THE MAYOR'S ELECTION: The action of the Citizen's Conven tion Friday night at the Court House has at last given shape to the contest which is to be decided on the first Monday in May. Who should be the Chief Magistrate of this city for the ensuing year is certainly most serious question and the large and orderly convention at the Court House and the earnestness manifested attests the fact that our citizens so regard it. There are many delicate and one can dettes that devolve upbutthe officer duries which require for their fulfillment, patience, industry, and above all, perfect integrity and unfline bing perve. Quiet and good order are the very first conditions of the success of would be busmess communities, and upon the Mayor depends the sale hope of the firm and efficient execution of the law. The combination of qualities required is such that but few men, comparatively speaking, are eligible, and hence the importance of careful, deliberation on the part of the feitizens before they come to cast their votes for the different enndidates .-This we think our citizens did on Friday night, and it spens to us that the candidate put forward by them, having the endergement of so many sober-minded and enlightened business men, gives the hope possessing the qualifications we have above enumerated. The Good Book long ago said that in "the multitude of counsellors there is wisdom," once: we would add that it is also wisdom, to defer our own judgement to the judgment of the "multitude of coun-Many minds directed to the solution of a grave question, and having a strong common interest in a proper solution, will generally decide it correctly, and if they come to a conclusion different from ours, it affords a very fair presumpwrong. Upon this principle we reason that it is our duty to follow the suggestion of the convention and support its nominee, Gen'l Young .-We are not here reasoning from any political standpoint and are appealing to no mere party loyalty, but simply to the common sense of our people. As the matter stands at present the only candidates are Gen'l Young and W. F Davidson. both Conservatives. With this difference that Gen. Young's fitness has received the solemn endorsement of a large convention of the people, fairly conducted, while Mr. Daxidson declined to submit his claim to the complain, we think, if we act upon the seriptore maining that in the multitude of counsellors there is wisdom."
