

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

JOS. P. CALDWELL, Local Editor.

M. A. PARK, Business Manager.

Tuesday, October 21, 1873.

LOCAL DOTS.

They who have overcoats put them on yesterday.

There was but little business activity in Charlotte yesterday.

Small boys are drawing on their shoes and socks for the winter.

Fire wood for sale in this market yesterday; fires were absolutely necessary to comfort.

During the past week the police of Charlotte made 6 arrests; 1 white and 5 colored.

The mosquitoes have "folded their tents like the Arabs, and have silently stole away."

Some of the trees are almost naked; the change which has been wrought within the past three days is quite perceptible.

Several lawyers and other citizens of Charlotte, left for Statesville yesterday afternoon to attend the Federal Court, which is in session there this week.

Pay Up.—Money is needed to complete the improvements on the Grounds of the Fair of the Carolinas, and subscribers to the Fair are requested to pay their subscriptions to Mr. Vail as early a day as possible.

Cotton Last Week.—During the week ending last Saturday night, 1,180 bales of cotton were sold in Charlotte. This is doing remarkably well, considering that, in consequence of the low prices, such farmers as can are holding back their cotton.

Glee Club.—Notice.—We are requested to say by Prof. Phifer, that all the members of the Glee Club, are expected to assemble at his house to-night at 7 o'clock for the purpose of re-organization, &c. A full attendance is earnestly desired. Persons wishing to join are cordially invited to be present.

Change of Schedule.—Yesterday a change was made in the schedule of the passenger train on the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad. Going north the train now leaves Charlotte at 3 p. m., and reaches Statesville at 6:35 p. m. Returning leaves Statesville at 6:25 a. m. and arrives in Charlotte at 10 a. m.

The Weather.—After a long dry and dusty spell of weather, rain began falling in this place on Sunday afternoon, and continued to fall with a brief interval, the greater part of that night. It ceased, however, before morning, and our citizens awoke to find a damp, chilly morning, almost wintry in its coldness. Heavy clothing and overcoats were hauled out, and were the prominent features of yesterday, which continued cold and damp throughout.

Second Presbyterian Church.—The Commission appointed by the Presbytery of Mecklenburg for the purpose of organizing a Second Presbyterian Church in the City of Charlotte, will meet at 3 P. M., today in the Presbyterian Church, for the purpose of receiving members, either on examination or by certificate, and if the way be clear, of proceeding to the organization of the church.

Charlotte Gentlemen in the Federal Court.—Some eight or ten gentlemen of this city will leave this afternoon for Statesville, to stand a trial in the United States District Court in session there, for some alleged irregularities in the holding of an election in the city of Charlotte some two years ago, these gentlemen having been the managers of the election in Charlotte Township. The defendants are represented by Hons. W. M. Shipp, H. W. Guion and D. G. Fowle.

Personal.—Col. Joseph N. Yates, of Charleston, has been sojourning in our city for the last few days. The Col. is well known for his gallant defence of Fort Sumter and Battery Wagner. His regiment was the gallant 1st Regulars, which, after the evacuation of Charleston, added to laurels won in the defence of that city, glory achieved at Averysboro and Bentonsville in both of which engagements Col. Yates bore a noble part.

M. J. McSweeney, Esq., editor of the Fayetteville Eagle, was in Charlotte yesterday. He left in the afternoon on the Statesville train.

J. B. Carpenter, Esq., editor of the West Carolina Record, of Rutherfordton, was registered yesterday at the Charlotte Hotel.

The Davenport Brothers.—This troupe will give an exhibition at Miller's Hall in Charlotte, on Thursday night next, as will be seen from an advertisement in another column. Their wonderful and startling exhibitions have excited the liveliest interest everywhere, and they have drawn crowded houses in New York and other large cities of the United States. Prof. Fay and Heller will also favor the public with experiments in prestidigitation. These experiments as performed by these gentlemen are pronounced by all who have seen them as exceedingly beautiful and interesting. The troupe was in Raleigh last week, and drew crowded houses each night. Our Raleigh contemporaries speak of them in language of enthusiastic praise, and we believe we will not mislead the public and the people of Charlotte in promising them an entertaining performance on Thursday night. We hope they will have a good house.

Mayor's Court.—Miss Alice Mosely, a brunette dame, (vulgarily called black) was before His Honor yesterday for carrying off an axe to which she had no legal right or title. She was bound over to Court to answer for the little indiscretion.

