A TURKISH BETROTHAL .- An English lady, who was present, sends an account of the betrothed of Khalil Pasha with the Princes Nazel, daughter of Mustapha Fazil, which took place at Constantinople on October 24th. She says that the bride was dressed with exquisite taste in a blue satin robe, covered with English point lace. On her neck was a diamond necklace of great value, and on her head a diadem of the same precious stones. Her superb mass of light hair and her laughing black eyes made her one of the lovliest brides imaginable. Attendants spread on the floor rich Cashmere shawls, and the Princess appeared expenses of that institution. and advanced to her mother, whose hands she kissed.
