

News of the Day.

The peace mission to the Modocs is an entire failure. Spender has been sworn in as Senator from Alabama. George William Curtis is seriously ill of typhoid fever in New York. The government of Spain will be styled Pure Republican. George Brown, a painter, dropped dead on the streets in Norfolk, Saturday. General J. B. Kershaw has assumed editorial control of the Camden Journal. Rev. Dr. Newman, the clergyman who recommended the pious Harlan, has been reappointed Chaplain of the Senate. The Louisiana case came up in caucus Saturday and was by unanimous consent passed over. A destructive fire occurred in Cincinnati on Saturday. The planing mills of Thomas Gilpin & Co., were destroyed. A Federal Collector has seized the property of the New York Central Railroad for non-payment of nearly a half million of taxes. A new boat in process of erection at Jordan Rockbridge Alum Springs, Va., was thrown down Saturday, killing one man and wounding four. Life saving stations, for which one hundred thousand dollars has been appropriated by Congress, will be confined to the coast north of Cape Hatteras. Lewis Wagner murdered two women, who lived on a school near Portsmouth, N. H. He has been arrested in Boston. A squad of U. S. Marines are guarding him to prevent the populace from lynching him. Members of Congress have been excited over the withholding of their extra pay which they voted themselves—some $5,000 in amount. Controller Taylor has, however, finally quitted them by deciding that there is no trenchant objection to paying them. A band of men who were attempting to leave France for Madrid to join the Carlist forces were overtaken Saturday by Government troops and dispersed after a short conflict. Fifteen of the band, including its chieftain, were killed and one hundred taken prisoners. A terrible revolt has broken out in Algeria against the French rule of that colony. A concerted and determined movement has been made by all the native tribes to resist the invaders of the soil, which, it is claimed, will probably be successful. The Rajahs are heading the revolt, and many of those now prominent in the rising last year, and were pardoned for their treason. They are said to be well armed. Much anxiety is felt by the French Government over the situation. Quiet has been restored in New Orleans. The usurpers are sustained by the Federal Government. The empire is peace.

The general government has again assailed the liberty of the Press. In Washington last week the postmaster ordered to suppress the sale of the New York Herald containing a travesty on the President's message. Written by Don Platt, editor of the Washington Capital, and printed in the Herald of the 5th of March. The effect of the order was to insure the sale of the papers at a more rapid rate.

The McEnery government of Louisiana is resisting the Kellogg faction in the most determined manner. A central committee has been formed, with branches in every parish, to resist and delay the collection of taxes. They declare their purpose to withhold all support from the usurpation forced upon the people by the military power of the general government. A novel idea this, to starve out the government.

A FORTHCOMING HISTORY. Mr. Joseph W. Holden, son of the rising luminary in the postal firmament of the United States, proposes to write a "Memoir of the Union cause in North Carolina, together with a review of the Rise of the Republican Party." This author in prospective is fully capable of performing the task with credit to himself.

He proposes to deal impartially with men. If he does this, he must represent the coming postmaster of Raleigh first as a fire-eating scoundrel and then as a blithering Union man. The public will be curious to know how he will reconcile the inconsistency in the political career of his parental ancestor, between 1850 and 1858.

The project is not to be condemned as Mr. Holden seems to fear it will be by the press of the State. It is, however, unfortunate for the future reputation of the would-be historian that he will have such poor material to work upon as the personal history of the "martyrs to the Union cause" in North Carolina.

STATE NEWS.

Suberlin Masten, of Forsythe county, is dead. Charles O'Connor, of New York, gave $50 towards building an Episcopal Church in the town of Wilson.

Mr. J. W. Jones will shortly take charge of the Elliott House, Statesville.

A little colored child was fatally burned at Alex. Tingham's, Lenoir county, a few days ago by his clothing taking fire while warming itself.

Wm. G. Candler, of Buncombe, has been appointed Solicitor for the 11th Judicial District, vice Mark Erwin resigned.

The Cape Fear Club, of Wilmington, gave a complimentary entertainment this evening, on the eve of his departure for Egypt.

Col. Hickman addressed a large audience in Goldsboro on Friday night last, and initiated 40 persons into the Good Templars.

On Wednesday last, M. E. Burns, County Treasurer of New Hanover, gave bond in the sum of $70,000 and entered upon the discharge of the duties of his office.

Joines, of the Statesville Intelligencer, persists in talking about the egg business. Being so knowing on that subject he can probably tell us something else about that smart mill which grinds six bushels to the minute.

It is said that Gen. Dockery declines to accept the Directorship of the Penitentiary Board because it won't pay. The late legislature limited the yearly compensation to $300. Heretofore the Board charged expenses, and Gen. Dockery's were some $60 monthly. So you see it does't pay—Ral. Sentinel.

