Meeting Last Night.—A meeting of all the Committees on the entertainment to take place to-morrow, was held at Market Hall last evening. Mayor W. F. Davidson was called to the Chair and J. W. Miller, Esq., was appointed Secretary. Col. Brown, Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements, stated that he thought all the necessary arrangements had been made.

The question of how those persons who would not get accommodations at the hotels should be entertained, was then sprung, and discussed until a late hour. All agreed that they were to go to private houses, but exactly where they were to go, and how they were to be divided out, was hard to settle upon. The matter was discussed at length, and was finally settled by the appointment of the following gentlemen to go around to private houses and report to an adjourned meeting. The committee were requested to act forthwith and report this evening at 5 o'clock at Market Hall.

Ward No 1—W. H. Gregory, W. C. Blackwood, R. E. Miller.

Ward No 2—A. H. Hammond, J. H. Orr, B. Springs.

Ward No 3—W. B. Nesbit, C. C. Horton, Joseph Sanders.

Ward No 4—Rufus Jones, J. H. Wilson, apt J. Roessler.

Miller's Hall.—A report having been circulated that this building is not safe, in justice to all concerned we publish the following certificate: and will say in so doing that the report was started by a malicious person who had a spite to gratify. It is therefore not entitled to any credence, having been started by a person who was compelled thereto by personal feelings. Of the two last names signed to the certificate we would say that Mr Davidson was the carpenter and builder of the wooden part of the house, and Mr Murray the brick builder. All the gentlemen whose names are signed to the paper, are qualified to speak intelligently on the subject. The following is the certificate:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 27, 1873.
We, the undersigned Builders and Contractors, have thoroughly examined Miller's Hall, and to the best of our judgment pronounce it entirely safe.

JOSIAS RUDISILL,
JOSEPH ASBURY,
WILLIAM D. STONE,
JAS. E. DAVIDSON,
P. M. MURRAY,

The Entertainment To-Night.—We are already on a previous occasion given our readers an idea of the entertainment which will be given to-night at Miller's Hall. The "Fairy Bridal," a cantata will be acted, and we hope that all our people will be there to see what for a theatrical troupe Charlotte can muster, if for nothing else. A sight of the ladies who will be of itself enough to induce all to be there, and aside from that the object is a noble one. The actors, some of them, have had some experience (not professionally of course) and we may raise our expectations with the certainty that we will not be disappointed. The musical part of the entertainment will be under the direction of Prof. Phifer, of whose remarkable gifts would be entirely superfluous to speak.

Carolina Central Railway.—The Wilmington Journal says that Dr C. H. Roberts, Assistant, and Col S. L. Fremont, Chief Engineer, of the Carolina Central Railway, have just returned from Anson county, where they have been to examine the location of the Railway, some 12 miles west of Wadesboro. Maj J. C. Winder, Chief Engineer, with his assistants, is now working the line and putting contracts at work. Some 300 hands and a large number of teams have already arrived on the line and the work of construction will be pushed forward with all the energy that the indomitable Chief Engineer, the contractors and others can command.

The Lee Monument Portrait.—We direct attention to the advertisement of Messrs L. Dawson & Co. The funds raised for the sale of this picture will be devoted to the building of the Monument to the great and good Lee. Surely this is some thing which commends itself at once to every Southern man and woman who loves and reverences the memory of the immortal chieftain. We have seen the picture which these gentlemen are agents, and one of the most beautiful and purely excellent pieces of art we have ever seen. It should be in every Southern household. Messrs Dawson & Co., want agents for the sale of this picture in various counties, as appear from their advertisement.

Court Yesterday.—The case of Jacob Williams for breaking into the house of J. L. Morehead, was resumed yesterday morning upon the opening of Court. It was rather an interesting case and attracted considerable attention. He was found guilty. The sentence of the Court had not yet been pronounced upon him. Wm. Hunter, colored, indicted for stealing in two cases, was found guilty. Sentence has not yet been passed upon him. The civil docket was taken up in the afternoon, and about half a dozen cases were called and continued. The criminal docket will be resumed this morning.

Back Beer.—This beverage occupies to a considerable extent the attention of drinking in this city at present. Too hot for whiskey, and water being too thin they need needs fall upon something which takes to some extent of the nature of

The Feast Last Night.—The ladies gave a Strawberry and Ice Cream Feast last night, pursuant to appointment. The occasion was a pleasant one and seemed to be enjoyed by all. As is usual on such occasions, the common order of things was reversed, and the young ladies were most assiduous in their attentions to the young gentlemen. They are inimitable of course, and generally get all the money these young gents have. The proceeds of the entertainment (about $100) will be devoted to the building of a Second Presbyterian Church.

