LOCAL AFFAIRS: JOS. P. CALDWELL, Local Editor.

Trade was dull again yesterday. Only a few cotton wagons appeared on the streets.

Messrs Stenhouse & Macaulay advertise that they will ship cotton direct from Charlotte to Liverpool.

The OBSERVER to-morrow will contain an account of the tournament at Statesville yesterday.

Preparations for the Fair are going on every day at the Fair Ground. The Executive Committee are displaying great zeal and energy in perfecting the arrangements.

The punishment of Ed Allison, the negro boy who threw a stone at a little girl and injured her, is a warning to boys not to throw stones at others.

Race Track.—Several gentlemen were out driving yesterday evening on the Fair Grounds, and report the track in excellent condition. It has been put in thorough order.

For the South Carolina Fair.—A large crowd of people left on the South train last night for the State Fair now in progress at Columbia. Among the number was the President of the Fair of the Carolinas.

Gratifying.—Gentlemen just over from Greenville, S. C., say that a large number of visitors to our Fair may be expected from Greenville and surrounding country. They will meet with a cordial reception, we are sure, from the citizens of Charlotte.

Nuisance.—That ladder that was left standing on the pavement against F. M. Shelton's furniture store all last night. Dozens of noses may have been broken against this unlawful obstruction of the sidewalk, for all we know. Down with it, at night!

Correction.—In the notice of Assistant Marshals in yesterday's paper, the name of Dr. J. R. Cureton, of Lancaster, as Assistant Marshal at the Fair, ought to have been Dr. T. K. Cureton, and W. J. Stowe should be W. I. Stowe, and Col. J. H. Erwin of Spartanburg, should be Col. J. H. Erwin. The errors were occasioned by careless proof-reading.

Demorest's Young America for December is full of Christmas novelties, with other entertaining features for the juveniles. Some rare attractions are promised for the New Year, among which is a beautiful Chromo and a series of graphic cartoons illustrating the evils of intemperance with sketches by Dr. Deems. Young America is to be offered at $1.00 hereafter, with a beautiful Oil Chromo to each subscriber as a premium. Address, W. Jennings Demorest, 638 Broadway, N. Y.

Grangers.—All the officers of the N. C. State Grange will be present at the Fair. And many others from various points. Mr. Adams, the Master of the National Grange, is certainly coming. So he writes. The gathering of the Grangers of North and South Carolina will constitute one of the special features of our approaching Fair. The officers of the Grange are in hopes that every Patron of Husbandry who can will put in an appearance here during Fair week.

A Grange Magnate.—Mr. T. A. Thompson, Lecturer of the National Grange, has by means of a letter to a gentleman in this city, signified his purpose to spend this evening in Charlotte; and go on to Columbia to-morrow morning, to be present at the State Fair. He may be expected on the Northern train to-night. Mr. Thompson is, we believe, a resident of Plainview, Minn. He has won considerable distinction in the discharge of his duties as National Lecturer of the Grange.

Mayor's Court.—Clark Hall was arraigned on a charge of being a general nuisance and disturber of the peace, all of which was fully sustained and he (Clark) fined $10 and cost, and ordered to go on his way and transgress no more.

Harriet Morrow, col., well known in police circles, was again before his honor, charged with creating a disturbance. Fined $1 and cost.

Ed Allison, col., a small boy 9 or 10 years of age, for throwing a stone at, and injuring a little girl, the daughter of Mrs. Theresa Wilson. After paying costs, was bound over to court.

SAMPLE & ALEXANDER HAVE the finest, best and cheapest stock of Ladies', Gents', Misses and Children's Books and Shoes in the city; which we are selling at very low prices for cash. Call and see before buying. Respectfully, SAMPLE & ALEXANDER.

Personal.—Col. Frank Cox, President of the Greenville Agricultural and Manufacturing Association, and his brother, Trench C. Cox, Esq., were registered at the Central yesterday.