Last Night.—The Friends of Temperance performed a temperance drama last night in their hall. A considerable crowd had gathered to witness it, and the performance is spoken of by those present as quite creditable to the actors. After the drama speeches were made by Rev. Messrs Pierce and Halton, and perhaps others.

The Lecture To-night.—We feel sure that none of our literary-loving citizens will fail to attend the lecture of Hon. A. M. Waddell to-night at the Charlotte Institute for young ladies. The speaker is a gentleman of large learning and deep research, and something can be learned from him. The admittance is free.

Our Fair.—The Lincoln Progress of the 18th has the following to say: "The State Fair having proved a good thing we hope that the managers of the Fair of the Carolinas will exert themselves to make the Fair at Charlotte worthy of the great name they have assumed. It can be done, if the right spirit is infused into the people of this part of the country, and a due degree of liberality is manifested by those most deeply interested in its success."

A Mecklenburger's Luck at the Gift Concert.—Our friend E. C. Davidson, Esq., drew a fine cow in the Grand Gift Concert at Raleigh last week, which he immediately sold on the ground for the sum of $45. The ticket which drew the cow was number 216. We do not know whether Mr Davidson's luck in the Concert is in any way due to his being a stranger or not, but if he can make it appear that it is, why, we'll send up our name. As it is, we rejoice that he rejoices.

Board of Aldermen.—The Board of Aldermen met last night in regular session. We learn that a resolution was introduced and passed, giving to each policeman ten dollars a month additional wages for the next five months, beginning on the 1st of November.

A committee was appointed to test the practicability of lighting the streets with oil.

The report of the Finance Committee in reference to issuing bonds, was deferred until a call meeting. The full proceedings will appear in the OBSERVER in a day or two.

The Approaching Fair.—Mr T. J. Vail, the energetic and efficient Secretary of the Fair of the Carolinas, is much encouraged about the prospects of the forthcoming Fair. While in Raleigh last week attending the State Fair, Mr. Vail conferred with many of the exhibitors there, and was told by nearly all of them that they would certainly be in attendance on the Fair of the Carolinas, and would bring articles for exhibition. He had, while there, promises of stock, native wines, agricultural implements, machinery, specimens of fruits, farm products, &c. &c., from various gentlemen, who, even if they do not come themselves, will send their articles to our Fair. In addition to this, letters are pouring in daily from all parts of the country, from gentlemen who wish to attend and put on exhibition different kinds of articles at the Fair of the Carolinas. Only yesterday letters were received from a party in New York State and from a gentleman in Wisconsin, asking for premium lists and expressing the intention of the writers to attend our Fair and compete for the premiums on certain articles.

Indeed, everything points to the fact that the approaching Fair will be a glorious success. The managers are working with a will, and no stone will be left unturned which could induce visitors and exhibitors to attend, or to make them enjoy themselves while here. Let us see in Charlotte at that occasion, people from every section of North and South Carolina. Remember the 25th of November.

Scribner's Monthly for November begins a new volume. Edward King's carefully and profusely illustrated paper on Old and New Louisiana, in the Great South Series, is remarkable for its calm and dispassionate statement of the actual state of affairs in New Orleans and Louisiana generally. Two American serial stories are begun. Katherine Earle, by Adeline Trafton, (author of "The American Girl Abroad," to run through the year, and the other "Earthen Pitchers," by Rebecca Harding Davis, which will be concluded within three or four numbers. Mr. Froude's historical sketch of an "English Abbey," is also here begun; and in Stedman's series on the "Victorian Poets," there is an admirable paper on the "most inspired of women," Elizabeth Barrett Browning. In the same number appears a biographical sketch of Stedman, by A. R. McDonough, with portrait. In the series of Younger American Authors, Professor Newcomb gives an interesting account of the making of the new great telescope at Washington; there is an illustrated story by Edward King, "Only half a Woman," a story by Louise Chandler Moulton, "For Pastime," and verses by George MacDonald, Celia Thaxter, H. H. Margaret J. Preston, and Richard Watson Gilder. Dr. Holland's Topics of the Time are "A Greeting to our English Readers," "St. Nicholas," "The New York Observer," and "Old Types." The Old Cabinet is written "In the Woods." The Departments of Home and Society, Culture and Progress, Nature and Science and Etchings have their usual variety of contents.

Scribner's for December will have a new dialect poem by Bret Harie; and to the January number he will contribute a Christmas story, entitled "How Old Man Plunkett went Home."

To the Ladies.—The greatest bargains ever offered, can now be had at my establishment, in Boy's, Youth's and Children's Clothing. Also, Beaver Tailmas, all of which I have just received, and are made in the very latest styles for this coming season. Would be pleased to have you call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Very Respectfully, B. SHRIER.

