News of the Day.

The International Typographical Union is in session at Montreal.

Caddo, a town in the Indian Territory was seized recently by marauders and held for several days.

Renry Ward Beecher lately made the University at Lexington, a gift of $1000. The Baptist General Association of Virginia has adjourned finally.

All the Republican prisoners in Spain have been released by the Carlists.

The Spanish Cortes is in session. A sepanation of Church and State is advocated. John A. Bingham, has been appointed Minister to Japan.

Record of Crime and Casualties.

Mrs. Demosy Jones and Mrs. Dozim were murdered near Suffolk, Va.

In new York Monday, a youth aged 19 shot and killed his father, who did not live with his family.

The Ote's block in Boston was burned. Loss $500,000.

Miss Mollie Tucker of Burkeville, Va., look poison by mistake and died.

A man with his head and arms chopped off has been found on the beach near Nor-

A negro homicide took place in Bruns wick County, Va., last week.

A murder in high social life was committed at the Sturtevant House in New York on Tuesday. F. M. Walworth shot and killed his father Mansfield Tracy from his wife, the mother of the murderer, and had repeatedly written her threatening letters. It was for this that his son killed him. The murderer walked to the nearest station house and surrendered immediately. The deceased was an author and was a son of the well known author, Chancellor Walworth. A post morten brain weighed fifty ounces. Young Walinformed by the telegraph, as the ground | Press. of defence.

out "the olive branch" to the South- nel through which the thoughts, ern Presbyterians. Will it be ac-who bears the name of Louis Napoleon. He is far better off than the give direction to the current of illustrious Emperor who is pent up in the dark grave at Chiselhurst; "for a living dog is better than a dead lion."

Accounts from various sources represent that the visitors who graced Charlotte with their presence on the 29th, were highly pleased with the entertainment, and bore home with them the happiest impressions of our city. It is gratifying to know this, and to feel that the foundations for a lasting friendship have been haid between Greenville, Spartanburg and Charlotte:

brawling woman," so said Solomon. deeds of evil, the triumphs of war The captain of a scow in New York and the achievements of peace. It the best way to dispose of a brawling and body of the time has form and This he did on Sunday, remarking as is the high province of the independ-Quarrelsome wives take warning!

been formed in this city will no doubt be the means of much good to the merchants. Organized effort is the object in view be consistent with justice, honesty and honor. All-the purposes of this board of trade are consistent with true principles and in harmony with the general interests of the community, and will therefore no doubt prove to be a Beneficial institution.

Postmaster W. W. Holden, of Rawe most cheerfully grant. The Era men refuse to pay the postage on the Observer. It must be that the funds of the Era are running low since Ex-Marshal Carrow lost his fat on vs. John L. Hanock, a wealthy and well-known citizen, for the posage of Hancock's daughter, to tion. Mr. W. D. MeGill who thought he had been harshly treated by the Judge, walked up on the bench and took a seat quite near His Honor, will be taken to Liverpool in the and said, "You are a d—d old rascal, and said, "You are a d—d old rascal, and if it was not for your age, I According to McDonald's story, he

THE PRESS

The Press is acknowledged to be one of the grandest powers existing in the world now-a mighty engine for good or for evil. Every line that is published is read by some eye, sooner or later; and every line that is read must have some conscious or unconscious effect, be that effect great or small, or even infinitesimal. Sending out newspapers among the readers of the world is like the sewing of seed, which will, in the course with them. He was one of the Rogne of time, be sure to spring up and River Indians, and belonged to bear good fruit or evil fruit, as the the tribe then located on Cow Creek. case may be. Then we unto the an active, keen, shrewd looking boy, publisher who publishes things of and with the consent of her husband evil tendency! For every word that took him to raise, with whom he he utters through his types he, will be called to answer before the bar of tended to keep him, he insisted on justice in courts eternal. The Bible having a "Boston" name, as he calteaches us that a man shall be held responsible for "every word that precedeth out his mouth;" how much greater then should be the him after her son-their ages, apresponsibility of those who print their words, and give them to the and this son was J. Knott, better public in an endurable form?

is respected, not as the expression the sports of the chase. On one ocof any individual's opinion, but as the voice of the public-the certain exponent of public opinion. The and loaded his rifle with the intenjournal that is in harmony with the community where it is established, community, if it is fair, honest and has not been seen by them, except outspoken in its utterances. As the voice of the People the Conservative Press of every land is listened to with the deepest attention by the Kings and the Rulers, and those who Walworth. The father had been divorced have been chosen to represent the people. Monarchs and Presidents rejoice in its good will and tremble at its wrath.