Charles R. Jones, Esq., of the Statesville Intelligencer, and Mr. John D. Williams, Jr., of Fayetteville, were in the city yesterday.

Carolina Central Railway.—We are informed that the running of the trains on this road will be reversed during Fair week. They will come in in the morning and go out in the evening. This will be sufficient to accommodate the public. All the roads will make liberal and satisfactory arrangements with the Executive Committee for the transportation of visitors to and fro.

Beware!—The solemn visaged gentleman whom we saw yesterday at twilight perambulating the back street that leads from his home to the bar-room, with his eyes fixed steadfastly on the pavement, his hands in his pockets, his shoulders slumped, his hair uncombed, and his hat drawn down over his eyes, would't care if money was less tight.

Robbery.—The Railroad Depot at Rock Hill was entered last Saturday night, and the safe robbed of its contents, $3 75. The receipts for the day had been shipped to headquarters, fortunately for the railroad company. No clue to the burglar exists. In breaking open the safe, he injured himself, as blood was found on the floor. We hear of robberies and burglaries from all sides. We warn our people to be careful to lock up their houses at night, as bands of experts in the profession of thieving, are going about the country, and advise the police to keep a close eye on all suspicious looking strangers who stop over in Charlotte.

Exhibitors.—T. L. Vail, Esq., Secretary of the Fair, informs us that he is in receipt of many letters from persons who propose to exhibit articles at our approaching Fair; among others, a gentleman from Dalton, Ga. A lady of Raleigh will exhibit a beautiful silk quilt, of exquisite design. James L. Norwood, Esq., of Hillsboro, will be on hand with five head of horses, two pairs of sheep, field crops, &c., he will also enter five acres clover, one acre clover, and best bale clover. Mr. Norwood wins the premiums wherever he exhibits. He runs one of the model farms of the State, and is a most successful stock raiser.

Interesting Facts.—For the past ten days, Mr. James C. Moore has been engaged in taking a census of the young persons of the white race in Charlotte between the ages of six and twenty-one years. He has completed his task, done for the school committee of Charlotte Township, and the result is as follows: WARD No. 1.—Males, 158; Females, 159; Total, 317. WARD No. 2.—Males, 53; Females, 71; Total, 124. WARD No. 3.—Males, 90; Females, 106; Total, 196. WARD No. 4.—Males, 110; Females, 109; Total, 219. Grand Total, 646 Males, 664 Females, 1310.

The Official Report of the Execution of Insurgent Chiefs in Cuba.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Nov. 4.—To His Excellency, the Captain General:—At 8 o'clock this morning there were shot six in this city for being traitors to their country and for being insurgent chiefs. The following persons, styling themselves patriot Generals, Bornabe Varona alias Bambeta, General of Division, Pedro Cespedes, Commanding General of Crenfuegos, General Jesus Del Sol and Brigadier General Washington Ryan. The executions took place in the presence of the whole corps of volunteers, the force of regular infantry and the sailors from the fleet. An immense concourse of people also witnessed the act. The best of order prevailed. The prisoners met their death with composure.

BURIAL OF HARDEE.—Gen. Hardee's funeral took place in Selma last Saturday. A dispatch dated Selma, Nov. 8, says: There was a spontaneous outpouring of our whole people to-day to receive the remains of Gen. Hardee.—The military, fire department, municipal authorities, bar, clergy and people did honor to the memory of the illustrious dead. The bells were tolling during the day and business suspended. The funeral procession was the largest ever witnessed in this State. There was not a formality but a genuine grief in the demonstration. The General's old black war horse, "Shiloh," with empty saddle and his Confederate grey coat upon it; brought tears to the eyes of many a man who had seen the loved form of the gallant dead on the fields of carnage and the smoke of battle. He was buried this evening at four o'clock. The burial ceremony at the Episcopal Church were performed by the Rev. Dr. Clements, CAROLINA CENTRAL RAILWAY Stockholders' Meeting.—The B. B.'s Meet in Secret.—A Volcanic Session.—Fighting over the Spoils.—Heavy Issue of Second Mortgage Bonds Threatened.