The editor of the Shelby Banner voted the wet ticket in the recent election on there on wet or dry. He went right back from the election, and set down and wrote this local: "The windy beard of Abolus himself, and all his sycophantic bags of atmosphere, beswept our segment of earth from long ere dawn of a few mornings ago through a bitter twenty-four hours of extreme winteriness and physical and spiritual shiverings. Dew tell!

The Caldwell Board—two out of the five members—have dismissed Captain Everard Hall from the position of Deputy Warden of the Penitentiary, and put W. H. Thompson in his place. D. C. Murray, Steward, has been removed, and M. Grausman, city clerk, put in. It is rumored that Dr. Hill's services have been dispensed with and a Dr. Jones, of Rowan, substituted. Gov. Caldwell appoints the Directors and dictates the appointments.—Ral. Sentinel.

The Raleigh News says: We regret much to learn that A. J. Morrison, Esq., of Lincoln county, has tendered his resignation to the Governor as a member of the House of Representatives. Mr. Morrison was an active and useful member of that body, and his constituents will find it hard to fill his place with a more faithful representative. Mr. Morrison is a young man of intellect and culture, and a lawyer of great promise. He has our best wishes for his success in every way.

The Raleigh Sentinel says: Our fellow townsman, Col. J. M. Heck, has not only subscribed $250 in cash towards putting the new Fair grounds in order, but has presented his young thorough-bred stallion to the Society to be given to the county of individual that contributes most to the interest of the Fair. We are told that the young horse is a "thing of beauty" and a perfect model of a racer, and is valued at $2,000. We will take pleasure in publishing the name of the next most liberal contributor.

No Place like Home—A Voice from the West—Stay in North Carolina. We have just received a letter from Mr. William A. Dills, formerly of Jackson county, dated Waldron, Plateau Missouri, February 21, in which he begs the people of this State to stay at home. But we let Mr. Dills tell his own story about the conditions there.

"I left Jackson county N. C. on the 9th December 1872, and arrived at Pomeroy, Kansas, on the 20th of same month. By this time it had become extremely cold. After resting a few days I came on to this place, but owing to the great cold have not been able to get out at all until a few days since. The snow has been eighteen inches deep, and the thermometer down to 36 degrees below zero. The country is exceedingly sickly, the most prevalent disease being spinal fever, which seems to be incurable. Cases only last a few days after attack. Fifty-eight have been buried in one grave yard in one month. I hope you will publish this for the benefit of the young men in Western North Carolina, or elsewhere, who may think of emigrating to the west this spring. Yours respectfully, W. A. DILLS."

Appended to this is a postscript dated 25th February, which states "I have received news from Kansas City stating that there are two hundred cases of small pox there. Considerable excitement prevails."

And such is the advice of all who leave their home and friends: stay where you are.—N. C. Citizen.

A day or two ago, a young girl went to the cemetery to perform an act of love by decorating her mother's grave with flowers. While she was engaged in this tribute of affection, a beast in human form—a black man—seized her, and in spite of her struggles, cruelly ravished her. The fiend has been arrested, and is now in jail, and we trust that he will receive the punishment his crime deserves.—Charleston Bulletin.

Fraud on a New York Bank.

New York, March 8th.—Allen J. Jones, late clerk of the Southern Bank, Germania, at Savannah, Ga., came to this city with fraudulent drafts for $32,500, which were indorsed by Kissam & Co. He drew the money from the Park Bank, in this city, with which the Southern Bank of Georgia are depositors. The fraud was discovered to-day. Jones has absconded.

The Pope and the Italian Government. Rome, March 8.—The Pope, in replying to an address presented to him to-day said that reconciliation with the Italian Government was impossible. God would punish the invaders of his dominions. As Catholics were ever unshakable in their faith he had the utmost confidence in the ultimate triumph of the Church.

Comparative Cotton Statement. NEW YORK, March 7.—Net receipts at all the United States ports, during the past week, 80,773 bales; same week last year, 49,764 bales. Total receipts to date, 2,757,857 bales; same week last year, 2,376,617. Exports for the week, 53,501 bales; same week last year, 67,518. Total exports to date, 1,601,036; to same date last year, 1,340,321. Stock at all United States ports, 563,637 bales; last year, 571,080. Stock at all interior towns, 10,283; last year 88,368. Stock at Liverpool, 588,000; last year 629,000. Stock of American cotton for Great Britain, 265,000 bales; last year 199,000.

The Virginia Legislature and the Debt of that State.

