MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS. No one is admitted to the New York Tombs without a pass.

A San Francisco stage coach took fire recently, but the driver whipped up and got away from it.

A California politician says that the path of rectitude has been traveled so little in that State of late years, that it has all run to grass.

An oyster catcher has just succeeded in leasing an estate valued at a quarter of a million in New York.

There have been over forty lawsuits over the ownership of a Chicago estate, none of which have been found to fit.

A Dubuque local editor complains that there is only one handsome girl in that city, and she is engaged to a dozen young men.

The peace commissioners are now going for the Apaches, hat in hand. This tribe has not yet been coddled since their last murder party.

The telegraph tells us that Pere Hyacinthe delivered an encomium on Calvin, at Geneva, Switzerland, on Sunday last.

John Hendrick, chief of the Onondaga Indians, was lodged in an Albany police station, last week, for being drunk and disorderly.

Marshal Bazaine is about to be released on his parole of honor, which is equivalent to a confession that the charges against him cannot be sustained.

The State of New York has one thousand cheese factories, which make eighty million pounds of cheese.

Josephine Mansfield has engaged a pew in the American Episcopal Church, in Paris. She goes to the church every Sunday, and, it is stated, buries her head in her prayer book with all the devotion of a saint.

In a letter to his friends at home, an intelligent foreigner states that "when a great man dies in the United States, the first thing done is to propose a fine statute in his honor; next, to raise part of the necessary money; next to forget to order any statute; and last, to wonder what became of the money." The remark shows close observation and clear judgment.

EXCELSIOR!!

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST!!! TO PLANTERS.

WE Offer the following Fertilizers: Patasco Guano, Chesapeake Guano and Watson & Clarke's Super-Phosphate. We have pleasure in again tendering to our Farmers the above first-class Fertilizers.

To those who have used them so many years we need only say that they are guaranteed to be fully up to their previous high standard. And to such as have not yet used them one trial will convince them that they are superior to all others; so make sure of a supply and please hand in your orders early, as the consumption exceeds the manufacturing power.
