The piece about the pulling of Judge Cloud's nose referred to in yesterday's paper was accidentally omitted. It appears to day. The hair has been a shield to his nose.

A Cabinet meeting has been held with regard to the question, what shall be done with the Modocs? The result is, that the Government will hold them as rebels against its authority, not as recognized belligerents, and deal with them accordingly. The plain English of this is that the United States means to "put a head on" the Indian Bucks, and place their widowed squaws and fatherless papooses into the dreary wastes of some barren reservation to starve.
