POETRY.

At One by Tiarod.
The Boston Advertiser publishes an ode by the lamented Tiarod with the following introduction:
The following poem was written by Henry Tiarod, a South Carolina poet, who died about a year ago. The readers not granted to be a defender of the "fallen cause" in order to appreciate the singularly fine feeling and noble expression which characterize the verses. They were greatly admired by the late Governor Andrew, who often repeated them to his friends (the last time but a few days before his death,) and it is from a manuscript in the handwriting of one of his children that the poem is copied.

ODE.
Sung on the occasion of decorating the graves of the Confederate dead at Magnolia Cemetery, Charleston, S. C.
I.
Sleep sweetly in your humble grave—
Sleep martyrs of a fallen cause!
Though yet no marble column craves
The pilgrim here to pause.
II.
In seeds of laurel in the earth
The blossom of your fame is blown,
And somewhere, waiting for its birth,
The shaft is in the stone!
III.
Meanwhile, beheld the tardy years
Which keep in trust your storied tombs,
Behold! your sisters bring their tears
And these memorial blooms.
IV.
Small tributes! but your shades will smile
More proudly on these wreaths to-day
Than when some cannon-mounded pile
Shall overlook this bay.
V.
Sleep, angels, higher from the skies!
There is no holier spot of ground
Than where departed valor lies
By mortal beauty's crown'd.

The Change.
HAYING notified our friends and customers some time since, that our business would change January 1st, 1873, we are pleased to say that the change has taken place, and it is to be strictly CASH or 30 DAYS CREDIT. Those who do not pay promptly need not expect any favors. If you are in arrears—don't ask for credit, save us the unpleasant duty of denying you.
To our many friends and patrons we return thanks, and ask a continuance of their favors—believing that by a strict application of the above rules, we will be able to sell goods cheaper than those who credit.
All bills are due and payable on the 1st day of each month every month.

Special Notice to the Public.

As a great many changes have taken place this year, I respectfully beg to inform the citizens of Charlotte and the public in general that no change has taken place at my establishment. I am still at my old stand, No. 24 Tryon Street, David Parks' building, with a large and well selected stock of the finest and latest styles of custom-made clothing for Men, Youths and Boys wear, also on hand a fine stock of Gent's Furnishing Goods, Shirts, of Ballou's make, the best fitting shirt in the world. The very latest styles of Hats, Scarfs, Bows and Ties, Umbrellas, &c., and I will still sell them at prices to defy competition.
I expect to leave for New York City in a short time to lay in my stock of Clothing and Piece Goods for my Tailoring Establishment and will also bring with me a experienced Cutter and Tailor, and will be ready by Spring to cut and make to order, at my own establishment and under my own supervision and at lower prices than the same quality of goods can be made up in this or in any other city, this side of Baltimore.
Being thankful to the citizens of Charlotte and the public in general for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon me, I most respectfully ask a continuance of the same. Respectfully,
Jan 9
