

THE DAY IN BRIEF

It is probable that Gladstone will resign the Premiership of England. The war in Spain continues with unabated vigor.

A STRIKING CONTRAST

It is somewhat difficult to compare the standard of honor in Massachusetts. Charles Sumner, whatever else may be said of him, has never had an imputation cast upon his integrity.

MR. F. A. MCNINCH

We direct attention to the card of this worthy citizen, in which he returns his grateful thanks for the compliment conveyed in the suggestion by "Many Citizens" that he be chosen to fill the office of Mayor.

FOREIGN NEWS

LONDON, March 17.—Gladstone again interviewed the Queen. It is probable that Gladstone will remain Premier with an unchanged cabinet.

ALABAMA AFFAIRS

MONTGOMERY, March 15.—During the progress of the debate in the House of Representatives, L. E. Parsons, who was speaker of the conference house, said that the two million-bond bill passed by that body was void, because it never received the constitutional vote.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 16.—The standing committee of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this city have informally resolved on behalf of churches of the city to offer to conduct the funeral of the late Bishop Melville, and to bring the body home from Italy for interment.

WORDS OF WISDOM

The following words from the Atlanta Star (Hon. Alexander H. Stephens' paper) commend themselves to the attention of all thinking men: The Springfield (Mass.) Republican, of recent date, had a pertinent homily on the thesis that the American people are too busy attending to their private affairs to do their duty in relation to great public interests.

MAYOR YOUNG

A card in the last number of the Democrat announces his Honor, Mayor Young, as a candidate for reelection to the office which he now fills so worthily and creditably to himself and the city.

It is but justice to say that he has given very general satisfaction during his term of office, and has shown himself fully competent to discharge the duties of the Mayoralty with efficiency, dignity, and strict integrity.

PHILADELPHIA TRAGEDY

A Wife Murdered While Asleep by a Neighbor's Husband—He Was Executed Yesterday. A Philadelphia reporter writes that a woman named Mrs. Cloak, who was found dead in her bed, was murdered by her neighbor's husband.

THE PRISONER

From the murdered woman's late home it proceeded to the station house and found Cloak, his mother, the little girl Mary, and the woman who had come in when Mary called across the street for help.

THE BROKEN CABLE

The Baltimore Gazette, of the 10th inst., says: "The Atlantic cable of 1865 suddenly failed yesterday. This was the first cable laid, and the one over which there was so much rejoicing."

THE AXE WITH WHICH HE SLEW HER

It seems that Cloak awoke about four o'clock this morning and dressed himself, then proceeded to the cellar and got an old rusty axe in which Mrs. Cloak, the murdered woman, had inserted a broken handle about two weeks ago.

THE FATAL BLOWS

Having ascertained the position of his wife he placed the light on the mantel and dealt her two fearful blows on the left temple. The first blow sunk the back of the axe two and a half inches into her skull.

AT THE HOUSE OF DEATH

When I went to the house the neighbors were gathered in front of the doorway and peering curiously out of their windows at the house of death, as if it were some terrible enchantment about it.

A SPECIMEN SOUTH CAROLINA SCALAWAG

Among the incidents of the late inauguration ball at Washington was the appearance thereof of several negroes, both men and women, who put on great airs and allowed their white allies and friends with the most cheerful insolence.

A STRIKING CONTRAST

It is somewhat difficult to compare the standard of honor in Massachusetts. Charles Sumner, whatever else may be said of him, has never had an imputation cast upon his integrity.

MR. F. A. MCNINCH

We direct attention to the card of this worthy citizen, in which he returns his grateful thanks for the compliment conveyed in the suggestion by "Many Citizens" that he be chosen to fill the office of Mayor.

FOREIGN NEWS

LONDON, March 17.—Gladstone again interviewed the Queen. It is probable that Gladstone will remain Premier with an unchanged cabinet.

ALABAMA AFFAIRS

MONTGOMERY, March 15.—During the progress of the debate in the House of Representatives, L. E. Parsons, who was speaker of the conference house, said that the two million-bond bill passed by that body was void, because it never received the constitutional vote.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 16.—The standing committee of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this city have informally resolved on behalf of churches of the city to offer to conduct the funeral of the late Bishop Melville, and to bring the body home from Italy for interment.

