Prospectus for 1873.—Sixth Year.

THE ALDINE. An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK STORES.

THE ALDINE, which is issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature ; and a 5.50 p. m. collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill in black and white. Al-11.05 p. m. though each succeeding number affords a Standard Time ten minutes slower than and beauty of THE ALDINE will be Washington City time, and six minutes most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year.

While other publications may claim supe Sundays excepted. Both trains make close | rior cheapness, as compared with rivals of connection to all points North, South and a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique Vest.

Through tickets sold and baggage checkand original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition -alone and unapproached-absolutely JAMES ANDERSON, Gen. Supt. | without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost : and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last Fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its proportions and representative chareter, the edition more than doubled during the past year; proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develope and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America.
In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest; avoiding such as have become familiar, through photographs, or copies of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches, appropriate to the four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July and October, would be alone worth the price of a

To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world, at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country; but, as the usefulness and attraction of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "assurance double sure," by the fol-lowing unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures, entitled "The Village Belle," and "Crossing the Moor," are 14x20 inches—are printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. ture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair, in the art Stores. As it is the determination of its conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition Passenger train leaving Raleigh at 7.45 in every department, the chromos will be p. m., connects at Greensboro' with No thern bound train; making the quickest time to all Northern cities.
