Most fifty car loads of freight is blocked at the C. C. & A. Railroad Depot. Freight is blocked up at Greenville also. This is caused by the heavy rains South over the Chesapeake & Railroad, just south between Sparta & Richmond.

Police Arrest.—Mr. Thomas Elwood arrested and lodged in the guard house yesterday evening, charged with having handed a pistol to one of the officers when they resisted the police officer before last.—His brother was also arrested for giving him whiskey through the guard house. The moral of arrests would seem to be, never give pistols or whiskey.

Stell's Living Age.—The numbers is journal for the weeks ending March 22nd and March 23rd have the following valuable contents: On the History of the Acquisition of Kentucky by Dr. W. B. Carpenter, Controversy over the Misfortunes of a Gentleman Paul's Unpublished Letters of the press Charlotte Quarterly Review; Felis Foenina, Tinsley's Magazine; Migration of Useful Plants, Magazine; Booksellers, Fall Mall; Sir Troy, An Arrianian Magazine; Instinct Demonstrated; Dublin University Magazine; Poetry. The subscription of this 40 page weekly magazine is for a year, or for any one of the Annual magazines is sent with the Living Age.

and New.—The March number contains its usual wide-variety of entertainment, and lively wit. It has in the introduction an interesting article on "The Man in the Mirror," showing how ministers, lecturers, and the like, are manufactured out of wood, gutta-percha, and metal. Mr. Martineau's "God

"in History" pursues his powerful and suggestive train of reasoning. Mr. Hale's story of "The Red Rover" is followed by his two chief articles, dealing with abundance of marriage and of money. There is a short biography of James New York Postings, a very curious paper on the subject, proverbs, and other odd literature of the "Jamboree Circle," by C. R. Rose. The Examiner introduces give some new suggestion about the proper way to reform the Negro language. The book notices are full of interest than usual. There are useful articles on the "Union Mission," and on "The Flag Sunday," and a number of the "Political Review" which is now very useful to many buyers.

The inhositable winds and chilly fog of spring are welcome visitors to the feeble and sick, and are by no means congenial to the healthy. If there is any germ of disease lurking in the system, they find relief in some cases in from five to ten minutes, especially if dissolved in water.

Day Trade Celebrated Extravagantly.

How to Act.

First it detaches from the bronchial or wind-tubes the mucus or matter which sometimes adheres to them with the tenacity of glue. Secondly, it mitigates the pain and removes the constriction of the bronchial tubes and muscles of the chest, thereby assisting the progress of inflammation and assist the lungs to throw off the irritating matter which accumulates.

Perils of the Season.

CHINESE CORN.

It is a genuine & robust corn, growing from 10 to 12 feet in height.

Year planted the first of May it was sold in the market July 2nd (6 days earlier)

Planting ready to harvest in 76 days.

ITS CLAIMS.

It will produce more corn with the same cultivation and in any variety of soil.

It has a greater depth of kernel than any other variety.

It has a smaller cob than any 32 rowed variety.

It weighs 65 lbs. to the bushel, sealed measure.

It sells better at both ends than any other corn.

It is a solid white transparent corn, with white cob.

It grows more vigorously and yields a whole crop earlier than any other variety.

It makes better meal, being sweeter and richer.

It can be planted on land which when harvested or from which potatoes have been dug fully ripened before frost.

The stalks shoot out within four feet of the ground, consequently the ears are not liable to be prostrated by high winds.

It bears more full grown ears of corn on each stalk than any large field corn.

13th. The tap roots penetrating the subsoil to a very great depth, it will stand severe drought better than any other variety.

It can be successfully grown in any State or country, and is well suited to all kinds of soil.

We give the most satisfactory references that the corn is in every respect what we have introduced this variety of corn.

Having a quantity we are now able to offer any order for those desirous of testing it. Last season we sold 2000 bushels of this corn, and are now offering 1000 bushels to the market.