The stockholders of the Carolina Central Railway Company held a special meeting at the First National Bank in this city yesterday. Application was made for the admission of a reporter of the Press, and a resolution to that effect was offered by Mr. I. N. Hopkins, of Baltimore, but the resolution was promptly slaughtered, only the mover and Messrs. H. G. Onderdonk, of New York, and J. S. Dickinson, of Baltimore, coming to its support. We are enabled, however, through the courtesy of several well-posted gentlemen, to give an outline of the proceedings. And what we publish, we wish to say at the outset, is not mere rumor but reliable information. The proceedings, we learn, were "from grave to gay, from lively to ting," that the session was of a decidedly vesuvian-volcanic, patent eruptive style. The bondholders (sometimes called the B. B.'s for short) are divided into two factions—the majority, in amount of bonds or stock represented, being headed by Messrs. Watson Matthews and President C. H. Roberts, and a strong minority being led by the veteran Onderdonk and the more youthful and impetuous Hopkins. All the Matthews propositions were carried in the meeting yesterday; and our advisers tell us that they provide for the issuance of second mortgage bonds to the extent of $3,500,000; these bonds to be used in raising funds to complete the road. The opponents of the Matthews interest assert that this is a scheme for loading down the road with an immense pile of "bonds, with the hope that the low prices at which they may be offered will induce parties to furnish the necessary funds to complete the road. The opposition insist, too, that securities enough have already been issued to complete the work; and they charge that the dilemma in which the company now finds itself is due to inefficient management and other causes. Not only in the meeting, but on the streets, there was no mingling of words, by the opponents of the Matthews faction. In the meeting, we are told, such choice expressions as "fraud," "dishonesty," "attempted fraud," &c., were "thick as leaves in Vallambrosa." It fact, it seems pretty well established that such an exchange of compliments has not been seen or heard in Wilmington for "time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary." How the fight may terminate we cannot say. New York holds a controlling interest; but the representatives of the "Monumental City," ably seconded by Judge Onderdonk, are full of pluck and energy; and they will not submit without a desperate struggle. It has not been customary in this country for stockholders' meetings to be held in secret, and we regret that the custom was violated yesterday.—Wilmington Star, 9th.

CUBA. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Nothing of marked importance has occurred today with reference to the Virginian affair, with the exception of a dispatch from Minister Sickles, notifying the Secretary of State that the Spanish Government had telegraphed to the Captain General to stay all further proceedings in the case of the captives now in custody. Minister Sickles was to have had an interview to-day with the Spanish Minister of foreign affairs, but whether it took place was not known at a late hour this evening. The execution, which recently occurred, is condemned in official circles as brutal, when severe." To say they were stormy would be drawing it rather mild; for we have the best of reasons for saying the facts attending it became known. Should it appear that international law has been violated, immediate measures will be taken to maintain the dignity of this government, but the Secretary of State has no idea the Castelar Government will be slow to make due reparation, as far as its power; judging from the friendly disposition toward the United States, and the expressed desire to cultivate more intimate relations of peace. The Secretary of State is represented as saying to-day, during an interview with reference to the reported execution of Santa Rosa, that he had not been officially advised of it, but that Santa Rosa had given a great deal of trouble. He was once before condemned to death as a pirate. After consuming a ream of paper, and sending and receiving numerous cable dispatches, this government had secured his release only a few weeks ago. Santa wrote to the Secretary saying he owed the preservation of his life to him, therefore, the Secretary thought Santa Rosa was not wise in again pirating his safety. KEY WEST, FLA., Nov. 10.—A letter from Havana, dated Nov. 4, gives the following account of the execution of the Virginian prisoners, at Santiago: The four prisoners, were shot at the place made famous by previous executions, and in the usual manner—kneeling close to the slaughter house wall. All marched to the spot with firmness. Behmetta and Ryan showed marked courage; although the former was slightly affected toward the last. The two others quite broke down before they were bandaged, and Ryan kept up to the last, and never flinched a moment, and died without fear or regret. Behmetta and Ryan were killed at the first discharge.