If the people are pleased with any measure the rulers will know it through the columns of the honest. and truthful journals of the country examination revealed the fact that his if the wrath of the people is aroused, the government will hear it in worth's counsel will plead insanity, we are the ominous mutterings of the

Not only is the newspaper a power in the land as an exponent of pub-The Northern Presbyterians hold lic opinion, but it is great as a chanopinions and varied experiences of the leading men of the country, find their way to the ear of the There is a man in Richmond, Va., world. The greatest thinkers of the age-those who mould opinion and thought, speak through the pages of the newspapers; and thus great revolutions in science or politics are brought about. Much of the finest talent is engaged in newspaper writing, and that in itself is a vast power, as it is Mind that controls and mankind and shapes the destinies ning the history of the world for the previous day, bringing intelligence from every quarter of the globe, and faithfully recording man's progress in every department of human agency and activity. It is a faithful mirror of the times. reporting with "It is better to dwell in the house- equal care the virtues and the vices top, than in a large room with a of men, the deeds of good and the harbor seems to have thought differ- shows "virtue her own feature, scorn ently. He was of the opinion that her own visage, and the very age spouse, was to throw her overboard. presence." And more than this it he pitched her over in the water, "I ent, honest, fearless press, not only have had enough trouble with her." to "eye Nature's walks, and catch the manners living as they will," The Board of Trade which has vindicate the ways of God to man."

The newspaper does not fulfill its high mission unless it is held sacred to virtue and justice. Each snowy always productive of good, provided sheet as it glides into the press and receives the impression of the type should also receive the stamp of a friend at Lumberton, states that "City of Chatham," lying at the the body of Mr. McDiarmid was great Western Railroad Wharf. She found at 8 o'clock on Sunday mornot for evil. It then becomes a welmonitor and helper" to every human life that falls within the sphere of its influence. Such is the good leigh, informs us that our paper ad- journal. As for the bad newspaper, dressed to the Weekly Era is not ta- those that minister to the evil pasken out, but remains dead in the sions of our nature, that are prostioffice, and requests us to please dis- tuted to base purposes, that obey not continue the same-a request which the dictates of Virtue, Truth and Patriotism,-no words of condemnamen playing croquet is the sublimest spectacle an improverished country ever beheld.

Raleigh has a huge rattle-snake pull the Court's nose, did you say somewhere within the enclosure of it?" McGill, "Yes, d—n you, I did, and I'll do it!" the Cemetery.

WHO RAISED HIM, WHO NAMED HIM AND WHOM HE IS NAMED AFTER. [From the Portland (Oregon) Herald Our reporter has obtained from Mrs. Joseph Knott an old lady living in this city, and nearly seventy years of age, the following account of Captain Jack :-

In the year 1851, while living at Canonville, Douglass county, an Indian boy came to their house, and, speaking the jargon, desired to live remained several years. As soon as the boy was assured that they inled it, and wished to be named after the best looking of Mrs. Knott's children. This being appreclated by the mother, she decided to name parently, being about the same-The boys grew up together, and The newspaper is great, its voice many were the days they spent in casion, after he had been with them sometime, he became offended because he was told to leave the room, tion of shooting Levi Knott, but was discovered in season to prevent his designs. This circumstance led to is a never failing index of the politi- his expulsion from the family, and cal sentiments and feelings of that from that until the present time he in 1855, the year in which he murdered Mrs. Harris, after which Jack went to the Goose Lake country. His mother was a full sister to Rogue River John, who attempted to seize the steamer Columbia while she lay at anchor in the harbor of Crescent City, and also a half sister to the war chief Sam, of the same tribe, and Chief Joe, who received his appellation from having fought General Joe. Lanc.