Davidson College.—We return our thanks to the Marshals for invitations to attend the annual commencement exercises at Davidson College. The oration before the Literary Societies will be delivered on Wednesday, June 25th, by Hon. Thos. L. Clingman, of Asheville. The Marshals of the occasion are: J. A. Boyd, (Chief), S. C.; A. Sprunt, Jr., N. C.; R. B. Glenn, N. C.; B. J. Watkins, N. C.; A. C. Dalton, N. C.; R. H. Smith, Ga.; A. G. Latimer, S. C.; D. B. Bryant, Tenn.; A. M. Fraser, S. C.

Charles Moore and Wife.—Yesterday after meeting of the Court in the afternoon, Charles Moore and his wife Mary Jane Moore, were arraigned, and the indictment against them for the murder of Robert Smith was read by the Clerk. Both of the prisoners pleaded "Not Guilty." The trial was set for Thursday and a venire of 50 men was summoned. Mr. Geo. E. Wilson and Major C. Dowd, will appear for the prisoners.

A Hale Old Gentleman.—There is an old gentleman in Iredell county by the name of Mays, who is now 86 years of age. He yet works his farm himself, and with a little assistance in that work, makes a good living for his family. The old gentleman is hale and hearty, and in the course of his long life has had but few sick days. We have these facts from a son of Mr. Mays, a youth of 60 years. The old gentleman lived the greater part of his past life before it was discovered that strychnine improves whiskey.

Personal.—Mr. T. G. Maynard, favorably known in this community as the Keeper of the Cemetery, and who resigned the position last week, left for Canada West a few days ago. Mr. Maynard fought in the Crimean war under the British flag, and bears "honorably scars" upon his body. He was wounded five times. He made many friends during his stay in this city.

Personal.—We were glad to see in our sanctum, yesterday afternoon, the pleasant face of Mr. R. McKay, the genial "local" of the Greenville Republican. It will be many days before we forget the kindness and courtesy with which he treated us at the time of the excursion to Greenville. Mr. McKay will remain and report the entertainment to-morrow for his paper.

To the Ladies.—The ladies of Charlotte are respectfully requested to meet this morning at Oates' Hall, for the purpose of decorating the room for the dinner to-morrow; and we are requested to ask that each business house in the city will send one young man to assist in that work.

An Odd Sight.—A very small man, looking to be not over three feet tall, with long hair and wearing a beaver, attracted considerable attention on the streets yesterday. The sight was truly refreshing to the small boys, who have nothing to do but hunt up persons and things with which to amuse themselves.

Absent.—Rev. B. S. Bronson, pastor of St. Peter's (E.) Church, has gone to Fayetteville, to attend the Episcopal Convention which is now in session there.

The price of admittance to the entertainment to-night, is 75 cents; reserved seat $1; two reserved seats $1.50.

The hot and dull season is upon us, and the streets yesterday presented a dull appearance.

A letter addressed to Samuel J. Baker, Charlotte, N. C., is held in the post office here for lack of postage.

May cherries appeared upon the streets yesterday, and sold at 15 cents per quart.

Tickets for the entertainment to-night can be had at the book store.

The West Carolina Record is responsible for the following bit of fun:

Married. in Dysartsville Township, McDowell county, on Thursday 24th of April, by the Rev. Mr. Denton, Mr. Calvin Horn to Miss Susanna Poteet.

Calvin no longer is a unicorn.
Love moulds the twin one flesh but adds a horn.
May Susy find her horn a horn of plenty.
And little horns surround it 10 or 20.

MADAME BRIGNOLI.—This distinguished Cantatrice, one of Columbia's fair daughters, is making a tour through the principal cities of Europe where she is meeting with great success, and adding every day fresh laurels to her already high reputation as a vocalist. Her silvery soprano is said to have greatly improved both in volume and sweetness, and she bids fair to achieve a niche in the Temple of Fame with the most celebrated Prima Donnas of the world.

Madam Brignoli is now singing in Rome, from thence she will go to Paris, make a short visit to London, and then with her husband, who accompanies her, return to America.

[COMMUNICATED.]
Miss Nancy Hilliard.
Mr. Editor: The Raleigh papers of a recent date announced the sad intelligence that Miss Nancy Hilliard had been stricken down by paralysis, and was lying sick and in a desolate condition.
The object of this communication is to call your attention specially to the subject of the notice referred to, in the hope that, through your paper, some means may be suggested to the Chapel Hill students of this State, by which they may in some measure relieve this good old lady, who in better days so often contributed to their comfort.

