

News of the Day.

President Thiers is sick.
February 22nd, being a legal holiday, all the departments at Washington closed.

THE RIVER AND HARBOR APPROPRIATION.

The River and Harbor appropriation bill gives the Cape Fear River below Wilmington, $100,000; and the Roanoke River, below Weldon, $10,000. The bill came up yesterday in regular order and it is thought will certainly pass.

THE SHOW ON SATURDAY.

The most serious part of the disturbance last Saturday arose from resistance to the authority of the city Police. Mr. S. G. Orr, and his associates who resisted the police, were arrested; and on yesterday morning were brought up for trial in the Mayor's court.

His Honor, Mayor Young, being absent from the city, of course could not appear; and Alderman S. P. Smith, whom we are informed is acting Mayor in the absence of his Honor, did not appear; for what reason we are not aware. Owing to the peculiar circumstances of this case it was unfortunate that no Mayor or Acting Mayor could be had to try the violators of the law after they were brought into court.

THE NEWS OF WASHINGTON.

The anniversary of George Washington's birthday was generally observed in the United States Friday. The event is full of significance just at this juncture of affairs in the history of the nation. It naturally turns the thoughts of people back to Washington's time, and suggests a comparison between the men who controlled the country in the early days of the Republic and the choice spirits who occupy the seats of power in this degenerate age.

deeds bore testimony to the spring of the "sweet Psalmist of Israel," that God made man but "a little lower than the angels."
Now behold the "capital of the nation," the seat of the pool of vice and corruption, Rogues, hypocrites and Godless knaves, of public exterior and smiling countenances, swarms in every department of the government and honor and honesty are becoming scarce in the city which bears the name of George Washington.

The highest office in the gift of the people is occupied by a man who is a pigmy in intellectual development and whose moral nature is of a nature that is an honest, law-abiding community, he would not be considered worthy to be justice of the peace, much less Chief Magistrate of the nation.

The next highest office of the government, Vice-President Colfax, has rendered himself forever infamous, by selling himself, body and soul to a corruptionist, and then committing perjury in the rain attempt to conceal his guilt. He has played the degrading role of sneak-thief on a public stage which has attracted the eye of the whole world.

And then there are a dozen or more Senators and Representatives, the leading lights of the Republican party, who are moved to be thieves, corruptionists, bribe-takers, rogues and hypocrites. Harrison Patterson, Ames, Dawes, Kellogg, Casfield, Scofield, Bingham, Wilson and the whole pack of Credit Mobilier thieves, have disgraced the halls of Congress and done enough to send them every one to the Penitentiary, if justice were administered.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

February 21, 1873.

At 7 1/2 Speaker Robinson called the House to order. Mr. Hodger introduced a bill to protect the youth of the State as regards to inspire liquor.

On motion of Mr. Whitman, the bill was referred to the Committee on Education. On motion of Mr. Brown, of Mecklenburg, the resolution in favor of the portrait of Washington, was taken up.

The bill to amend section 502 Code of Civil Procedure, passed its several readings. House bill to amend section 490 and 497, Code of Civil Procedure, passed its several readings.

House bill to amend section 47, chap. 116, laws of 1868-69, was postponed until to-morrow at 11 a. m. Adjourning.

SENATE

February 22, 1873.

Senate called to order at 10 A. M. Lieut. Governor in the Chair. Messages were received from the House returning several bills concurred in and the school bill with amendments to three of the sections.

Mr. Cowles favored the appointment of a Conference Committee to consider the amendments suggested by the House, and demanded the yeas and nays on the motion of Mr. Cunningham to recede.

The bill to charter the Old North State Life Insurance Co. of Warren, with an amendment by the committee on Finance respecting the rate of interest of said Company to 8 per cent, passed its several readings.

Mr. Welch said that this lecture from the Senator from Beaufort came in very bad grace from that side of the House, that he thought that Gov. Holden was a member of the League and pardoned by the Amnesty bill, as his offences were committed by order of some member or officer of the League, as shown by a prominent Republican.

On motion of Mr. Welch, the resolution, Mason, col. called the yeas and nays, and the yeas were 35 and the nays 23. The vote then returned by the yeas of the resolution to the Judiciary Committee, and pending the discussion on this motion, Mr. Aver called the previous question on the passage of the resolution.

STATE NEWS.

The Cape Fear is still very high. The Tarboro Southern has a Davids College building.

Newbern has a new 1,000 feet for her gas works. The Newbern Sun spells it t-r-o-w-l. He means taking a walk.

Wilmington had the last hop of her season on Friday evening. The Enfield Times pinch for some one to complement it.

The Raleigh papers are decidedly "showy" on legislation. Every fellow is "the efficient and indefatigable" in his praise of the Legislature.

Mr. Howell Gordon, of Granville county, is the youngest of a family of 27 children. His mother lived to see 307 living descendants.

Two mules and a wagon were precipitated over the abutment of the bridge cross Hendrix's Creek, Edgecombe county, last Monday, but were by great exertion saved.

While out turkey hunting near Statesville one day last week, a young man was accidentally shot in the leg by a companion. The Intelligence says he is not much hurt.

Mr. E. H. Stamps, editor of the Tarboro Enquirer, has been nominated by the Conservatives of Edgecombe for the Legislature in place of Madison, negro, who was defeated.

We learn that at the sale at Dr. J. M. Mott of Statesville, and D. Carter, Esq., editor of the Asheville Express, had a fight in Greensboro on last Thursday night.

A woman's Love-Lamanting gave this illustration: "In some spring freshet, amidst widely washed its shores and rent away a bough whereon a bird had built a cottage for her summer home. Down the white and whirling stream drifted the green branch, with its wicker cup of unfledged song, and uttering beside it went the mother bird, unbending the weary feet, as she went, her cries of agony and fear warning the pauses in the storm. How like the love of an old-fashioned mother, who followed the child she had gladdened from her head all over the world, swept away by passion that child might be, it mattered not; though he was bearing away with him the fragrance of the shattered roof-tree, yet that mother was with him, a Ruth through all his life, and a Rachel at his death."

ENGLAND.

London, Feb. 19, 1873.

The estimated expenditure for the army for the financial year 1873-74 forms a total of $66,157,000, which is a reduction of $2,000,000 from the estimate of the previous year.

GOV. CALDWELL AND SAM. CARROW

DETRACTED.—Any one who has read the recent issues of the Era will be convinced that Hearn has not only sold himself out to "Swepson ring," but has also sold the Era. We venture to say if Carrow was at home, that Hearn would get his "ticket of leave."—Newbern Republic and Courier, Radical.
