 12 1-2 N. Tryon St.

IREDELL TO SEND DOGS TO FOX HUNTERS' RACES. Special to The Observer. STATESVILLE, Oct. 28.—It is expected that 23 dogs from Iredell county will be on display at the races to be held at Fayetteville by the North Carolina Fox Hunters' association to be held from October 30 to November 4. Attorney W. A. Bristol and family left this morning for Fayetteville to attend the meeting. Mr. Bristol being president of the organization. The dogs to be taken are among those that have been prize-winners in the past.

GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants.

ATLANTIC OSTEOPATHS HOLD FINAL SESSIONS. GREENSBORO, Oct. 28.—Technical addresses by men of prominence in their work featured the final sessions of the Middle Atlantic States Osteopathic association here today. Ira W. Drew, of Philadelphia, and Dr. C. D. Swope, of Washington, D. C., delivered addresses.

A local Sunday school committee as constituted by the general conference, includes: the pastor, director of religious work superintendent, department superintendents, general officers and three others. It is charged with formulating the policies of the local Sunday school. At the meeting last night, teachers and officers were elected, following their nomination by the superintendent and departmental heads and the approval of the pastor.

The committee decided to have a course of study pertaining to the general Sunday school given at its workers' council meeting each month.

The offerings of the Sunday school will be used for the following purposes: First Sunday, general church expenses; second and third Sundays, general support of the Sunday school, provision being made for departments and classes; fourth Sunday, missions; and on the fifth Sunday, the collection will be given to the children's home at Winston-Salem. The superintendent of the home department was authorized to select her assistants