This Week.—Charlotte is pretty well supplied with amusements this week. Last night we had the drama by the Friends of Temperance; to-night Hon Alfred M. Waddell of Wilmington, delivers his address on the early history of North Carolina; Thursday night the Davenport Brothers and Professor Fay will give one of their wonderful performances, and on Saturday, day and night, the Great Eastern Circus will furnish enjoyment to circus-going. (And then one or more marriages which we leave out of the question, doubting the propriety of classing them under the head of amusements.) This week will be quite gay in the way of amusements for Charlotte; for, unfortunately, as a rule, our city is painfully dull in this respect.

Diad.—At Lenoir, N. C., on the night of the 18th inst., of brain fever, Capt. Larken W. Gilbert, of the firm of Wallace & Gilbert of that place. Capt. G. was about 34 years of age, and had risen from obscurity to a prominent place in the community in which he lived.

City Schools.—The school authorities of Charlotte expect to open Public City Schools about the first of November, in which several lady teachers will be needed. Applications will be received by Rev. J. B. Boone until next Thursday, (23d) 12 o'clock. All teachers will be required to have a certificate from the Board of Examiners, and to furnish such testimonials as will show them to be well-qualified teachers. Experience, efficiency and permanence will be considered.

The books will be open for the enrollment of pupils. All parents and guardians who desire to send to the schools, are requested to enter their children—giving names, sex and ages of children, and name of parent or guardian. All children between the ages of six and twenty-one will be admitted free of charge. Further notice will be given of the time of opening the schools.

J. B. BOONE, for Com.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Joseph Starks, of South Carolina, sentenced to 8 years in the Penitentiary for Ku Kluxing, has been pardoned.

Alonzo Buchanan, a printer, was killed by the cars at Atlanta, Ga., on Saturday. Both legs were cut off near the trunk.

It is rumored that Mr A. H. Stephens intends to start a new daily paper at Washington.

Hon Horatio Seymour was on Saturday made candidate for the First Assembly District by the Democrats of Oneida county, N. Y.

Capt T C Evans, formerly of the Raleigh Era and now correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, has in contemplation the starting at some point in this State, of a paper to be called Evans' Independent.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

$125,000 in silver were shipped from Europe to American on Saturday.

There were thirty-one yellow fever deaths in Memphis on Saturday.

The Republican State Committee of Iowa, report a loss in sixty-two counties of over 35,000 majority.

The Bostonians propose to change the name of Charlestown to the Bunker Hill District.

The Sioux and Panca Indians of Dakota Territory had a fight on the 15th and 20 warriors were killed.

The prosecution in the Stokes case has closed, reserving the right to call further witnesses.

The Democrats of Ohio, in addition to electing their candidate for Governor, also elected a Democratic Legislature.

The steamer Mary E. Poe, was burned on Friday last above Ocoola, Tenn., on the Mississippi River, and eight lives were lost.

The ritual and manual of the Order of the Patrons of Husbandry is to be translated into German, and German Granges are to be established in German settlements.

The British American Mixed Commission has disallowed all claims arising through the destruction of Columbia by Sherman's army, the decision seeming to hinge upon the testimony adduced to show that Columbia was not destroyed by order of General Sherman.

J. C. Cloud, the oarsman, who started from Philadelphia some three months since to row to New Orleans by canals and rivers, died, Tuesday last, five miles above Plaquemine. Cloud was found in his boat in an almost exhausted condition on Monday, and died next day.

A discovery is made respecting civil rights in Arkansas. The expulsion of a person of color from a first-class railway car developed the fact that the statute, by the omission of the word "not," negatives itself, for it reads as follows: "No person shall make any rules which shall affect all persons alike without regard to race or color." This requires, if any thing, railway and other corporation to discriminate against race and color.

I HAVE analyzed the Whiskey under the brand of "B. SELECT," controlled by Messrs Walter D. Blair & Co., Richmond, Va., and find it free from Fossil Oil, and other impurities, and recommend its use for medicinal and family purposes.

Safe Cure.—The testimony of all who have tried it, is that "Medicated Honey" is without an equal as a remedy for cough, colds, and bronchial and lung troubles which prevail at this season of the year, and which so often prove the foundation of consumption, simply by neglecting the preliminary cough at its first appearance. It is pleasant to the taste, prompt and certain in its action. For sale by all druggists in Charlotte. oct. 8-4f.
