The Charleston papers speak highly of Col. Hickman's lecture. Salvina, the great Italian tragedian, is coming to America in August. Virginia General Assembly adjourned sine die on Wednesday. Richmond people are enjoying the English opera, Martha. Flora Belle, a St. Louis mare, has been converted into $23,000 cash.

The Bankers and Brokers of Richmond, Va., are to organize a Stock Board. The final attack on Petersburg was made on the 2d of April, 1865, and the evacuation took place on the 3d.

The par value of a share in the Graniteville Manufacturing Company is $100, but they are selling at $145.

Virginia's favorite scheme—the James River and Kanawha Canal, is to be pushed vigorously this summer.

Another suspected murderer of Hahn, the drover, has been arrested in Richmond—Sheppard Garrett, a negro.

It is estimated that two thousand tons of fertilizers have been disposed of in the Spartaunburg market during the present season.

The steamship Abyssinia, which sailed from New York to Liverpool on Wednesday carried with it $240,400 in specie.

The Knoxville and Charleston railroad, one of the delinquent railroads in the State, was offered for sale at public auction on Wednesday, and bought in by the State of Tennessee for $100,000, there being no other bidder.

Master Willie, son of Dr. Edwin Parker, of Abbeville, was driving his mother and a young lady in a two-seated buggy, when the king bolt became detached, and falling on the heels of the horses caused them to run away. Mrs. Parker was thrown from the buggy, fracturing her thigh.

An alarm of fire was sounded last Monday evening about 7 1/2 o'clock, the fire was found to proceed from an out house on the premises of Mrs. Jennie Means. The fire was the work of incendiary, and is the second time that the same house has been set on fire in the last six days.

A gentleman who arrived from Salt Lake City a day or two since reports the state of affairs there as very bad. Among other things he says that he saw working in the streets of the city a chain-gang of about a dozen Gentiles, who were convicted and condemned by the probate court. One of the U. S. Judges for the Territory publicly asserted that these men were guilty of no crime.

Mr. Hancock, Conductor on the Spartanburg and Union Railroad, had his thigh broken and two fingers cut off by the collision of two heavily loaded flats with the train, upon the back platform of which he was standing. The flats had been cut off on a down grade, and succeeded in gaining too much speed before they could be stopped.

SAFETY OF MR. VICK.—We are most heartily glad to be able to announce this morning that Mr. S. W. Vick, of Vick & Mebane, of this city, who has recently been to Europe and was on the return trip on the steamship Atlantic, is safe at Halifax, he being one of the few out of the 1,000 passengers who were saved. As soon as it was known here yesterday morning that Mr. Vick had sailed on the Atlantic, the most intense interest was manifested as to his fate, and a telegram was sent North inquiring in regard to him. The fears of his friends were at length set at rest by a telegram received here during the afternoon, by Mr. C. P. Mebane from Messrs. E. H. Skinner & Co., of New York, who stated that they had a telegram from Mr. Vick himself, announcing his safe arrival at Halifax. Mr. Vick and his friends certainly have cause to be truly thankful, as only a small number of the cabin passengers were saved from the wreck.

ATTEMPT TO FLOG A NEWARK PASTOR IN HIS PULPIT.—On Sunday night, at the close of the sermon, the Rev. John Taylor, the Catharine-Street African M. E. Church, Newark, announced that he had appointed Mrs. Francis leader of the female prayer meeting. Mr. Newman, a church trustee, sprang to his feet and excitedly objected to the appointment. He said that it was the duty of the trustees, not of the pastor, or against him. Mr. Taylor attempted to read the law, which gave him the power to make the appointment, but was unable to do so on account of the confusion. While the excitement was at its height, a steward of the church, one Carny, threw off his coat, ran up the aisle, jumped the railing, and mounting the pulpit stairs, attempted to strike Mr. Taylor. A woman screamed to him to shoot Carny, and as he was preparing to defend himself, three men dragged his assailant away. The confusion continued several minutes, and Mr. Taylor was escorted to his home by a number of friends. The trouble had its origin in animosity to Mr. Taylor.—New York Sun, April 1st.

THE SEXES.—The Woman's Journal pithily remarks: When God settled the solitary in families, he decided the question of the relations of the sexes. While brothers and sisters continue to be born, it will be safest and best that men and women should be associated in all the affairs of life. They need each other. Not that either is superior to the other; men are not so much wiser than women, nor women so much nobler than men; it is only that they were originally meant to live together, and it is several thousand or several hundred thousand years too late to improve that arrangement. Men are bad enough, no doubt; but as Aunt Chloe remarks in "Dred," "Dey's enuff sight better than nuffin." On the other hand, women are often weak and silly, and that delightful shrew, Mrs. Powser, is obliged to admit, in "Adam Bede," "I'm not denyin' that women are foolish; God Almighty made them to match the men."

An account of a triple case of villainy has reached us; the main facts only, however, are known. A gay Lothario, in the western part of this county, destroyed the peace of a whole family, by seducing one, marrying another, and running way with the third and last of them. The three were sisters. We understand that the parents are about taking steps to publish the villain to the world.—Newberry Herald.