STATE NEWS.

Monroe and Wadesboro, says the Marble playing is what Monroe turns its attention to principally:

The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons met in Wilmington Tues-

Raleigh is crowded with visitors Gen. Canby and Dr. Thamas, have who are attending the U. S. Circuit two chances for hanging, if turned Court and the Supreme Court of the

The reason that so many people go limping about Shelby, is because some of the bad boys stretched a wire across the street one night last

A lad 15 or 16 years of age, in Orange county, is publishing a little paper called the Tortchlight. The Hillsporo Recorder compliments it. The articles are all original.

The Wilmington Star learns from Mr. James Southgate, the energetic hensions that the civil courts will be directs the muscular energies of agent, that stock to the amount of too slow are no doubt groundless. It some $64,000 has thus far been taken in the Masonic Temple to be erected at Raleigh. About $75,000 or $80,000 The daily paper tells every mor- will be required before the work is commenced.

> A little negro girl in Wilmington came near killing a woman a few days ago, under the following circumstances: The little girl picked up a pistol lying on the mantelpiece and commenced fooling with it. The pistol fired off and the ball took effect in the face of the woman, up the jaw, where it lodged. We earn from the Star.

learn from a perfectly reliable source $250,000. that small-pox has broken out in the vicinity of Roxboro, and is creating a good deal of alarm. It was introduced by Mr. Moses Chambers, who has been for some time a resident of Danville. He and his cook are the only subjects of the disease on his premises. The wife of T. W. but to "shoot folly as it flies, and D. Gray, has also been attacked, besides which there are four or five Wilmington Journal: A telegram from the operator at Lumberton, to Mr. B. Whiting, operator at the C. C. R. W. Depot, in this city, as also a note received here yesterday from ning, about two miles below the board, which, together with the yesspot at which he was drowned. A sel was entirely consumed. The loss come visitor in the family, a friend reward of $50 had been offered for is about $35,000. to our schools and churches, a strong its recovery. The funeral services ally of the government, and "a took place on Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from the Presbyterian Church. The entire town turned out to mourn one whom they had learned to love and esteem so highly during his life and whose untimely death was a blow from which they will not soon recover.

The Danbury (Stokes county) Reporter tells of this festive scepe in the Court House last week: Court in session, His Honor quietly rest-ing himself in a half reclining posiposition. The money that he expects to make out of the new government building contract at Raleigh, will hardly be enough to enable him to run third-rate newsparpers, and support his family too.

The Louisville Courier-Journal thinks the sight of four able-bodied many laying coordinates and well-known citizen, for the possession of Hancock's daughter, to session of Hancock's daughter, to whom Lyndon, then a coachman in the employ of Hancock, was secretly what need about a year ago, was settled by Judge Garry last Wednesday morning. The court permitted the lay to go with either father or husband, as she might select, and she went with her father. Sensible girl.

The Louisville Courier-Journal thinks the sight of four able-bodied many laying coording to McDonald's story, he would pull your nose." His Honor agitated—"Mr. Sheriff, Mr. Sheriff, Come here and take this man (at the same time moving his chair some what nervously further from Mc-Gill) to jail, he is drunk." McGill, "You lie, you old rascal, I'm not drunk." His Honor misunderstanding McGill. Did you say you'd many laying Boless.

Death of a Prominent Spaniard.

The Louisville Courier-Journal thinks the sight of four able-bodied many laying and said, "You are a d—d old rascal, and if it was not for your age, I would pull your nose." His Honor agitated—"Mr. Sheriff, Mr. Sheriff, M and I'll do it!"

FROM THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

BY THE SOUTHERN AND ATLANTIC LINE.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OBSERVER.

NOON DESPATCHES.

Destructive Conflagration at River Point, R. I.-The Entire Village Threatened.

NEW YORK, June 4.—A despatch just received here from Providence, states that a terrible fire is now raging at River Point, R. I. A large print factory and other buildings are in flames and burning fiercely. The fire threatened the destruction of the village. Steam fire engines have been sent from Providence to aid in extinguishing the conflagration. The loss will be very heavy.