FRANCE. PARIS, Nov. 10.—The committee representing the French residents of San Francisco, called presented an address. The ex-President in his remarks in reply, told his visitors that the Monarchists had suffered a check and that the Conservative Republic was assured.

The anticipated compromise will be offered by the Right and will be accepted; perhaps with some modifications; both sides seem disposed to pursue a conciliatory course. The excitement here and at Versailles is subsiding, and it is believed the crisis is over.

Funeral Obsequies of Mrs. Lee. RICHMOND, Nov. 8.—The funeral obsequies of Mrs. Mary Custis Lee, took place yesterday in the Memorial Chapel at Lexington. Her three sons, W. H. F. Lee, Custis Lee and Robert E. Lee, Jr., and her daughter were present, beside a large concourse of friends. Her remains were deposited by the side of her husband's in the memorial room. Mrs. Lee was 69 years of age. Business was entirely suspended in Lexington, many places being draped in mourning, and the obsequies were very imposing.

Notice.—Election. To the Citizens of Charlotte: A special session of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Charlotte, held October 28th, 1873, it was ordered that an election be held on the question of issuing $30,000 of Bonds of the city of Charlotte, as per charter of the city, for the purpose of retiring and paying off the floating debt of the city. This plan of settlement is deemed most advisable by the Board, inasmuch as it will not necessitate an increase of the regular annual city tax. The future revenues of the city at the present rate of taxation on property being deemed sufficient to pay the interest regularly upon all of the bonds hereafter outstanding, including as well those now proposed, as those already out. (Besides the ordinary expenses of the city.) If the citizens shall decline to vote the bonds now proposed, it will become necessary to levy an additional special tax, or the city will be compelled by the courts to levy an additional tax for the purpose of paying off its floating debt. The Board, therefore, recommends that the citizens vote to authorize the issue as above said. In pursuance of the above order the citizens of this city are hereby notified that an election will be held on Saturday, the 22nd inst., at the usual polling places in the several wards, at which those persons who agree to the issue of bonds as above said, will vote on a ballot written or printed, the word, "Bonds;" and those persons opposed to such issue, will vote "No Bonds." The holders of said election will be appointed by the Mayor. By order of the Board of Aldermen, W. F. DAVIDSON, Mayor. F. NASH, Clerk & Treas. Nov 5 1e

MONEY! MONEY WANTED! GOODS SOLD AT Panic Prices TAKING into consideration the existing state of affairs, such as low price of Cotton, scarcity of Money, and a general depression in every branch of business; I have firmly resolved that I will henceforth offer my stock of Goods to the public at PANIC-PRICES! There will be no deviation from this rule. It will be strictly observed. The principal Stock of my Fall and Winter Goods has been purchased by me in the Eastern Markets, after the depression in every branch of business; and in consequence, at low figures I am therefore enabled to sell my Goods at greatly reduced prices. The Goods have also been selected with usual care and attention. The course pursued for strict, fair and honest dealing, during the number of years I have resided in Charlotte, and the patronage and confidence heretofore so liberally extended to me by the people, gives me the assurance NOW, that this announcement will find its way into every household with the desired effect. My Stock of Goods is complete in every department, and those wishing to purchase will be able to suit themselves in

FOR LIVERPOOL THE First Class Ship NICOLAS THAYER and ARLINGTON will sail for Liverpool. We are authorized by houses of undoubted credit to make cash advances in currency of three fourths of market value on consignments of cotton by the above ships, and the same will be held as long as shippers may desire. A good opportunity is thus afforded to those who wish to purchase at present low prices, or to hold for a better market.
