GOLD ASSIGNEES' SALE.

In Re. THOMAS DAVIS, Bankrupt. BY Virtue of an order from Hon. G. S. Bryan, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the District of South Carolina, we will expose to public sale at Charlotte, N. C., on Tuesday the 22nd day of April, 1873, all and every right which we represent in a suit against M. B. Valentine, including all the right, title and interest of the above named Bankrupt in the Jugnot Gold Mine tract of land, containing 52 1/2 acres more or less, situated in Mecklenburg county, N. C., as also all claims which the Bankrupt had, or we as his Assignees have to the balance of the purchase money due for said lands, or for any more due for the rents thereof.

AUCTION SALE.

Desirable Phosphate Fertilizer or other Factory Site, Mills, Machinery, &c., &c. The undersigned will offer for sale, in Charleston, at Public Outcry, at the east end of Broad-street, on THURSDAY, the 17th day of April next, at 11 o'clock A. M.

The ENTIRE WORKS recently erected by the Farmers' Fertilizer Company of South Carolina, situated less than a half mile beyond the corporate limits of the City of Charleston. These consists of a new eighty-horse power Engine in complete preservation, in brick engine house. The Machinery, such as Elevator, Crushers, Grinders, Mixer, Shafing, &c., &c., is built in a substantial brick story and a half house, of 45 by 80 feet in size. The tract consists of five acres of high, and seventeen of low land, having good outlets in the fee simple of a twenty foot plank road, and a graded road-bed for railway on one side, and a fine wharf on Ashly River on its other or Western side. It adjoins and connects by means of these roads with the South Carolina and the Northern Railroads, and is thus in prompt communication with the interior of this State and of the Southern and southwestern States.

Rev. B. Craven, D. D., President of Trinity College, and Gen. Robert H. Vance, of Buncombe, have consented to deliver addresses on the 24th of June, at the Orphan Asylum in Oxford.

The Salem Press says Wm. A. Bolejack, of that county, has disposed of 57 acres of land, known as the Lime Kiln, to the Friendship Mining Company, for $3,000.

Raleigh Sentinel: Attention has been called to the fact that the exhibit of lunatics in Wake county admitted to the State Lunatic Asylum during the last official year shows 31. That number includes not only the lunatics but idiots entitled to the $100 under chapter 167, acts of 1869 and 70.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Florida grows five hundred bushels of sweet potatoes to the acre. Three persons standing together constitute an unlawful assembly in Lexington, Kentucky.

The Baptists are said to average eighty communicants to every church in the United States. A negro woman in Georgia is supporting an aged lady who was once her mistress.

A Baltimore man was arrested for cruelly beating a horse; and on his showing that the animal was a mare, he got off. The average daily receipts at the New York Custom House, since the 1st instant, have exceeded $500,000.

An Ohio girl, who was jilted by her lover, spoiled his beauty by taking her little pistol and shooting his nose off. When the new Post Office in Boston is completed, the various newspapers will receive their exchanges direct by pneumatic tubes.

The latest mode de Paris is to have one's furs trimmed with lace; which is something like having hot plum pudding with ice cream sauce. Wolf River, Tennessee, is peopled by a race who live on its surface in flatboats, and marry and are given in marriage, and flourish and are happy.

The question of shortening the hours of study in the common schools is being agitated in Boston and vicinity. Lynn already limits afternoon sessions to two hours. The pioneer commands of the Spring fashions are out. No sleeves, but gloves with six buttons; a languid expression of face is en vogue, and the eyes will be worn very much closed.

Denver is to have a new hotel, and the public are assured that the walls will be bullet-proof, so that guests won't run any risks on account of an affair in the other room. An ingenious Yankee seamstress makes a squirrel, in his revolving cage turn her sewing machine, and her Hibernian competitors can't understand how she manages to do long seams with "such a little baste." A Connecticut woman was recently bereft of the faculty of speech by being hit with a snowball, and many married men in that part of the country have been heard to remark that, after all, Winter has advantages not afforded by any other season.
