

Local Advertiser

JOHN P. CALDWELL, Local Editor.

MILITARY & POLITICAL.

Sunday, March 9, 1873.

Post Office Directory.—We have been kindly furnished by the post master and with the following statement of the arrivals, opening and departure of the mail at this point:

NORTHERN MAIL.

Closes, 11 o'clock A.M. 5.30 P.M.

Delivered, 1 P.M. 6 P.M.

W. C. G. R. K. EAST.—THE WEEKLY.

Mon. Wed. and Fri., closed at 11 A.M.

Tue. Thur. and Sat., arrived.

W. C. G. R. D. D. DAILY.

Closes, 11 o'clock A.M. 6 P.M.

Delivered, 1 P.M. 6 P.M.

SOUTHERN MAIL.—In due time.

Closes, 11 o'clock A.M. 6 P.M.

Delivered, 1 P.M. 6 P.M.

Hous. from 2 P.M. until 5 P.M.

From 2 P.M. until 5 P.M.

Churches To-day.—BAPTIST CHURCH—Services to-day 11 A.M. and 7 P.M. Rev. J. B. Roche, Pastor.

Methodist Church—Services at 11 A.M.

Methodist W. P. M. T. M. Kirkhead, Pastor.

LUTHERAN CHURCH—Services at 11 A.M.

M. Evening Service at 7 P.M. Rev. N. A. Alderson, Pastor.

CATHOLIC CHURCH—Services at 11 A.M. and 7 P.M. Rev. W. S. Hartman, Pastor.

A Plain Statement.

We are authorized and requested by some of the Conservative members of the Joint Committee on Public Printing to make the following statement, inasmuch as erasures in the printed copies have been made in the process, in regard to the votes of the unrepresented.

The Committee on Printing comprised of eight members, five from the House and three from the Senate.

The Senate branch consisted of R. P. Waddington, Chairman, and Ellis, of Catawba, Conservatives, and Long, Reinhartsen, the balance, Unionists, associated with the Leader of Madison, Garrison, Origen, Miller, and Maxwell, Conservatives, and Scott, Republican.

The Committee voted by ballot in Committee-room for Public Printer, as follows:

For the News—Messrs. Waring, Gidley, Gudger and Orange.

For the Standard—Messrs. Ellis and Maxwell.

For the Times—Mr. Long.

For Mr. Hill—Mr. Scott.

Afterwards, said Messrs. Ellis and Maxwell, changed their favor of the new prints, according to a majority of the Committee, and the two Republicans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the new prints, according to a majority of the Committee, and the two Republicans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Repub-

licans, Scott and Lou, afterwards

voted for Mr. Hill, while the other

members of the Committee, 100

00, are authorized further to state

that Messrs. Waring, Gidley, and

Gudger were in favor of the

new prints, according to a majority

of the Committee, and the two Republicans, Scott and Lou, afterwards