I suggest a pecuniary contribution, to be sent to the editor of the Charlotte Observer, to be used by him for the purpose indicated. The amount to be contributed by each person to be one dollar, or a larger sum where the party feels able to make it so, and I appeal to my fellow-students of ante-bellum days when Miss Nancy was almost a part of the University itself and equally as well known in North Carolina, to come to the assistance of the good old woman, now among the very few relics of those by-gone days, when our grand and beloved old University was in its glory.
And when a respectable sum shall have been secured, let it go to her from the "boys," not as a gift of charity, but as a merited, but insufficient reward for generous kindnesses to them in her better days.

Enclosed please find the contribution of CHAPEL HILL STUDENT.

Brick Pomeroy, the scavenger of the political press, after having ill-used and deserted his wife, proven himself a demagogue of the lowest order, and spent $250,000 to establish his Democrat in New York, is on his last financial legs, and will topple over in a few months. When he leaves the journalistic field, he leaves the number of vile, scurrilous sheets that should have found death long before.

MARRIED.
At the residence of Capt. B. J. Shannon, near this city, May 26th, by Rev. L. S. Burkhead, Major E. Woodhouse, and Miss Maggie G. Baxby, Mr. John P. Demarest, of Charlotte, and Elizabeth City papers please copy.

Agents.—H. J. Wolfe, Esq., is our Agent at Monroe, Union county. He is authorized to solicit subscriptions, give receipts, &c.

Special Notices inserted in this Column will be charged 10 cents per line.

All parties ordering the Observer will please send the money for the time the paper is wanted.

Notice.
1st. Those who owe me and are good, I will take dollar for dollar.
2nd. Those that can't pay all I will take part.
3rd. Those that are no account, I will take 5 cents on the dollar.
J. T. BUTLER.

L. Von Meyerhoff of the Charlotte Institute will remain in Charlotte during the vacation, this summer, and will give music lessons at the Charlotte Institute.

Chin Music or Wind Won't Pay Judgments.
I understand there is a good deal of chin music, or wind about my advertisements, and that little five hundred dollars security money I have to pay. The papers are in the hands of Sheriff Alexander, and if any one will go and pay them, assure you it will confer an everlasting favor; also buy all your fine gold and silver watches, clocks, jewelry and spectacles from me. Now do.
Respectfully,
J. T. BUTLER.

Dooley's Yeast Powder is the cheapest, but not lowest priced, Baking Powder. Elegant Biscuits, Rolls, &c., prepared in a few minutes.

No Poisonous Drug.
Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills are prepared with great care and study, in exact accordance with the principles of Chemical compatibility. They are not a "cure all" for all diseases. They are safe. They contain no dangerous drug. Require no change of diet or occupation.

Dr. Tutt's Sarsaparilla and Queen's Delight.
Under the influence of this compound the eye grows clear and sparkling, the complexion like pearl, unsightly blotches, pock marks, worms in the flesh, pimples, and roughness of the skin disappear, and the entire human organization grows redolent with health.

The Proper Time.
To use Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills is when you have Nausea, Loss of Appetite, Yellowed cast of the Skin, Rush of Blood to the head, cold extremities, Ringing in the Ears, pain in the back, side and shoulders, high colored urine, vertigo, and biliousness. They afford prompt relief.

Put Yourself in His Place.
Reader put yourself in the place of a dyspeptic and bilious patient under the old fashioned, regular treatment. Allopathic doses of blue pill, purgatives that go through him with the impetuous rush of an avalanche, opium when he can't sleep and his bowels are constipated, and then under the results of the medicine men upon his stomach, his intestines, his brain, and his brain, all these he has to endure. Is it any wonder that he becomes decrepit, weak, emaciated and dejected? Reader, if you have any "gumption," you would, under any circumstances, and at all hazards, decline to put yourself otherwise than supposed to—in that man's place. Now put yourself in the place of a person with the same complaints, who has had the sense to resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a remedy. He takes that agreeable and potent vegetable tonic and afferative, we will say, three times a day. As a necessary consequence his appetite returns, his digestion improves, his bodily strength increases, his bowels become free and regular, his sleep is sound and refreshing, his spirits grow buoyant, the tinge of health returns to his complexion, and in a few weeks the cure is complete. This is no fancy picture, it is a brief abstract of the experience of thousands of dyspeptic, bilious, debilitated and despairing patients. Is it necessary to ask the reader in which of the two places he would put himself, if afflicted with any disease of the stomach, the bowels, liver or the veins?