RICHMOND, March 7.—The General Assembly has passed a bill for the payment of four per cent. interest for the years 1872-73 on consols and on two-thirds of the unfunded bonds. For the remaining two per cent. non interest bearing certificates, payable at the pleasure of the State, are to be given. No special provision is made for matured coupons, but it is calculated that the above amounts can be paid, even if half of said coupons reach the Treasury this year in the way of taxes. The General Assembly also appointed a special Committee of five to investigate the charges of mismanagement against the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association. The charge is unauthorized speculation upon visitors to the tomb of Washington.

A Horrible Accident from an Attempt to Light a Fire with Coal Oil—A Woman Converted into a Pillar of Fire.

BALTIMORE, March 7.—A frightful scene occurred here this morning, caused by the careless use of coal oil. A colored woman, employed at the boarding house of Mrs. Duval, poured coal oil in the stove to have the fire to burn. Instantly the can exploded, and the unfortunate woman, enveloped in flames, rushed into the street literally a pillar of fire, the flames mounting far above her head. Her screams were heard for several squares. In a short time several hundred persons were attracted to the spot, and several gentlemen threw their overcoats around her, attempting to quench the flames, which was not accomplished until every particle of the clothing, except a small handkerchief about her waist had been consumed, the entire body being horribly roasted. Her injuries are necessarily fatal.

Standing Committees of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—An adjourned meeting of the caucus of Republican Senators was held this afternoon, at which the vacancies in the committees caused by the expiration of the terms of various senators, were agreed to be filled, as follows: Morrill, of Maine, is made chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, in the place of Cole; Buckingham, chairman of the Committee on Indian Affairs, in the place of Harlan; Boreman, chairman of the Committee on Territories, in place of Nye; Sprague, chairman of the Committee on Public Lands; Lewis, chairman of the Committee on the District of Columbia; Flanagan, chairman of the Committee on Education and Labor; and Brownlow, chairman of the Committee on Revolutionary Claims. Howe leaves the chairmanship of the Committee on Claims, and becomes chairman of the Committee on Library; Scott succeeds Howe as chairman of the Claims Committee. The Committees on Investigation and Resignment, heretofore headed by Buckingham, and on Political Disabilities, headed by Boreman, on Alleged Outrages in the Southern States, headed by Scott, are discontinued. Sargent, of California, is made a member of the Appropriation Committee. No changes are made in the chairmanships of other committees.

THE NEWSPAPER.—General Jackson, when President, once said to one of his fiercest newspaper opponents, "send me your newspaper. I know that you oppose me, but then I should like to see your paper every day. I want to see how many lies you can tell on me."

"General," said the editor, "I think I do right in opposing you, and I shall continue to do so with all the ability of which I am master."

Here was a man after Jackson's own heart, and he instantly replied, with an oath, "sir, send me your paper, for aside from your abuse of me, your paper is a good one." Besides, I never saw a newspaper in which I could not find something worth to read.

Just so. No man can pick up any newspaper without finding something of interest. You may take the paper and tear it into fragments, and in each fragment you will see something to amuse or instruct you.

LEGAL VALUE OF A POUND STERLING.—Business men may be astonished to learn that, by a recently enacted law, the value of a pound sterling is now $4.85, and that all contracts made after the 1st of January, next based on the present value shall be null and void.

The Louisiana Difficulty.

President Grant hopes that further trouble in Louisiana will be avoided, especially bloodshed. We all hope that. The probability is there will be no more serious trouble, though it is possible some restless and imprudent men may give vent to their indignation in a breach of the peace and bring down the wrath of the government upon them. It would be more than foolish, it would be madness, to attempt resistance to the power of the federal government. The words of the President are significant, if they are reported correctly in the Washington despatches, published yesterday. "If the people of New Orleans," he remarked, "are not convinced by this time that he is earnest and resolved to discountenance all further efforts on the part of the McEnery government to remain in power, whether de facto or de jure, it will not be his fault. The issue having been made, the administration adheres to its original position, and right of wrong, Kellogg will be protected, if it is necessary to hedge his office with federal bayonets." We all know the firmness of General Grant, and cannot doubt that he will persistently carry out the policy he began. What, then, would be the use of resistance? We do not think Governor McEnery and the members of his government will attempt to do anything so futile. They made the issue with the federal government, were put down by it, and must now leave the matter to public opinion. If, however, they were earnest in their efforts on Wednesday and had any hope of overthrowing the Kellogg usurpers and grasping the power of the State they did not go to work in the right way. Instead of seizing a police station or two and attempting to get hold of a building they might have seized Kellogg and Longstreet and thus paralyzed the usurping government. They made a mistake, and now we fear the mischief done is beyond remedy. The proper course, even still, for the federal government to pursue, would be to authorize a new election in Louisiana and give the people a fair opportunity to express their wishes; but we have little hope of that being allowed. The administration appears to be determined to crush the McEnery government at all hazards and to maintain that of Kellogg. What a reflection upon our republican institutions! What a mockery of local self-government! It has been said that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty; but we fear the people of the United States fail to see that, and are losing that watchfulness they manifested in the earlier and purer days of the Republic. Such a usurpation of federal power as that in the case of Louisiana would not have been tolerated in the early period of our country's history.—N. Y. Herald.