THE MODOCS.

Meeting of the Cabinet What is to be Done With the Modocs.

WASHINGTON, June 4.

The President and the members of the Cabinet had an extended conversation on the end of the Modoc campaign, and much praise was bestowed on Gen Davis for his management since his assumption of the command. It was, however, deemed proper to take no formal the disposition to be made of the pate the worst. prisoners; but to await the reception of the official report of Gen. Davis, which will furnish the full particulars of his operations. General Davis will make his report to Gen. Scofield, and probably inquire what disposition he shall make of his prisoners. General Scofield will refer the matter to headquarters here, and the Government will then make its shared in official circles, and the ted was at 4 to 5 per cent. Railroad men are thick between impression is that all of the captured Modocs, who are amenable to 1175; closing at 1171. the civil law, will be handed over to the State authorities. Many of them | rency, sixes, 1131(a). State bonds are already under indictment for that they will speedily get what Gen. Davis promised them—"justice."

Captain Jack and those who participated with him in the murder of Gen. Canby and Dr. Thamas, have over to the civil authorities or if tried by drumbead Court-Martial, to which they are liable for having violated their flag of truce.

Gen. Sherman to-day repeated his opinion that the whole tribe should be turned over to the civil authorities, but expressed fear that the civil dling. courts would work too slow. He says that although he instructed Gen. Gillem to exterminate the Modocs and that the troops could not have the heart to shoot them down when they threw up their arms and asked for quarter. Gen. Sherman's appreis true the despatches say that Capt. Jack is playing the insane dodge, but that won't go down in Oregon,

THE QUAKER CITY.

Burning of a Factory-Heavy Loss.

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—The large four story brick mill, owned by John Brown & Sons, on corner 8th Street in this city, flannel, jeans and shodgoods factory, was burned at an VIENNA.

Illness of the Czar of Russia-Close of the Exhibition in Consequence.

VIENNA, June 4.—His Majesty, the Czar of Russia is ill. The Vienna Exposition festivities have been stopped in consequence.

Burning of a Vessel.

Hamilton, Ont., June 4 .- At midnight last nigh a fire was discovered in the bow and hold of the propeller

Grand Concert in a New York Church,

New York, June 4 .-- A grand concert takes place to-morrow evening at the Church "of the Disciples," on Madison Avenue, at which Miss Clara Louise Kellog and other eminent artists will appear.

Madrid, June 4.-Urbano Roleza. the well known statesman and diplomatist is dead.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

HORRORS.

A Few New York Items. NEW YORK June 4.- This morning an intemperate married man named Patrick Floven, dropped from his chair dead. Albert Binex, a bar keeper, died the said County, and to serve a copy of suddenly, cause unknown.

Fred Engle shot himself in the mouth and will die. Pat Rooney jumped from a Rail-road train and is probably fatally injured. A shooting affray occurred in which two soldiers of Company A, Sixth Cavalry, and Emma Stauly, an inmate of Reed's dance house, were badly wounded.

THE CZAR OF RUSSIA.

His Imperial Highness Better-The Danger Considered Over.

VIENNA, June 4.-The Czar of Russia whose illness was reported in these despatches this morning, is considerably better to-night. The attack was sudden and severe but has not proved as serious as apprehended. It is hoped that in a few days His Imperial Highness will be restored to health.

The Missing Steamer.

NEW YORK, June 4.- Inquiry at the Cromwell Line this afternoon disclosed the intelligence that nothing has yet been heard from or of find Lincolnton unsurpassed, and being the steamer "George Cromwell." She is now nearly 12 days over due at New Orleans, and the friends of the action at this time, in reference to crew and passengers begin to antici-

At Peace With the World.