WORDS OF WISDOM

The following words from the Atlanta Star (Hon. Alexander H. Stephens' paper) commend themselves to the attention of all thinking men: The Springfield (Mass.) Republican, of recent date, had a pertinent homily on the thesis that the American people are too busy attending to their private affairs to do their duty in relation to great public interests.

Statesville will have a marble yard. John G. Sargent will lecture in Raleigh on Monday evening next.

THE PRISONER

From the murdered woman's late home it proceeded to the station house and found Cloak, his mother, the little girl Mary, and the woman who had come in when Mary called across the street for help.

THE BROKEN CABLE

The Baltimore Gazette, of the 10th inst., says: "The Atlantic cable of 1865 suddenly failed yesterday. This was the first cable laid, and the one over which there was so much rejoicing."

THE AXE WITH WHICH HE SLEW HER

It seems that Cloak awoke about four o'clock this morning and dressed himself, then proceeded to the cellar and got an old rusty axe in which Mrs. Cloak, the murdered woman, had inserted a broken handle about two weeks ago.

THE FATAL BLOWS

Having ascertained the position of his wife he placed the light on the mantel and dealt her two fearful blows on the left temple. The first blow sunk the back of the axe two and a half inches into her skull.

AT THE HOUSE OF DEATH

When I went to the house the neighbors were gathered in front of the doorway and peering curiously out of their windows at the house of death, as if it were some terrible enchantment about it.

A SPECIMEN SOUTH CAROLINA SCALAWAG

Among the incidents of the late inauguration ball at Washington was the appearance thereof of several negroes, both men and women, who put on great airs and allowed their white allies and friends with the most cheerful insolence.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

SELLING OFF AT COST. BARGAINS!! BARGAINS!! J. H. LORFEA & BRO.

Dr. A. D. Lucas, of Bladen, who was dangerously assaulted by a colored man a few days ago, is improving.

Work upon the new government buildings in Raleigh will be commenced early in May.

Mr. Wm. Andrews, of Raleigh, was kicked by a mule in the right groin late Sunday evening, and is in a very critical condition.

Gen. Wade Hampton will lecture in Wilmington shortly, under the auspices of the Ladies' Memorial Association.

J. M. Coffin, of Salisbury, has been appointed a member of the Penitentiary Board, vice Gen. Alfred Dockery resigned.

A young man, an employe on the Richmond & Danville Railroad, had his thigh broken at Benega station the other day while coupling some cars.

Mr. B. R. Arrington, of Ringwood, was painfully wounded in the hand last Saturday by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of Mr. P. G. Pritchett.

The steamer B. & J. Baker, arrived in Norfolk Friday from the North Carolina coast with a quantity of iron saved from the wreck of the British brig Faugh a Bellagh.

A recent meeting of citizens adopted this resolution: Resolved, That railroad monopolies and rings are destructive of the best interests and liberties of a free people, and it must be safer and better for the State to own its great railroads and highways than have them controlled by outside monopolizing corporations.

Raleigh News: The steam engine attached to the extensive Saw Mills of Dr. Down, at Apex, in this county, exploded its boiler on Friday, resulting in the entire destruction of the engine and considerable injury to the building. The accident was caused by the collapse of the main flue. The engineer was seriously wounded, but it is believed his injuries will not prove fatal. None other hurt.

Statesville Intelligencer: Charles Brown, an old Swede, who has, according to his statement, been on the Ocean 54 years, appeared at our streets yesterday evening. He is old, decrepit, nearly deaf, and an object of sympathy. He says he has been around the globe several times, and bears several marks peculiar only to the sailor. On one arm in Indian ink is a beautiful picture of the crucifixion, on the other is a picture of a woman. He said he was making his way to Knoxville, Tennessee, where he had friends and relations.

The Raleigh News says: The Commissioners appointed by the General Assembly to act conjointly with the Commissioners appointed by Judge Dick, of the U. S. Circuit Court, to arbitrate and settle the matters pending in said Court, wherein Hiram Sibley and others are plaintiffs against the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, have been requested by his Excellency Gov. Caldwell to meet at the Executive office in this city on the second day of next month. The Commissioners appointed by the Legislature are Gov. Caldwell, Hon. George Davis, Judge Manly, Hon. J. H. Wilson and Col. W. L. Steele, and those on the part of the Court are Hon. B. S. Gaither and Col. Marcus Erwin.

