Special Notice to the Public.

As a great many changes have taken place this year, respectfully beg to inform the citizens of Charlotte and the public in general that no change has taken place at my establishment. I am still at my old stand, No. 24 Tryon Street, David Parks' building, with a large and well selected stock of the finest and latest styles of custom-made clothing for Men, Youths and Boys wear, also on hand a fine stock of Gent's Furnishing Goods, Shirts, or Ballou's make, the best fitting shirt in the world. The very latest styles of Hats, Scarfs, Bows and Ties, Umbrellas, &c., and I will sell them at prices to defy competition.

I expect to leave for New York City in a short time to lay in my stock of Clothing and Piece Goods, for my Tailoring Establishment and will also bring with me a ready by Spring to cut and make to order at my own establishment, and under my own supervision and at lower prices than the same quality of goods can be made up in this or any other city, this side of Balty more.

Being thankful to the citizens of Charlotte and the public in general for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon me, I most respectfully ask a continuance of the same. Respectfully, E. SHIRER, Home and Democrat copy.

Prospectus for 1873.—Sixth Year.

THE ALDINE,

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK STORES.

THE ALDINE, which is issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or fitfully interesting characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure light and graceful literature; a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year.

While other publications of the same kind are to be had, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possession of a complete volume cannot be considered as a waste of time, and will support a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America.

In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest; avoiding such as have become familiar, through photographs, or copies of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches, appropriate to the four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular features of a copiously illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued.

To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world, at a cost so trifling, compared with subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country; but, as the usefulness and attraction of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "insurance double sure," by the following unparalleled offer:

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873: Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures, entitled "The Village Belle," and "Crossing the Moor," are 14x20 inches—each printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $50 per pair, in the art Stores. As it is the determination of its conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be found correspondingly ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, certifying that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of pictures of this grade, free to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of Art and publishing, and will be a most generous and generous offer.

For illustrations of these chromos, see November issue of THE ALDINE.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT will continue under the care of Mr. RICHARD HENRY STODDARD, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, and will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS. $5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rates; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac-simile signature of JAMES BURTON & Co.

AGENTS WANTED. Persons wishing to act as agents for THE ALDINE, will receive all the facilities and assistance possible. Agents for the year 1873, will receive a copy of THE ALDINE, and a pair of the premium chromos, and a certificate of appointment, and a list of the names of the subscribers to THE ALDINE for the year 1872.
