Good.-In a few days a good, substantial platform will be built at the point where passengers on the A., T. & O. R. R. take the train. The platform will be 140 feet in length, with steps the entire length. convenience of passengers on the road.

Forcible Trespass.- A white man was arrested and taken before A. H. Martin. Esq., Justice of the Peace, yesterday evening, on the charge of forcible trespass. After investigating the case, Justice Martin imposed a fine of ten dollars upon the man and sent him to jail for the night.

Provoking.-Without seeming to have any good reason for so doing, a horse attached to a wagon calmly stopped and laid down in the mud on Trade street yesterday afternoon, and after breaking the harness all to pieces, to the infinite disgust of the colored driver, the horse got up with as much nonchalence as he had lain down.

Personal -A number of prominent railroad officials were in the city yesterday: Gen. James Roosevelt, President Southern Security Co.; Gen. H. Haupt, General Manager; Col. W. O. S'atesville Intelligencer.-We are glad to notice the improvement in the typo graphical appearance of this excellent journal. It has been received at this office dressed in a new suit, and looking "bright as a new pin." We are glad to see it showing such substantial evidences of prosperity. No paper in the State better deserves the encouragement of the public. Accept our congratulations, friend Jones.

Another Run-off.- Yesterday morning. while the mail train on the C., C. & A. R. R. was coming north, one of the coacles ran off at Chester. The coach was being shifted at the time, and the trucks getting Cortes Tuesday. out of line, caused the mishap. No one was in the coach at the time, and no harm resulted, more than a detention of nearly two hours, which brought the train into Charlotte behind time.

New Post Office.-A new post office will soon be opened in this county, eight miles from Charlotte, on the W., C. & R. benefit of W. Stokes Norman, the patriarch, and his friends. A Mr. Cathey has been appointed post-master.

The Result of Advertising - About two weeks ago Mr. Nelson Russell lost a valuable horse. He immediately had a number of posters printed at the OBSERVER Office, which were sent off in all directions by the earliest trains. The next day after the posters were sent, Mr. Russell received notification that the horse had been re-