Raleigh News: It will be remembered that about three years ago Dr. Thayer's Great Southern Circus "burst" at High Point, this State, and the entire paraphernalia, horse, wagons, tents and all sold at public auction. The band wagon was bought by Messrs. Lee, Hays & Co., of this city. One pair of the white horses in Charlotte, and the other to a gentleman in Louisiana. The driver of the wagon went to Charleston, as badly scattered as this lot seems to have been, we saw the same white horses at their old position in the same wagon, and the same driver on the same road, driving not the same band, but another band, on the same streets as when Thayer spread his canvass here—all on yesterday.

The Raleigh News of Sunday says: Yesterday evening, near the hour of sunset, a volume of thick smoke was emitted from the chimney of the Gas House, and rising gradually above and over the city in full view of all and every one, first assumed the form of a large fish, perfect as nature itself. Then taking its course through the air performing the exact evolutions of the suny tribe in water, gradually dissolved and assumed a perfectly shaped coffin. In that shape it hung still and motionless over the city for more than ten minutes. The phenomenon was observed by parties from different points in the city, and every one saw it alike.

We are no believer in ghosts and spirits, but we would have preferred it assuming some other shape than that of a coffin.

Governor Kellogg, of Louisiana, (or rather the Governor in possession of the seals and keys of office, with Uncle Sam's bayonets to back him) has issued a proclamation to the taxpayers, warning them to "walk up to the Captain's office and settle," or take the consequences. Perhaps the citizens may resolve to pay their taxes to avoid further difficulty, but accompany the same with a protest against the Kellogg usurpation, which may be of service as a basis of action when a turn in the political wheel throws the now oppressed class up to power.—N. Y. Herald.

FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE.—We are pleased to learn that this Order of Temperance is making rapid progress in the State. Four new Councils were organized during the last week with an average of some 25 or 30 charter members.

The Friends is a Southern order based upon white membership, and extends from West Virginia to Texas, in which latter State alone there are upwards of 30,000 members, and over 200 Councils. One hundred and fifty Councils have been organized in this State.—Raleigh News.

THE PEABODY SCHOOL FUND.—The following named public schools in the State have, within the last few days, been promised assistance for the present year from the Peabody Educational fund: Wilmington, $2,000; Oxford, Granville county, $200; Washington, Beaufort county, $600; Old Fort, McDowell county, $500; Warrenton, $400; Dysartville, McDowell county, $450; Otter Creek, Rutherford county, $300; Sulphur Springs, Buncombe county, $300. Assistance has been promised a number of other schools in the State from the same fund during the year.

AT THE HOUSE OF DEATH.

When I went to the house the neighbors were gathered in front of the doorway and peering curiously out of their windows at the house of death, as if it were some terrible enchantment about it.

A SPECIMEN SOUTH CAROLINA SCALAWAG.

Among the incidents of the late inauguration ball at Washington was the appearance thereof of several negroes, both men and women, who put on great airs and allowed their white allies and friends with the most cheerful insolence.

New Advertisements. SELLING OFF AT COST. BARGAINS!! BARGAINS!! J. H. LORFEA & BRO.

Dr. A. D. Lucas, of Bladen, who was dangerously assaulted by a colored man a few days ago, is improving.

Work upon the new government buildings in Raleigh will be commenced early in May.

Mr. Wm. Andrews, of Raleigh, was kicked by a mule in the right groin late Sunday evening, and is in a very critical condition.

Gen. Wade Hampton will lecture in Wilmington shortly, under the auspices of the Ladies' Memorial Association.

J. M. Coffin, of Salisbury, has been appointed a member of the Penitentiary Board, vice Gen. Alfred Dockery resigned.

A young man, an employe on the Richmond & Danville Railroad, had his thigh broken at Benega station the other day while coupling some cars.

Mr. B. R. Arrington, of Ringwood, was painfully wounded in the hand last Saturday by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of Mr. P. G. Pritchett.

The steamer B. & J. Baker, arrived in Norfolk Friday from the North Carolina coast with a quantity of iron saved from the wreck of the British brig Faugh a Bellagh.

A recent meeting of citizens adopted this resolution: Resolved, That railroad monopolies and rings are destructive of the best interests and liberties of a free people, and it must be safer and better for the State to own its great railroads and highways than have them controlled by outside monopolizing corporations.