Paris, June 3.—The Government announces the friendly relations with Germany and the other European powers on the Continent.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, June 4.- Money in the early part of the day was quoted at The views expressed by General 6 to 7 per cent, but later in the after-Sherman scen to be pretty generally noon most of the business transac-

Gold quiet and stendy, at Governments closed firm. Cur- in each of those battles, and what glory continue lifeless; old Tennessee quomuider, and there can be no doubt ted at 791@801; new 791 to 80. O'd Va's 43 to 48; new 50; bid consols 541; deferred 11. Old N. C's 28 to 30; new 171; new July's, S. C's 151 to 161 ; April offered at 25. The stock market closed firmer and in some instances higher. Flour closed irregular for State and Western, rather more inquiry. Southern flour closed quiet. Baltimore Alexandria and Georgetown, mixed, to good superfine, $5.65@$6.00.

Cotton dull, and in buyers favor 18} for low middling; 19} for mid-Savannah—Firm; mid 181; sales 386; receipts 626; stock 16,627.

Charleston—Quiet; mid 18; sales 100; receipts 292; stock 17,271. Baltimore-Firm; mid 19; sales 295 stock 5,042. Norfolk-Steady: low mid 17% sales 230; receipts 868; stock 7,856. Galveston-Firm; good ordinary 14}@15; sales 600; receipts 182; Stock

New Orleans-Firm; mid 18} sales-2,700: receipts 2,383; stock 93,

Mobile-Firm and steady; mid 17%: sales 600; receipts 221. Stock

Losses at Boston Fire-Boston, June 2.—The following is as correct a list as can be ascertained until adjustments are made on insurance losses of companies doing business knocking out a tooth, and ranging early hour this morning. Two hun- in Boston by agencies on fire on dred looms were destroyed and over Friday last; Foreign offices. $310,000: three hundred hands thrown out of New York, $291,000; Pennsylvania. employment. The loss on the build- $180,000; Hartford. $77,000: Provi-The Hillsboro Recorder says: We ing, machinery and stock will reach dence, $19,000. Bangor, $13,000. Micellaneous, $80,000. Total outside of Boston, $970,000.

New Advertisements.

LOCKS.

400 DOZ. Door Locks of nearly every grade. HAND SAWS. 40 doz. Hand Saws from the commonest to the finest quality from 12 to 30 inches. LARGEST STOCK Carpenter's, Builder's and General Hard

Call and examine our Stock, we will of BREM, BROWN & CO.

Importers and Dealers in Hardware.

NOTICE.

MEMBERS, of the Mechanics' Union of Charlotte are requested to meet in the old Odd-Fellow's Hall (Springs Building) Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

IF YOU

Want a Cook, Want a Situation, Want a Salesman, Want a servant girl, Want to rent a store, Want to sell a piano, Want to sell a Horse, Want to lend Money, Want to lend Money,
Want to buy a House,
Want to buy a Horse,
Want to rent a House,
Want to sell a Carriage,
Want a boarding place,
Want to borrow Money,
Want to sell Dry Goods,
Want to sell Groceries,
Want to sell Furniture,
Want to sell Handware Want to sell Hardware, Want to sell Real Estate, Want a job of Carpentering, Want a job of Blacksmithing,

Want to sell Millinery Goods,
Want to sell a house and lot,
Want to find any one's address,
Want to sell a piece of furniture,
Want to buy a second-hand carriage,
Want to sell agricultural implements,
Want to find anything you have lost,
Want to find an owner for anything found,
Advertise in
THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

County of Fairfield COURT OF COMMON PLEAS. John C. Mackerell Plaintiff,

James Donley, defendant. Demand To James Donley Defendant in this Action : You are hereby summoned and required to answer the complaint in this action, which will be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for your answer on the subscribers at their of. fice, No. 6, Law Range, Winnsboro, S. C. within twenty days after the service of this summons exclusive of the day of ser-

If you fail to answer this complaint within the time aforesaid, the plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of Three hundred dollars and costs. Dated 14th May. 1873.

McCANTS & DOUGLASS,

Plaintiff's Attorneys. To the Defendant James Donley : Take notice that the summons in this action, of which the foregoing is a copy, together with the complaint herein, was filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for Fairfield county, State of South Carolina, on the 3rd day of June, A. D. 1873. McCANTS & DOUGLASS. Plaintiff's Attorneys. june 5 eod6w KISTLER HOUSE.