North Carolina's Centennial.

On the 20th of May, 1775, the patriots of Mecklenburg county, North Carolina, promulgated a declaration of independence of the Government of Great Britain, in the town of Charlotte, and boldly laid down the principles of free government in America. It was a spirited document, and the lives, fortunes and sacred honor of the signers were pledged to its support. And these pledges were subsequently made good by their valor and fortitude. The famous Declaration of Independence, drawn by Mr. Jefferson, used the same, and in several places, the language of the Mecklenburg declaration. North Carolina is entitled to the credit of this bold emancipation, and we perceive by recent action of the House of Representatives of that State that she is not insensible to this proud historic position.

The House has adopted resolutions which favor the holding of a centennial celebration at Charlotte, on the 20th of May, 1875, to commemorate the great event, by an exhibition of the natural resources of the State, its arts, products and manufactures. It is proposed to appoint a commission, to consist of the Governor and three delegates from each Congressional District of the State, to prepare and superintend the execution of a plan for holding the exhibition, to serve without compensation. Invitations are to be extended to the President of the United States, the heads of all the departments of the Government at Washington, and to the Governors of all the States and Territories.

This will not interfere with the centennial celebration at Philadelphia, which takes place over twelve months after the proposed exhibition at Charlotte. It will rather aid in furtherance of that object, as the articles collected there can be forwarded to Philadelphia as contributions from North Carolina. The 20th day of May, 1875, is over two years off yet, which will afford ample time to make all arrangements for a cause well worthy of commemoration.—Columbia (S. C.) Phoenix.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION IN A CARTRIDGE FACTORY.—PARIS, March 8.—A terrible explosion occurred yesterday afternoon in the cartridge manufactory at Fort Mint Valerien. Twenty-eight persons were injured, twelve of whom, it is stated, cannot possibly recover.

Another dispatch says that, over one hundred persons were injured at the Fort Mont Valerien explosion.

Premium Safety Oil. Dawson's Compound, N. C. February 10th, 1873.

Wilson & Black—I to-day tested the Denlow & Bush "Premium Safety Oil," which I obtained from you last Saturday, and found it to stand a first test of 125 deg. F. But as these figures vary a good deal for different modes of applying the test, (a thing known to Chemists who experiment with Oil,) I will say that, tried under precisely similar circumstances, the Denlow & Bush Oil would deg. F. above Pratt's Astral Oil, and 40 deg. F. above West's best quality. It gives a beautiful soft white light, not excelled by any other form of artificial light in common use. These results accord with my previous experience with this Oil, and I do not hesitate to recommend it as the safest and best I have ever seen in this market. Respectfully yours, W. J. MARTIN.

Dr. Beekwith's Anti-Dyspeptic Pills. USE THE PREVENTIVE. And you will NOT NEED THE CURE. Read This! You may find Something in which you are PERSONALLY INTERESTED.

YOU have many cares, anxieties and troubles—some real, some imaginary—more produced by want of health than you are aware of. Of all sources of disease, the Stomach is the most fruitful—the greatest of its evils are more absolutely necessary—more expensive—more pleasurable—more painful, and more diversified than any other organ in the human system. It is more imposed upon, and more wonderfully adapted itself to its various duties, than any other organ—it has its legitimate duties, which will call you to account for its misbehavior, the Liver, almost always suffers with it, and usually shares in the retribution. Have you been an invalid or imprudent eater or drinker? Do you understand all this—your Stomach and Liver have called you to an account, and you want relief. Then, read carefully the following, and like a wise man, seek the relief you desire, where, others, situated as you are, have found it.

Is Your Health Impaired in Consequence of Unhealthy Digestion of YOUR FOOD? Hon. BEVERLY TUCKER, late Gov. of Virginia, Professor of Williams & Mary College, says: "Fourteen years ago I was left by a most malignant fever, with a disordered Liver, a disordered digestion, and a disordered system in ruins. My physicians permitted me to hope, that with care and prudence I might have a few years of precarious existence, and as need me that the least indiscretion would be fatal. Two years ago I met your Anti-Dyspeptic Pills, and on taking them I felt a new era in my life. I know, I took them according to directions. This result is that I now eat what I please, do what I please, sleep easy, and get your life as much as any man living. For this it gives me pleasure to say you have my thanks, and to add the assurance of my high regard."