Raleigh News: The steam engine attached to the extensive Saw Mills of Dr. Down, at Apex, in this county, exploded its boiler on Friday, resulting in the entire destruction of the engine and considerable injury to the building. The accident was caused by the collapse of the main flue. The engineer was seriously wounded, but it is believed his injuries will not prove fatal. None other hurt.

Statesville Intelligencer: Charles Brown, an old Swede, who has, according to his statement, been on the Ocean 54 years, appeared at our streets yesterday evening. He is old, decrepit, nearly deaf, and an object of sympathy. He says he has been around the globe several times, and bears several marks peculiar only to the sailor. On one arm in Indian ink is a beautiful picture of the crucifixion, on the other is a picture of a woman. He said he was making his way to Knoxville, Tennessee, where he had friends and relations.

The Raleigh News says: The Commissioners appointed by the General Assembly to act conjointly with the Commissioners appointed by Judge Dick, of the U. S. Circuit Court, to arbitrate and settle the matters pending in said Court, wherein Hiram Sibley and others are plaintiffs against the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, have been requested by his Excellency Gov. Caldwell to meet at the Executive office in this city on the second day of next month. The Commissioners appointed by the Legislature are Gov. Caldwell, Hon. George Davis, Judge Manly, Hon. J. H. Wilson and Col. W. L. Steele, and those on the part of the Court are Hon. B. S. Gaither and Col. Marcus Erwin.

Raleigh News: It will be remembered that about three years ago Dr. Thayer's Great Southern Circus "burst" at High Point, this State, and the entire paraphernalia, horse, wagons, tents and all sold at public auction. The band wagon was bought by Messrs. Lee, Hays & Co., of this city. One pair of the white horses in Charlotte, and the other to a gentleman in Louisiana. The driver of the wagon went to Charleston, as badly scattered as this lot seems to have been, we saw the same white horses at their old position in the same wagon, and the same driver on the same road, driving not the same band, but another band, on the same streets as when Thayer spread his canvass here—all on yesterday.

The Raleigh News of Sunday says: Yesterday evening, near the hour of sunset, a volume of thick smoke was emitted from the chimney of the Gas House, and rising gradually above and over the city in full view of all and every one, first assumed the form of a large fish, perfect as nature itself. Then taking its course through the air performing the exact evolutions of the suny tribe in water, gradually dissolved and assumed a perfectly shaped coffin. In that shape it hung still and motionless over the city for more than ten minutes. The phenomenon was observed by parties from different points in the city, and every one saw it alike.

We are no believer in ghosts and spirits, but we would have preferred it assuming some other shape than that of a coffin.

Governor Kellogg, of Louisiana, (or rather the Governor in possession of the seals and keys of office, with Uncle Sam's bayonets to back him) has issued a proclamation to the taxpayers, warning them to "walk up to the Captain's office and settle," or take the consequences. Perhaps the citizens may resolve to pay their taxes to avoid further difficulty, but accompany the same with a protest against the Kellogg usurpation, which may be of service as a basis of action when a turn in the political wheel throws the now oppressed class up to power.—N. Y. Herald.

FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE.—We are pleased to learn that this Order of Temperance is making rapid progress in the State. Four new Councils were organized during the last week with an average of some 25 or 30 charter members.

The Friends is a Southern order based upon white membership, and extends from West Virginia to Texas, in which latter State alone there are upwards of 30,000 members, and over 200 Councils. One hundred and fifty Councils have been organized in this State.—Raleigh News.

THE PEABODY SCHOOL FUND.—The following named public schools in the State have, within the last few days, been promised assistance for the present year from the Peabody Educational fund: Wilmington, $2,000; Oxford, Granville county, $200; Washington, Beaufort county, $600; Old Fort, McDowell county, $500; Warrenton, $400; Dysartville, McDowell county, $450; Otter Creek, Rutherford county, $300; Sulphur Springs, Buncombe county, $300. Assistance has been promised a number of other schools in the State from the same fund during the year.

AT THE HOUSE OF DEATH.

When I went to the house the neighbors were gathered in front of the doorway and peering curiously out of their windows at the house of death, as if it were some terrible enchantment about it.

A SPECIMEN SOUTH CAROLINA SCALAWAG.

Among the incidents of the late inauguration ball at Washington was the appearance thereof of several negroes, both men and women, who put on great airs and allowed their white allies and friends with the most cheerful insolence.