LINCOLNTON, NORTH CAROLINA. ---:0:--:0:---

Proprietress.

THREE Story Brick Building, with A large and comfortable rooms well furnished, on the corner of Main street. and in the most desirable portion of town. convenient to the celebrated Alum Well Persons desiring a summer retreat will more accessible, will find it much cheaper. MRS. L. H. KISTLER,

OUR LIVING AND OUR DEAD:

mar 4-6m

Testimony From the Battle-Fields. Under the above title I propose to publish first in newspaper, and subsequently in book form, a series of articles giving the election of Lincoln in Nov., 1860, to the close of the war between the States in May 1865. My plan embraces three divisions: 1st, Accounts of each skirmish and battle on the soil, or upon the waters of North Carolina. 2nd. Accounts of every battle fought during the war on the soil of any State, in war record of North Carolina from the which any of the troops of North Carolina show what those troops did and suffered and renown our officers and men fairly 3rd. " A Southern Chart for all time."

An explanation of the third division of the proposed plan will be submitted at a later day. That I may accomplish this arduous, but pleasing self-imposed work, I invoke the aid of all my brother soldiers, and ask them to furnish me material which can be arranged and digested so as to form a complete record of the heroic deeds of the sons of North Carolina upon the battle fields of the Confederacy; and especially do ask all who can write to furnish me details of every battle in which they participated, and the part borne by their immediate com-The time may not have come to write his portion of North Carolina's History but it has come to collect material and ar-The living actors will soon pass away, and much valuable information, unless gath ered now, will be lost forever. Hence, after waiting for several years for some one more competent to undertake the task I have determined to devote the remaining years of my life to this labor of love.

vield to none in love for my native State or in admiration for the gallant men who have shed imperishable glory upon her. I prefer to give these accounts first in newspaper form, in order that omission and errors, if any occur, may be pointed out and corrected before the work shall pass into more enduring form which it will assume, should it prove what I desire to make it, a valuable acquisition to the war record of the South. Several prominent actors in the war have already promised their co-operation and the valuable aid of their pens to lessen my labors and to make the work complete and I hope to enlist an army of valuable aid of their pens to lessen my labors and to make the work complete, and I hope to enlist an army of valuable co-laborers in the good cause as readily as did North Carolina enlist her sons to fight the battles of the "Lost Cause. General officers from other States, who commanded North Carolina troops, are respectfully asked to give me all the information in their possession, relative to the conduct and bearing of those troops. In endeavoring to do justice to the soldiers of my native State, I certainly shall most carefully abstain from doing injus tice to those from any other. My brethren of the press will confer s favor by giving the whole, or such part of this Prospectus as they may deem proper, one or more insertions, calling attention Address "Our Living and our Dead, Newbern, N. C. The first number will be issued about the 10th of June. Subscription price $2 per year in advance.

STEPHEN D. POOL. Late Colonel 10th Reg't N. C. S. J. june 5 1m

ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY NIGHT. N entertainment will take place at Miss

A Hattie Moore's School Room, in rear of the Episcopal Church, on Friday evening at 81 o'clock The entertainment will be of a highly varied and interesting character. ject is to assist in building a monument to the Confederate dead of Mecklenburg; Admission 50 cents payable at the door. B. N. SMITH,

COMMISSION MERCHANT, AND DEALER IN

Groceries, Country Produce, &c.,

H AVING moved across the Street imme diately opposite the Market House, where our rents are only one-half, of our former place, enables us to offer still more flattering inducements to our customers than ever before. We shall continue to deal in all kinds of Family Groceries, all kinds of Company December 1 inners, kinds of Country Produce, pure Liquors, &c. All produce consigned to us will receive our personal attention and the best prices the market affords guaranteed.

In returning our thanks for the very flattering and unexpected patronage be stowed in the past, we hope by renewed energy, reduced rents, working for small profits, keeping reliable goods, and fair, open and honest dealing in the future, to merit a liberal share of the patronage of the city and surrounding country. the city and surrounding country.