THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

The telegraph last night informs us that the grand Religious Conference, to be held in New York city in October, is beginning to attract great attention throughout the world.

This Conference will be the grandest religious meeting ever held in the world; and grand objects are had in view. Principal among these objects is, first, the promotion of Evangelical Union among the various denominations, with a view to greater activity in Christianizing mankind.

These are the high and important objects of the Conference; and it is to be hoped most ardently that the meeting will result in their accomplishment, sooner or later.

OPPOSITION TO RADICALISM.

If reform is to be brought about in the government of this country, the party in power must first be ousted. That is the first step; and a most difficult one it is.

A movement is going on now in the west, looking to a combination of the Democrats, Liberal-Republicans and Patrons of Husbandry against the Radicals.

THE AIR-LINE RAILROAD.

A paragraph is going the rounds of the newspapers to the effect that the eight million of dollars invested in the Air-Line Railroad was all Northern capital.

The completion of the Air-Line is at length accomplished. The regular train goes through to Atlanta today, leaving at 4:45 a. m., and reaching the Gate City of the South, at 11:55 p. m.

Personal Intelligence.

Gov. Graham is at the Cleveland Springs. Mr. Joseph Arch sailed from Ireland for this country on August the 28th. Col. E. F. Armfield was present in the city yesterday.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The reported massacre of Troops at Fort Sill was a falsehood. The count in Massachusetts now stands: Butler 152; Washburn, 222.

The laborers' strike in Charleston has ended. A compromise was effected. A new bale of cotton has been shipped from Wilson N. C., to New York.

Three $200 counterfeit bills have been received at the sub-Treasury Department, New York.

The Democratic State Convention met at Worcester, Mass., on the 3rd inst. On an informal ballot for a candidate for Governor, Wm. Gaston, of Boston, received 308 votes out of 451.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

It seems now to be conceded that Joshua T. Erwin, who says he murdered Nathan, knows more about the murder than was suspected.

Grange Items.

The first result which the Granges of the North are seeking to bring about, is cheap transportation. Dr. Barksdale is the State Lecturer in South Carolina.

Railroad Notes.

Rockingham county is agitating the subject of a narrow gauge road from Reidsville to Madison. The long trestle on the Carolina Central railway, near Standback's Crossing, has been completed.

STATE NEWS.

Guilford court is in session. A large cotton factory is to be started early on the North Carolina Railroad by Mr. Page.

The number of scholars at the Methodist college in Greensboro are daily increasing. The Academy at Little River, Orange county, has been burned by a fire on Monday last.

The State Life Insurance company furnished the largest portion of the funds necessary to carry forward to completion the plans of the State Agricultural Society.

James L. Morrow, for many years Superintendent of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, has severed his connection with that road.

On the 10th inst., a Fair-Players' convention will be held in New Hanover. The object of the meeting is to continue the work of resisting what is considered an unfair, illegal and oppressive increase of taxation in the county.

SOUTH CAROLINA NOTES.

A new paper called "The Sun" has been started in Columbia. Crops are reported good in the various sections of the State.

Dr. Hooper preached in the Baptist church in Chester on Sunday morning. The library of the South Carolina University is one of the best selected in the Southern country.

Rev. L. Ker, who resided in the vicinity of Rock Hill, died on Saturday last, and was buried with Masonic honors by the Rock Hill Lodge on Sunday. Rev. Ker was a Presbyterian clergyman, and occasionally officiated, but we believe was not in the regular discharge of pastoral duties at the time of his death.

The Late Hon. D. M. Barringer.

He was born in Cabarrus county, North Carolina, in 1807, graduated at the University of North Carolina in 1826; he selected the law as a profession, and commenced practice in 1829.

In 1835 he was a member of a convention to amend the State Constitution. He was a representative in Congress from 1842 to 1849, when he was appointed by President Taylor, Minister to Spain, and continued in that position by President Fillmore.

THE CROWDED CONDITION OF THE INSANE ASYLUM.—Almost daily the Superintendent of the Insane Asylum of this city is made to feel the necessity that exists for additional accommodations for this class of unfortunate in the State.

An interesting educational meeting was held in Raleigh Monday night. The establishment of a graded school at Raleigh is contemplated.

THE GRANGER AND THE WORKING MAN.

The Search for the Polar. The Evangelical Alliance. Fire in Trenton—Destruction of Blooded Horses.

THE GRANGE POLICY.

New York, Sept. 4.—A communication has been received by the President of the New York Workingmen's Association from the Illinois State Farm Association, regarding the proposed action of the grangers of the West, in the fall campaign.

There are some trustees of Wake Forest College; out of this number only six voted, for Mr. Holden, two voted against him, and two refused to vote; only ten trustees were present.

RELIGIOUS.

New York, Sept. 4.—The grand Evangelical Alliance, which will be held in this city from the first to the 20th of October, is attracting great attention.

Polar Expedition.

The Herald to-day publishes a letter from on board the United States steamer Junata at Holstein, Greenland. The Junata has been ten days within port, being detained by dense fogs, rendering navigation dangerous.

NEW JERSEY.

Trenton, Sept. 4.—A fire this morning destroyed the stables of Henry N. Smith. Eight blooded horses perished in the flames; their value aggregated about $25,000.

Chester and Lenoir Railroad.

Mr. A. J. Davega, President of the Chester and Lenoir Railroad, returned home on Sunday morning from a trip of several weeks duration in North Carolina.

MARKETS.

New York, Sept. 4.—Money was easier during the morning at 5 to 7 but in the evening the rate was advanced to sharp 7, and finally it closed at 6.

Trades.

Grant, or a man of the turf, says the Raleigh Sentinel, seeing the ward heading this article would say it indicated an editorial on railing, or something pertaining to the turf, and we admit the name "Trades" is associated with the turf.

We found the Baptists of Warren, and there are a great many of them, all indignant at the appointment or election of Gov. Holden as a trustee of Wake Forest College.

There are some trustees of Wake Forest College; out of this number only six voted, for Mr. Holden, two voted against him, and two refused to vote.

The Theft of Postage Stamps by Radical Party Managers. A Gordonsville correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch exposes the course of the Radical managers of the Virginia campaign in levying tribute on United States office-holders to aid in carrying a State election.
